

BRIEF MENTION.

Judge Goss was down from Melbourne yesterday. Editor Abel, of the Economist, was in town yesterday morning. Oakville will have an old-fashioned basket picnic the Fourth of July.

New sweet corn, tomatoes, squash, cucumbers at Shelley & Co.'s.

Mr. Fred H. Holbluck, recently with Fred Redinger, has opened up a barber shop at Westport.

If you are looking for a cheap miss' shoe, Jeff has them for $1.25 in grain and $1.50 in dongola.

Joseph F. Juza was up from Ocoza yesterday, and while in town gave this office a pleasant call.

The Review club held memorial exercises for Mrs. N. S. Arnold at their regular meeting last Tuesday.

The three-masted schooner Lilliebonne, the first arrival for the West & Slade mill, came into port Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Anna Sitton, state lecturer for the Good Templars, lectured in the Presbyterian church last Sunday afternoon.

Postmaster Porter, of Ocoza, was in town yesterday, in connection with what is becoming known as the famous Safe case.

Don't wait for anyone's old shoes, but be up to date and wear Jeff's stylish foot-wear. They cost no more than old shoes.

The Myers shingle mill has been brought up from the Johns river and stored in the Whitehouse & Crimmins building.

H. F. Coles was down from Grand Forks Saturday. He is still contending for the Populist doctrine, and clubbing the gold bugs.

Mail service has been established between Westport and North Cove, six times a week, schedule not to exceed four hours each way.

Ex-Senator Clough, of Vancouver, was an over-lander visitor in town. He is a property owner here, and was looking after his interests.

Albert Phillips, of Ocoza, has secured employment in the Kroenert shingle mill, now leased by Lewis Bros., and will become a resident of Aberdeen.

Miss Jessie Haynes came up from Oakland, California, on the Del Norte last week for a two months' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Haynes.

On Monday A. Dillon caught his right hand in the carriage at West's mill and had it badly crushed, and cut across the fingers. No bones were broken, however.

The Kroenert shingle mill was started up this morning by Lewis Bros., lessees, after having been put in thorough order for turning out a maximum amount of first-class shingles.

Pastor Lindsay's subject next Sunday morning at the Congregational church will be, "Faith and Life." His evening subject will be, "Marcus Whitman, Washington's Hero, Patriot and Martyr."

Miss Frances De F. Folsom, graduate from Portland Kindergarten Institute, is visiting Mrs. A. C. Clark this week, and will interest mothers in organizing for a movement towards putting in a modern kindergarten system with latest facilities.

The draw bridge stuck Tuesday in an attempt to open it, and the steamer Montesano came very near running into it. The warm weather expanding the sustaining rods, caused the ends of the bridge to sag. They have been tightened up.

C. C. Cushman, representing the Northwestern Nursery, of Walla Walla, left yesterday morning after a few weeks in the county. He reports his sales more than double those of last fall, which is a good indication of the prosperity and enterprise of the people of Chehalis county.

The O. R. & N. Co., always alert to the welfare of their patrons, have placed on sale at principal stations, a 1000-mile ticket at the rate of three cents per mile, good for one year from date of sale and good for passage over the rail and water lines of their system.

The ball game between Aberdeen and Hoquiam last Sunday resulted in a victory for the Aberdeens by a score of 15 to 11. The Washingtonian excuses the Hoquiam's bad playing recently by saying that "most of the boys have been working twelve hours a day in the mills, and have had no time for practice."

Get one of those warranted axes at F. L. Carman & Co.'s new hardware store.

Tuesday evening at about nine o'clock an unusually pretty sight was seen in the western sky. The moon and the planet Jupiter were in conjunction, and the gleaming star seemed to be resting upon the horn of the new moon. The moon gradually moved eastward in its course, and Jupiter seemed to pass around the former in order to avoid a collision.

The friends of the Seventh Day Adventists are having a treat this week. Elders W. W. Sharp and S. W. Nellis have pitched a large tent at the corner of Market and D streets and are holding meetings each evening. They are now discussing some of the prophecies of Daniel. The Adventists, as their name indicates, believe in the soon coming of Christ, but they are not the class that set a time. They fully believe that "of that day and hour knoweth no man." The attendance at the tent has been fair, the congregations giving close attention. Many interesting subjects will be presented. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. A. Vesper and son Otto are expected to arrive here Saturday from Kansas, where they have been visiting relatives and friends for the past two months.

Miss May Callahan, Western Union Telegraph Co. operator, will leave next Wednesday for Tacoma and Seattle to enjoy a three weeks' vacation. Her place will be occupied by John McDonald, of Tacoma.

A very pleasant party was given at the home of Miss Anna Campbell last evening in honor of Misses Inez and Claire Weatherwax, who leave for Michigan next week. There were about twenty present.

Two raffles were held here last Saturday night—for a $50 steel range at Carman & Co.'s hardware store and an $85 bicycle at Schofield's jewelry store. Anderson & Suenmicht won the stove and C. H. Giles the wheel.

Mrs. J. Sellstrom wife of the pastor of the Swedish Mission church, died last Saturday, aged 32 years. Her death was unusually sad. They had just arrived to take charge of the new Mission church. She had been married four years, and leaves two small children.

Postmaster A. F. Stevens returned from San Francisco, on the Point Loma, yesterday. He will remain to make a final settlement with the government and turn the office over to his successor, when he will return to San Francisco, accompanied by Mrs. Stevens and daughter.

Children's day was observed at the Methodist church last Sunday, and the evening service was given over to the little ones. The crowning of the queen of the Sunday school, in which some of the larger ones assisted was a pretty service. The church was decorated with flowers and the rooms filled to overflowing.

A reception was given last Saturday by Mrs. A. D. Wood in honor of the 81st birthday of Grandmother Wood. A large number of invitations had been issued, and many attended. The house was handsomely decorated; vocal and instrumental music filled the hours, selections being rendered by Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Thomas, Miss Belle Wood, and others; the refreshments were faultless. Altogether the occasion was a happy one for Grandmother Wood. May she live to celebrate many more.

For SALE.—One hand skidder in good order, and 125 feet of half-inch wire cable. See L. E. Mayhall.

A Noted Guest.

Invitations have been issued by Wishkah Camp, No. 189, Woodmen of the World, for tomorrow evening, to meet Hon. F. A. Falkenburg, of Denver, Col., Head Consul, who will deliver an address.

Mr. Falkenburg has the reputation of being one of the best speakers of the state of Colorado, and is now closing a tour of the Pacific jurisdiction. A program has been prepared as follows:

Quartet—What Beams so Bright. Messrs. Wilmot, Hart, Des Brisay and Weatherwax.

Impersonation—Selected. Prof. Campbell Quartet—How Can I Leave Thee. Messrs. Wilmot, Hart, Des Brisay and Weatherwax.

Address. Hon. F. A. Falkenburg Quartet—Selected. Messrs. Wilmot, Hart, Des Brisay and Weatherwax.

Refreshments—At the Pacific Hotel.

The jurisdiction of which Mr. Falkenburg is the head officer has a membership of over 12,000, and is growing at the rate of 600 or 700 per month. In Oregon alone the order has gained nearly 1,000 members after hearing its benefits explained by Head Consul Falkenburg.

The services at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday will be especially interesting. In the morning the pastor will preach on "The Church and the World." In the evening on "The Coming of Christ. A half-hour of song precedes the evening sermon, and the following selections will be rendered by the choir during the evening service:

Savior Breathe a Blessing. Choir Solo—O Jesus, Thou art Standing. JAMES F. GIBSON.

As Panteth the Heart. Choir Solo—Nearer My God to Thee. MRS. S. A. BRIGHT.

The other services of the day will be Sabbath School at 10 a. m. Class meeting at 12 m. Epworth League Devotional Services at 6:30 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Everybody treated alike at Jeff's. A child can deal with as much certainty of proper attention and honest values as father or mother.

A Man's a Man

For a o' that, is just as true today as when that sentence was penned by the poet Burns. Nevertheless all men do desire to be well attired, even though he can be just as much a man in shabby apparel. To be well attired does not necessarily mean expensively so, and it is astonishing how well clothed a man may become, with but a few dollars, if he will only buy of

The Congregational Association.

The fourth annual meeting of the Tacoma association of Congregational churches and ministers that convened in this city last week was a great success. Although there were not so many present as expected, the representative men were present. Those placed on the program for addresses and papers were all present except one, rather an exceptional fact.

The papers were all good. Those worthy of special mention were Dr. Myron Ellis' paper on "Inspiration and the Higher Criticism; Rev. A. H. Hurd's paper on "American Religious Liberty," and Rev. A. J. Smith's paper on "The Christian Home in its Relation to the Times." The addresses were also good and timely. Dr. L. H. Hallock on "The Preaching for the times," Tuesday evening was suggestive, pointed, eloquent and sometimes quite inspiring. The preachers present received some very practical suggestions which they may profitably put in practice.

Rev. E. R. Loomis, on "The Church and Popular Amusements," Wednesday evening, handled an old subject in a new and very masterly manner. It is difficult to understand how any Christian could have listened to his clear statements and lucid reasoning and still be unconvinced of the evils in card-playing, dancing, theater-going, etc.

The Association's sermon by Dr. C. L. Diven, Thursday evening, was tender and pointed, an eloquent appeal for loyalty to Christ. The association owed much to Mrs. L. H. Hallock's singing. Her solos delighted every listener. We all hope we may hear her again.

Friday, seventeen of our guests and friends spent a very pleasant day at Co-hasset and the Ocean beach. Our visitors all, with one consent, expressed the opinion that Aberdeen is a good place to come to.
