MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

A PESHASTIN NEWS LETTER.

Hello everybody:
Well every morning when I wake up I expect to see snow, but so far so good and here's hoping. And you know that old saying, "No news is good news?" Well, some news is good news this week, for you know last Thursday we had a mother's meeting and it was fine. There were about 35 mothers present and they put over one fine stunt, that is—hot lunches at noon for children who can't go home to dinner. And this is the way they are going to work it: The people from the M. E. church up on Peshastin creek are under Mrs. French's supervision; all people in and around the block and east to edge of our district are under Mrs. Weinstein and the people on north side of Peshastin proper are under Mrs. Daggett. Mrs. French's district will have it first and Mrs. French will appoint two women each day to go and prepare the lunch, one hot article, then Mrs. Weinstein's and so on. Funds are being solicited among patrons who have children to profit by this plan and there are several who have no children in school who think it is such a good plan that they are contributing too. Not only money, but milk, butter, vegetables and so forth. The lunches will be five, so this way is taken to raise the money for supplies. This method is simply on trial, however, and if it doesn't work right, different plans will have to be made. The whole thing in a nutshell is this: Hot lunch (one article) will be served free every noon to children who come from such a distance that they have to carry lunch, families are being solicited for funds from 50c up to $2 according to children in school who will profit by plans, anyone having extra milk (that they have formerly been feeding to stock or chickens) can help a lot by giving it for this work, as children, whether yours or not, are far more important than stock and any vegetables which you may have in abundance. And if you want to contribute for the good of the cause, whether you have children in school or not, you can call either one of the ladies I have mentioned or Mrs. Springer. Then after these plans were made, Miss Ruth Hammond's room came in and sang a dear little song, and Helen Carriker played a very pretty piano solo, and Miss Mildred French recited a number which exactly depicted "daddy" when sick. Milton Kirby then recited "I have a little shadow," by Stevenson and used clever little gestures throughout, and was followed by Doris Harvey with a sweet little recitation. Mrs. Osborne read a very good paper on "The Perils of the Movies to Our Children," and then Mrs. Norton brought her room in to sing (and there were about sixty youngsters), and Vola Thompson recited. Mrs. Springer then read an article on the difference between imagination stories and real falsehoods. Then we went up to the domestic science room, where the D. S. class served lunch: creamed chicken on toast, celery, hot rolls and butter; sliced oranges, wafers and coffee; and my! everything tasted good. Professor Richmond then gave a good all around talk; and we went home, all hoping they would have another mothers' meeting soon.

There was just the nicest party up in the hall Friday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wright who left Saturday. They danced of course and there were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Alee Pulse, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig, Mr. Marion Green, Mr. and Mrs. Groth, Miss Ruth Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carey, Mr. and Mrs. S. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cox and the guests of honor present, and wasn't it a mean trick—somebody stole their cake?

And sav, appendicitis has hit this little burg. Mrs. Harry Moore was taken to Wenatchee Sunday and was operated on that day and Robert Wright was operated on at the Leavenworth hospital Sunday night at 2 o'clock. They are both doing fine. And while I am talking about sick folks, Bessie Headley has been sick but is better and Mrs. J. F. Osborne had a stroke of paralysis last week but is improving.

I guess I told you last week that P. L. F. Club met at Mrs. Rogers' well, it met again last Friday with Mrs. Billy Spanjer, and we sure had a nice time. Mrs. Ott had her new baby there and he was just as good, never cried once, and then there were several other little tots present. Mrs. Harry Baker read a splendid paper on "Child Training," a subject that is very prominent all over the United States today. The hostess served the goodiest things: apple salad, chicken sandwiches, coffee, and pumpkin pie with whipped cream. The members who were there were Myrtle Baker, Lena Daggett, Beulah Franz, Kathly Gregory, Lyda Harvey, Eunice Harvey, Jean Hauber, Ruby Leedy, Grace Miller, Laura Newell, Rosa Ott, Georgia Rogers, Nellie Stage, and the hostess, Mrs. Lee Young was a guest. Oh, we're having lots of parties and things now. The Charlie Stage's entertained the following crowd at their home Saturday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Pulse, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Holt, Lester West, Mrs. West, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Cox, Miss Bertha Larsen, Mr. Nels Larsen, Ernest Shull, Violet Stedman, Mrs. Stedman, Mr. Crow and son, Earl Jones, Marie Dilly, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cox. Everybody danced.

And the P. L. F. crowd had a card party at the Billy Spanjer home Saturday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Leedy who are leaving for Wenatchee to make their home. We played "500" and Mrs. Harry Harvey won first honors. Mrs. Alva Franz the "booby." We had sandwiches, coffee and pickles to eat, and after lunch listened to some good Victrola selections, and then "home again." Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alva Franz, Mrs. Kathly Gregory, the Leonard Harveys, the Harry Harveys, Mr. and Mrs. Leedy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Stages, Mrs. Maude Starks, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Young, Mr. and Mrs. Newell and the host and hostess.

We will grow old, there is no use talking. Sunday, Mr. Fryberger passed another milestone, so Mr. and Mrs. John McCoy, Mrs. Kathly Gregory and Miss Lanphere were guests at dinner at the Fryberger home on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis entertained Rev. and Mrs. Emery and two sons and Robert and Paul Gregory at dinner Sunday, and though it may not have been anyone's birthday, I heard they had a mighty good dinner.

And now everyone is busy making things for the M. E. bazaar which is coming off Dec. 8, at the Grange hall. That makes me think, Grays have moved to Wenatchee, though I suppose most of you know it. But coming back to the bazaar, it is going to be a dandy, and a big supper! Yoo-hoo, Skinnay, c'mon over! Dec. 8, at the Grange hall.

And the night before that, Dec. 7, Dr. Douglas of Pullman, is going to lecture at the Auditorium under the auspices of the P. T. A., on "Physical and Mental Development of Children from Birth up to the Adolescent Period." This will be a worth while lecture and fully worth the 35c admission which will be charged.

And they tell me that Dec. 14 is regular P. T. A. night but it will be library night and you will be charged one book for admission. Either one you want to loan to the school library or care to donate (they don't need to be new books), and the eighth grade is preparing a program, so you'll have a nice time.

I guess everyone is coming out of their shell, so to speak, since hard work shadow. Monday night the young married people's class of the M. E. S. S. had a meeting at the Springer home and had a very pleasant time. There were about fifteen there and they had jello, sponge cake, and cocoa to eat.

Tuesday afternoon the M. E. S. S. boys had a soccer football game down at the Davis home and then had apple pie and coffee to reinforce them until supper time.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fryberger entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lee Young, Mr. and Mrs. Eunice Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. John McCoy, Mrs. Gregory, Mr. Wilson and Miss Lanphere in their home, as a farewell party to Mrs. Otis, who leaves this week for her home in California. Everyone had lots of popcorn and candy to eat and we had music and checker games and general conversation. Guess I don't know anything more; think I've told enuf anyway, and have writer's cramp besides, so if I've left out anything it will have to wait until next week.

Bye.

P. S.—I forgot to tell you that Mrs. Jones and children have gone away for the winter, but Mr. Jones is still here keeping bachelor quarters. Also Miss Bernice Butterfield left for Seattle last Friday.

EMINENT PSYCHOLOGIST COMING TO PESHASTIN.

Doctor A. A. Douglass, a well known psychologist and educator from the State College of Washington, is going to speak at the school auditorium at Peshastin on "The Mental Development of Children." This lecture will trace the mental development of children from early life through to adulthood.

Doctor Douglass received his training in psychology at Clark University, an institution which is recognized as the pioneer and leader in psychology. While there was one of the students who had the rare privilege of studying under the late G. Stanley Hall. For the last four years Dr. Douglass has been connected with the School of Education at the State College. He is nationally known as an educator and no parent or teacher can afford to miss this opportunity to hear him.

Doctor Douglass has requested that parents bring any questions they may have to ask about the mental development of children and after his talk he will be glad to discuss these questions in an informal way with them.

This talk is open to all persons interested in children. A charge of 35c is going to be made to defray the expense of bringing Dr. Douglass here. The P. T. A. of Peshastin has made arrangements for this address and this organization wishes to extend a welcome to all persons interested to come and hear this lecture on Thursday evening, December the 7th, at 8 o'clock at the Peshastin school auditorium.
