Is it not time for the Commercial club to be aroused from its summer's sleep and put into operation? No doubt much good can be accomplished if we meet and discuss matters. One thing that ought to be taken up at once is the exhibit at the Seattle Apple exposition.

The members of the Dix Club and a few invited friends enjoyed a very successful dancing party at the K. P. hall last Saturday evening. Music was furnished by Hagler brothers and at a late hour appetizing refreshments were served. It was a delightful party and everyone spent a very successful evening.

World: Friday morning about 9 o'clock a barge containing 700 head of sheep belonging to Morrow Brothers of Sunnyside, which was being towed across Lake Chelan by the Perry Boat Company's boat Comanche, struck a rock and sank, causing 400 head of sheep, which were on the lower deck to drown, according to reports received here. The barge was a three decker and the sheep on the two upper decks were taken off and they swam to shore.

J. C. Staggs, W. H. and W. D. Resburg, H. L. Montgomery and J. Strutzel of Monitor were arrested Sunday for hunting on the Nason Creek game preserve, and forfeited $10 bail money each, which was put up for their appearance in court Monday. The game warden says that women and boys under sixteen must have licenses of their own to hunt or fish. It is unlawful to shoot game from a vehicle. The limit on mixed bags of upland birds is five, and a hunter must not have more than one day's limit in his possession at one time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cockburn were up to White River Sunday, viewing the sights and enjoying the salubrious atmosphere; and also saluting old acquaintances. Returning they found the Beaver Creek hill on this side very slippery and Mr. Wheeler says that his car turned around and started back up the hill. The only amusing feature of this incident was that when he undertook to turn around to go down hill again he had not room enough and had to drive back up the hill to find a place to turn around.

Bandits held up a circus truck which was conveying the cash from the circus to the treasury car at Vancouver last week and on Saturday the hiding place of the money stolen, $30,000, was discovered by a farmer. Officers lay in wait that night and when the thieves came for the loot two were shot. They were Roy Moore and Bert Orcutt, of Seattle. The thieves had returned in an automobile and Moore's wife and two children and a young woman who gave her name as Christine Gross, waited in the auto while the two men went into the brush where the money was hidden to get it. The women and children were also taken into custody.

Two Leavenworth men, one of whom has been taking a course to improve his memory, were recently out driving and meeting a man, one of them accosted him as Mr. Bachelor and the other as Mr. Sears. After they had passed on the latter inquired of the other why he had called the man Bachelor, saying that he had known him fifteen years and that his name was Sears. Whereupon the other said he had known the Sears family a long time and that the gentleman whom they had met had been in his place of business just a day or so before and that he had carefully fixed his face in his memory so that he would know him as Mr. Bachelor when he again saw him. Both were positive and took the trouble to return and find the gentleman to settle the dispute. One of them opened up by asking: "What is your name; Bachelor or Sears?" whereupon he announced: "Why my name is John Heelin." Neither party has since had much to say as to his ability to remember faces and names.

NIGHT SCHOOL.

The night school courses conducted in the high school building last winter proved to be a decided success, and no doubt there will be more call for this kind of work this coming season. It is the intention to open these classes the first Monday in October, and continue for a term of six months, meeting three times a week. The cost last winter was $9.60 for two month's work in a subject of one hour duration, or $16.80 in a two period class, payable in advance. This was on the basis of five pupils in a class. More in a class would reduce the cost per pupil.

All who are interested in doing night school work should call on or phone Mr. Sutton this week without fail.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to express to the people of Leavenworth and vicinity my deep appreciation of the assistance given me upon the death of my brother, Matthew Gallant, and for the beautiful flowers and other expressions of sympathy.

—Peter Gallant.

E. M. Gillette of Malaga was re-elected a member of the executive committee of the Good Roads convention last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hodge drove to Wenatchee the first of last week, accompanied by Mr. O. E. Schonover of St. Paul, Minnesota.

Rain threatened here for several days and finally Tuesday evening good showers fell, thoroughly soaking the ground and putting fruit in fine condition for picking, as all the dust and sediment from the spraying was washed off. Four-tenths of an inch fell.

Sixty I. W. W.'s were arrested at Wenatchee Monday and eight of them (all that carried red cards) were held and prosecuted. The others were let go. Evidence was obtained that the I. W. W.'s will endeavor to organize the apple pickers of this district.

Mrs. J. B. Adams, Mrs. J. B. DeBlois and daughter Frances, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Brower, Earl Jones, Miss Wansbrough, Dr. C. A. Laws, Mrs. J. D. Ely and Miss Edith Sinclair went over to Embro on No. 3 Sunday morning for an outing in the hills. The latter four hiked from Embro to scenic while the others stayed in the vicinity of Embro. Rain fell the whole day and, while Leavenworth people shed water quite readily, all in this party seem to have been pretty thoroughly saturated before they again reached home.

The Eastern Star enjoyed a visit from Grand Matron Edith Gattis on Monday evening, September 19th. A large number of members and visitors were present. Delightful refreshments were served by the committee in charge. On Tuesday, September 20, a school of instruction was held in Wenatchee at the Masonic Temple. The following local members of the Eastern Star were present: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Constable, Mr. and Mrs. W. Stage, and the Mesdames Motteler, Gutherless, Ewing, Brown, Wettstein, Wheeler, Walker, Ruth and Hodge.

Several honest persons were discovered in Wenatchee last week, which reminds us that this old world is not such a bad place after all and we never could understand why some people will deliberately shuffle off into another of which they know nothing. One of the honest men was O. R. Williams, the Ephrata harnessmaker, who found a wallet with $90 in which he turned over to the police and they in turn restored it to its owner, J. E. Bedford, an apple picker. Another was James Thomas of the Morris Hardware Co., who picked up a $5-william someone had thoughtlessly left lying on the counter, and when he saw an advertisement of Dale Barnett, a carrier for the World, who had lost $5, he consulted him with the intention of turning it over to him. But Barnett said that the bill Thomas had was not his and he would not have it—going down as the third honest person—and there may be more—who knows?

SNEAK THIEVES AROUND.

Sneak thieves attempted to enter the K. & V. B. Hardware store Tuesday night, but were frightened away by F. W. Spencer's Airdale dog. Spencer sleeps in the store and recently got himself a dog which he keeps there with him. The dog is now highly valued by all around the store and it is safe to say that his meal ticket is good for a considerable time.

The thieves had approached the back of the store and pried off a window cleat. Spencer says that he heard some little noise outside and noticed the dog getting uneasy and soon he began tearing about and barking. Spencer got up and went outside and discovered what had taken place. The good, old-fashioned watch dog is about as good protection against prowlers as can be found.
