

WHAT IS PE-RU-NA?

Is it a Catarrh Remedy, or a Tonic, or is it Both?

Some people call Peruna a great tonic. Others refer to Peruna as a great catarrh remedy.

Which of these people are right? Is it more proper to call Peruna a catarrh remedy than to call it a tonic?

Our reply is, that Peruna is both a tonic and a catarrh remedy. Indeed, there can be no effectual catarrh remedy that is not also a tonic.

In order to thoroughly relieve any case of catarrh, a remedy must not only have a specific action on the mucous membranes affected by the catarrh, but it must have a general tonic action on the nervous system.

Catarrh, even in persons who are otherwise strong, is a weakened condition of some mucous membrane. There must be something to strengthen the circulation, to give tone to the arteries, and to raise the vital force.

Perhaps no vegetable remedy in the world has attracted so much attention from medical writers as HYDRASTIS CANADENSIS. The wonderful efficacy of this herb has been recognized many years, and is growing in its hold upon the medical profession. When joined with CUBEBES and COPAIBA a trio of medical agents is formed in Peruna which constitutes a specific remedy for catarrh that in the present state of medical progress cannot be improved upon.

This action, reinforced by such renowned tonics as COLLINSONIA CANADENSIS, CORYDALIS FORMOSA and CEDRON SEED, ought to make this compound an ideal remedy for catarrh in all its stages and locations in the body.

From a theoretical standpoint, therefore, Peruna is beyond criticism. The use of Peruna, confirms this opinion. Numberless testimonials from every quarter of the earth furnish ample evidence that this judgment is not over enthusiastic. When practical experience confirms a well-grounded theory the result is a truth that cannot be shaken.

Bernhardt to Act Till Death.

Paris, Oct. 23.—Sarah Bernhardt, in denying a rumor that she is soon to retire from the stage, reiterated her often expressed declaration that she will play until she dies. She said: "This may, of course, be my last season, as rumor says, for I am an old woman, and my life is in God's hands, but I shall play until my death and the fate I hope for is the death Sir Henry Irving died."

Klaw Wants Lid On or Off.

New York, Oct. 22.—Marc Klaw, head of the theater trust, would like to see all places of amusement closed on Sunday. If they can't be closed, he thinks the lid ought to be lifted altogether. Perhaps the fair thing would be local option. Klaw voiced his opinion before Magistrate Dooley when he defended himself in the Adams street police court against Pastor William O. Schas of Christ church. Will Iamsburg, who had the Schubert theater in Brooklyn raided for a Sunday show.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

Lochinvar.

Oh, young Lochinvar is come out of the west,
Through all the wide Border his steed was the best,
And save his good broadsword he weapons
had none;
He rode all unarmed, and he rode all alone.
So faithful in love, and so dauntless in war—
There never was a knight like the young
Lochinvar.

He stayed not for brake, and he stopped
not for stone,
So swam the Eske river where ford there was none;
But, ere he alighted at Netherby gate,
The bride had consented—the gallant came late!
For a laggard in love, and a dastard in
war,
Was to wed the fair Ellen of brave
Lochinvar.

So boldly he entered the Netherby Hall,
"Mong bridesmen and kinsmen, and brothers and all;
Then spoke the bride's father, his hand
on his sword (For the poor craven bridegroom said never a word),
"Oh, come ye in peace here, or come ye in war?"
Or to dance at our bridal, young Lord
Lochinvar?"

"I long wooed your daughter; my suit you denied;—
Love swells like the Solway, but ebbs like its tide—
And now I am come, with this lost love of mine
To lead but one measure, drink one cup of wine.
There are maidens in Scotland more lovely by far
That would gladly be bride to the young
Lochinvar."

The bride kissed the goblet, the knight
took it up,
He quaffed of the wine, and he threw down the cup,
She looked down to blush, and she looked up to sigh,
With a smile on her lips and a tear in her eye.
He took her soft hand, ere her mother
could bar,
"Now tread we a measure!" said young Lochinvar.

So stately his form, and so lovely her face,
That never a hall such a galliard did grace;
While her mother did fret, and her father
did fume,
And the bridegroom stood dangling his bonnet and plume,
And the bride-maidens whispered,—"Twere better by far
To have matched our fair cousin with young Lochinvar."

One touch to her hand, and one word in her ear,
When they reached the hall door, and the charger stood near;
So light to the croup the fair lady he swung!
So light to the saddle before her he sprung!
"She is won!" We are gone, over bank,
bush, and scur;
They'll have feet steeds that follow," quoth young Lochinvar.

There was mounting 'mong Graemes of the Netherby clan; Forsters, Fenwicks, and Musgraves, they rode and they ran;
There was racing and chasing, on Can-noble Lee,
But the lost bride of Netherby ne'er did they see.

So daring in love, and so dauntless in
war,
Have ye e'er heard of gallant like young Lochinvar?
—Sir Walter Scott.

Lady and Conductor.

"Give me a transfer, conductor,"
said a mild-looking woman on a Madison avenue car.

"Why didn't you ask for it before?"
growled the conductor.

"I forgot to."

"And now you want me to forget the rules of the company and give you one?"

"Aln' he fresh?" commented a young girl who was wearing one of those wide-brimmed hats which begin on the apex of the pompadour and end somewhere near the small of the back.
"They're all fresh and nobody says anything to them. But I heard a lady the other day giving a conductor rats.
She called him everything she could think of, and she kept it up for half an hour. I was glad to hear her, for ladies don't often tell a conductor just what he is. Some of them don't have the language. But this lady had it all right. Pa's a longshoreman, but I never heard him do better."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Just Talk.

"Yes," said Dr. Youngman, "I've got my degree of M. D. now, but I'm no wealthier. All I've got is my title."
"Well," replied Joakley, "all young doctors get their titles by degrees, but they must have patients before they become wealthy."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Masterful Negative.

"In order to develop stability a man must learn to say 'no,'" said the moralist.

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum,
"Especially when some one hints that he ought to resign."—Washington Star.

RIOT THREATENS VALDEZ.

Receiver Probable for Half of the Town.
Seattle, Wash., Oct. 22.—Cable advice received here by local Alaskans are to the effect that instead of the situation due to the failure of the Reynolds bank being cleared up, complications have so thickened at Valdez that there is danger of a riot, and the destruction of property. No money has been received at Valdez for the payment of the 600 employees of the Alaska-Nome railway, who are without means to secure food and shelter, and the Reynolds Alaska Development company affairs have become so complicated that it is expected half the town will have to pass through the hands of a receiver.

Deadly Hurricane Off Norway.

WILL SUCCEED MRS. EDDY.

Mrs. Augusta Stetson of New York
Has Been Selected.
Concord, N. H., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, first reader of the Christian Science church in New York, has been selected as understudy of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of and high priestess of the cult.

This fact leaked out here and incidentally explains the presence during the last six weeks of the countess of Dunmore, the most prominent of leaders of the church in England, and of other Christian Scientists who have the confidence of the aged reader at her home in Pleasant View. At the conferences held here a policy of absolute secrecy was decided on. Therefore, when inquiry is made at the magnificent home of Mrs. Eddy, or other places, no information is vouchsafed.

When the card of a prominent member of the faith was sent to the leader, asking for a momentary interview to present important matters, he was referred to page 464 of Science and Health, which reads:

"It has been said to the author, 'The world is benefitted by you, but it feels your influence without seeing you. Why do you not make yourself more widely known?' Could her friends know how little time the author has to make herself outwardly known, excepting through her publications—and how much time and toil are still required to establish the stately operations of Christian Science—they would understand why she is so secluded."

Mrs. Eddy will publish within three months an addition to her Science and Health which, it is understood here, will deal at great length with the opposition of the medical fraternity to the science movement and advise her followers just what to do in hostile communities.

Money you find looks a good deal bigger than an equal amount earned.

OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal it is because the blood is not pure and healthy, as it should be, but is infected with poisonous germs or some old blood taint which has corrupted and polluted the circulation. Those most usually afflicted with old sores are persons who have reached or passed middle life. The vitality of the blood and strength of the system have naturally begun to decline, and the poisonous germs which have accumulated because of a sluggish and inactive condition of the system, or some hereditary taint which has hitherto been held in check, now force an outlet on the face, arms, legs or other part of the body. The place grows red and angry, festers and eats into the surrounding tissue until it becomes a chronic and stubborn ulcer, fed and kept open by the impurities with which the blood is saturated. Nothing is more trying and disagreeable than a stubborn, non-healing sore. The very fact that it resists ordinary remedies and treatments is good reason for suspicion; the same germ-producing cancerous ulcers is back of every old sore, and especially is this true if the trouble is an inherited one. Washes, salves, nor indeed anything else, applied directly to the sore, can do any permanent good; neither will removing the sore with caustic plasters or the surgeon's knife make a lasting cure. If every particle of the diseased flesh were taken away another sore would come, because the trouble is in the blood, and the blood cannot be cut away.

The cure must come by a thorough cleansing of the blood. In S. S. S. will be found a remedy for sores and ulcers of every kind. It is an unequalled blood purifier—one that goes directly into the circulation and promptly cleanses it of all poisons and taints. It gets down to the very bottom of the trouble and forces out every trace of impurity and makes a complete and lasting cure. S. S. S. changes the quality of the blood so that instead of feeding the diseased parts with impurities, it nourishes the irritated, inflamed flesh with healthy blood.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

Then the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, all pain and inflammation leaves, the place scars over, and when S. S. S. has purified the blood the sore is permanently cured. S. S. S. is for sale at all first class drug stores. Write for our special book on sores and ulcers and any other medical advice you desire. We make no charge for the book or advice.
