THE BURDETT ORGANS

"Them Burdett Organs beats anything ever turned out since Adam was a boy. They are right up with Chickering and Kimball Pianos. Jubal, that made organs away back in Genesis, wasn't in it with Burdett.

"Burdett leads, and all them other fellows making organs are coming along behind. A Burdett Organ makes the sweetest music I ever heard, except Sallie Ann's voice when I popped the question and she answered, 'Yes.'

"The new State of Washington is the garden spot of my possessions, and my nieces and nephews out there must have the best. When I heard that D. S. Johnston, of Tacoma and Seattle, had the agency for the Burdett Organs, and was shipping them out there by the carloads, along with all them fine pianos he sells, I was so pleased I just laughed out loud, and Sallie Ann, too.

"We know all about D. S. Johnston; he went from Cincinnati; he will treat the people right and do just as he agrees to. His guarantee is as good as one of my government bonds. You buy a Burdett Organ and Uncle Sam's word for it you will make a musician—you can't help it. Hurrah for Washington, McKinley and the Burdett Organs at D. S. JOHNSTON'S, 930 C ST., TACOMA, AND 903 SECOND AVE., SEATTLE!"

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, OLYMPIA.

To Whom it May Concern:

In obedience to an act of the legislature approved March 13, 1899, entitled as follows: "An act providing for the constitutional amendment conferring power upon the legislature to exempt certain property from taxation," there is herewith published for the consideration of the voters of the state of Washington the following proposed amendment to the constitution of said state:

"SECTION 1. It is proposed to amend section two (2) of article seven (7) of the constitution of the state of Washington by adding thereto the following proviso:

"And provided further, That the legislature shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to exempt personal property to the amount of three hundred ($300.00) dollars for each head of a family liable to assessment and taxation under the provisions of the laws of this state, of which the individual is the actual and bona fide owner."

"SEC. 2. That at the general election to be held in November, 1901, the amendment hereinbefore mentioned in section 1 shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state of Washington for their approval, and there shall be printed on each of the ballots provided for said election the words 'For proposed amendment to section 2 of article 7 of the constitution, in relation to taxation.' Against the proposed amendment to section 2 of article 7 of the constitution, in relation to taxation."

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the state of Washington, at Olympia, this twentieth day of July, nineteen hundred.

WILL D. JENKINS,
Secretary of State for the State of Washington. [SEAL]

At said election each elector desiring to vote in favor of the adoption of said proposed amendment should place an X upon his ballot opposite the words "For the proposed amendment to section 2 of article 7 of the constitution, in relation to taxation." Each elector desiring to vote against the adoption of said proposed amendment should place upon his ballot an X opposite the words "Against the proposed amendment to section 2 of article 7 of the constitution, in relation to taxation."

WILL D. JENKINS,
Secretary of State.

Hours Saved to St. Louis.

There's a new train to St. Louis. It is called the St. Louis Special, and it is a good deal faster and a whole lot more comfortable than any other. It runs over the Northern Pacific and Burlington railroads by way of Billings, Montana. If you take it you need not make a single change of cars from the time you leave your home in Montana, Idaho, or Washington, until you reach Kansas City or St. Louis. Thro' sleepers. Thro' tourist-cars. Thro' chair-cars. All meals served in dining-cars. Ask any Northern Pacific ticket agent about the St. Louis Special. Or, if you like, write us for information about it.
