George Hoxsey returned to Eugene, Oregon, Sunday, to resume his studies at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Jimmie Miller and son were up from Cashmere over New Year's day visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. May Brun, of Woodburn, Oregon, arrived here Tuesday to visit the Albright and Sexton Carlquist families.

Ed. Gosslee stopped off here last Sunday on the way to his home at Seattle, after a visit at Lewiston, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lindley of Wenatchee, were New Year visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lindley in Leavenworth.

J. W. Elliott says he is going into the circus business and is all ready to go excepting a couple of little attractions he wishes to pick up.

Harold Black, four years old, coasted into an auto in front of his home at Wenatchee and suffered a slight fracture of the skull; but was reported to be in no danger.

F. T. Motteler, L. C. Brender and Geo. Schubert went to Wenatchee Tuesday to serve as jurors. Attorneys Lindley and Howe were also down to get a line-up on cases.

R. B. Field went to Seattle Wednesday to consult physicians in regard to his recent ailment, from which, however, he seems to be recovering nicely, and this trip was only precautionary.

Wenatchee has been having the heaviest snowfall so far this winter this week. Those returning here Tuesday on No. 39 said that there was five inches of snow at the county seat and still falling.

We are not saying what may happen, but from present indications there will be a short crop of ice in this vicinity this season. So far the mill pond has not frozen over and the boys' skates are still rusting in the woodshed.

Henry J. Williams, formerly employed at the Great Northern Lumber yard offices, writes from Chicago giving his new address and expressing good wishes to friends and acquaintances here, which are returned on the part of the Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Reasick entertained Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Barkee, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sinclair and daughter Edith and son Fred, Mr. Herbert Church and son George, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Schannach and O. A. Lee New Year's night at their home.

County Commissioner E. C. Long passed through town Wednesday on his way to Seattle to attend a meeting of county commissioners with a view to agreeing upon road legislation to be passed by the legislature at the approaching session. The defeat of the Carlyon bill throws road plans into confusion and it is hoped that a plan may be patched up which will be satisfactory to most of the state and make it possible to get needed action in the construction of main highways. Mr. Long is deeply interested in the subject of highways and is putting forth his best efforts to have the most accomplished within our means.

Ed. Furgeson was up from Wenatchee Monday.

Louis Fisher was at Wenatchee the first of the week.

We have special bargains in coats, suits and dresses.—Sampson's. (*)
