LAKE WENATCHEE NEWS.

A large crowd enjoyed a pleasant evening at Brown's last Saturday evening at the dedication of the new house. Card playing, music and dancing were indulged in. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Everybody reports a good time.

George Siverly and Mrs. Millard were business visitors at Monitor one day last week.

Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Dickinson drove to the city last Thursday to attend the meeting of the Eastern Star, at which the Grand Matron visited.

Lester Brown delivered some spuds to Camp G last week.

Grover Dickinson and Wm. Bates left the first of the week for Cady Creek where they will construct a trappers' cabin for use this winter.

Geo. Siverly and Alvin Millard were Leavenworth shoppers one day last week.

Ray Barnes went out to the Royal mine the first of the week to work.
