

FREE!

On New Year's Eve we will give away
Four Valuable Prizes

- 1st. One Suit Men's Clothes.
- 2d. One Suit Boy's Clothes.
- 3d. One Lady's Collarette.
- 4th. One Lady's Mackintosh.

One ticket given with each
$1 cash purchase.

N. G. KAUFMAN
THE BRICK STORE
Aberdeen, - - Washington.

BIG DOLL FREE—Free to girl under ten years who guesses nearest the number of beans &c. in our jar. Racket Store.

Rumor of a holdup on Market street last Thursday night appears to have originated with some fellow with a desire to be humorous.

Ocean Camp, No. 9151, Modern Woodmen, of Westport, is arranging to give a grand masquerade ball in Yanna's hall on New Year's eve.

Frank Thomas has purchased 50x100 feet on the southwest corner of Heron and I streets, upon which he intends building a business block.

A liquor license has been granted Mr. Houseman, who will open his new place in the building recently vacated by Geo. L. Hilton, next Saturday.

The Aberdeen-Hoquiam Electric Co. has filed its bond to indemnify the city against damages that may result through the granting of the franchise.

On Sunday morning in the M. E. Church the pastor will discourse on "Lovest thou me," and in the evening on "Gamblers and Gambling."

The Epworth league will give a "Sack Social" at the home of Miss Marcia Smith on B. street, tomorrow evening, to which all are cordially invited.

Wm. Yourex, the slayer of Silas Smith, has been taken from the Aberdeen General hospital and will be tried in the superior court next week.

First Mate Rochon, of the wrecked bark Ernest Reyer, returned Monday from Portland, where he had gone to report the wreck to the French consul.

Thos. Taylor, bookkeeper for the Aberdeen Lumber & Shingle Co., had his bicycle stolen from the rack in front of the Kaufman block, Friday afternoon.

Miss Burrie Dalton left Tuesday for Ashland, Wisconsin, where she will take a responsible position with a large lumber firm. Her mother will follow next spring.

Frank Sullivan, of the Western Co-operative Co., who manages the business of the company at Los Angeles, visited the works of the company in this city during the week.

The wedding is announced of Mr. Paul Underwood and Miss Nellie Weatherwax, to take place this evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Weatherwax.

The new hose house is open to the public this afternoon, and is being visited by quite a number of visitors. The fire laddies entertained their guests with musical selections by the band.

Earl Burlingame, of Ocoosa, aged 28 years, died at the Aberdeen General hospital, Monday morning, of constriction of the bowels. The remains were taken to Ocoosa, where his father resides, for interment.

The HERALD and W. J. Bryan's paper for one year for $2.25, strictly in advance.

Pigs for Sale.—A number of young pigs for sale. Inquire of I. Ducloux, Aberdeen, on the Hoquiam road opposite the slaughter-house.

SHAW'S PURE MALT.—Perfect as a beverage or medicine. It prevents chills and tones up the system. It exhilarates and does not poison. Sold by Fife & Hewitt.

The High school boys played a game of basket ball with the boys of the eighth grade, Friday. The High school won by a score of 34 to 5. The girls will play tomorrow, to decide whether the Twentieth Century Club or the Cyclops are the most proficient at the game.

Fred Leeburg, a young man employed at the Wilson mill, and whose parents reside at Long Beach, Oregon, was found to be insane Monday night, and was taken to Montesano, Tuesday by Marshal Graham, where he was committed to the asylum by the superior judge.

J. W. McBride was badly bruised and had a shoulder sprained, Tuesday afternoon, by being jammed between a lumber pile and a moving truck loaded with lumber at the Aberdeen Lumber & Shingle Co.'s saw mill. He was taken to the Aberdeen General hospital.

The concert by the Schumann Concert Company at the Acme opera house Monday evening, for the benefit of the High school, was not as well attended as was to have been expected, either by reason of the benefit or the real merit of the company. Those present enjoyed a musical treat never excelled in Aberdeen.

I am making a new style of photographic enlargements that excels anything you have ever seen in that line, and at very reasonable prices. If you want anything in this line, call and see me. I guarantee to give you satisfactory work. A. GYLFE, photographer, successor to Merwin. F Street.

John O'Hare is having the building recently purchased by him, on the corner of Heron and F streets, fitted up for his saloon, and expects to be in his new place before Christmas. S. K. Bowes has leased the premises now occupied by Mr. O'Hare, and has purchased the furniture and fixtures, and will move "Our House" into it as soon as it is vacated.

The subject of Taoism and Confucianism was discussed at the meeting of the missionary study class, in the M. E. Church, Tuesday evening, Mrs. McDermoth reviewing the former and Mrs. Mace the latter. The program for next Tuesday evening is as follows: Scripture Isa. 55th, chapter, Miss Dinsmore, A Cooley church in China, Nettie Ballew, Chinese amusements, Mr. Mace, Ancestral Tablets, Mrs. Haynes.

A jury was occupied in Judge Arnold's court Tuesday afternoon trying a case of Shelley Bros. vs. H. E. Hansen. About $16, of a grocery bill was involved, and the defense proved, to the satisfaction of the jury, that the goods had been sold to a party who formerly ran the dining room in the Brunswick hotel, and that Hansen had purchased the goods from this man, and not Shelley Bros. Judgment was given for the defendant, and the plaintiffs gave notice of appeal to the Superior Court.

A. J. Snell wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. He says, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend, who said: 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will put you in condition for the party.' I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." Mr. Snell is a resident of Summer Hill, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by Evans Drug Co.

BRIEF MENTION.

Mrs. H. E. Bailey is visiting friends in Olympia.

Mrs. J. D. Rubenstein has been quite ill during the week.

Mrs. E. G. Trask visited friends in Montesano this week.

A. S. Hodgson, of Hoquiam, had business in the city Tuesday.

St. Agnes Guild met Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Hood.

Miss Bertha Jones, of Elma, visited friends in this city during the week.

County Superintendent Williams visited the Aberdeen schools yesterday.

Miss Rice, of Seattle, visited her sister, Mrs. J. W. Seamless, during the week.

Chas. W. Yana, the Westport hotel man, had business in the city Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Archer were up from Westport on business Tuesday.

Miss Emma Goodell, of Montesano, visited Aberdeen friends over Sunday.

Wm. Hepfinger, of Montesano, had business in Aberdeen, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carey entertained a few friends at dinner, Friday evening.

County Attorney Hutchison was down from Montesano last night on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Birdwell, of Ocoosa, visited Aberdeen friends during the week.

J. P. Sullivan has so far recovered from his illness as to be again on the street.

Miss Kate Lane, of Westport, is seriously ill at the Aberdeen General hospital.

Telephone 41 to have your baggage or trunks delivered promptly to any part of the city.

B. Zeebnyth, the well known Montesano merchant, was in the city this morning.

The West & Slade Mill Co. is pushing preparations for the erection of their new mill.

Miss Winnie Law, of Montesano, visited Aberdeen friends several days during the week.

State Superintendent Bryan was down from Olympia last week, visiting friends in this city.

Wm. O. McKinlay, left on the steamer Santa Barbara Monday for San Francisco, on business.

Rev. H. D. Crawford went to Seattle today, on business connected with the electric railroad.

T. E. O'Neil left Monday to cruise timber in the Columbia river region for Weyerhaeuser Co.

Mrs. Wm. Dutcher and daughter have returned from an extended visit with friends in Portland.

The Union Shingle mill shipped one and one-half million shingles in the first month of its operation.

Although defeated by but one vote, W. W. Weatherwax declines to contest the election of Mr. Locke.

Enoch Anderson, an employe of Clemens' logging camp, is seriously ill at St. Joseph's hospital.

Mrs. J. E. Medcalf came down from Montesano Monday, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Grant Wheeler.

Wishkah Lodge No. 44, Knights of Pythias conferred the rank of Knight on two candidates last night.

Dr. Jos. Kent, the dentist and R. H. Wade the jeweler, of Elma, had business in town Monday night.

Mrs. Chas. W. Yana, of Westport, visited Aberdeen during the week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Biles, of Montesano visited the parents of Mrs. Biles, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Meyers, Sunday.

Mrs. R. T. Olsen, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Blomquist, left Sunday for her home in Nelson, B. C.

Miss Grace Lewis entertained a party of her young friends Friday evening, on the occasion of her thirteenth birthday.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES are the brightest, fastest and easiest to use. Sold by Evans Drug Co., 10c. per package.

The Dutch Dinner Club entertained at the Poodle Dog restaurant, Monday evening, in honor of Miss Burrie Dalton.

Miss Henrika Jensen, who was ill at the Aberdeen General hospital was sufficiently recovered to go home Monday.

Ralph Winton recently arrived from South Dakota, and is assisting his brother, C. B. Winton, in his barber shop.

Martin Gran, formerly of Buckley, Wash., has purchased a half interest in the store of M. J. Waaga, in Commercial block.

I. W. Mason has moved his residence to the old hose house building, which he bought and moved to his lots on Heron street.

Mrs. Chas. Reimer, of Prosser, Wash., and two children are visiting Mrs. Reimer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Benn.

The new officers were installed and 12 new members initiated at the session of the Order of Washington, Tuesday evening.

We will have the largest line of this year that was ever shown in Aberdeen.

TODD'S PHARMACY

Thos. Moore and Miss Gertrude Tolsted have returned to their homes in Portland, after visiting at the home of Chas. R. Wilson.

The eastbound train was three hours late Friday morning. The delay was caused by the engine being derailed at Markham.

Dr. C. M. and Mrs. Martin, of Greenville, Mich., are visiting friends in this city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Anderson.

John Lindbeck was bound over in $500 bail at Montesano Monday on a charge of burglarizing the Crocker saloon in that city.

C. E. Burrows & Co. are building a gridiron for the use of their steamboats on the Chehalis river front between F and G streets.

Frank Thomas is going out of business, and he announces some great bargains in shoes in the advertising columns of the HERALD.

Robt. Porter, who lost his right arm in a shingle mill at Markham a few weeks ago, was able to return to his home at Ocoosa, Monday.

The Daisy Angels gave banquet in honor of Miss Burrie Dalton at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Benjamin Saturday evening.

The remains of Perry Thompson, who died at St. Joseph's hospital two weeks ago, were shipped to Redding, Cal., for interment, Friday.

A. F. Peterson, of Cosmopolis, is seriously ill at that place with typhoid fever, owing to which the second annual Ladies Social Session of the Order of Elks has been postponed until January 31.

J. W. Hall, of Montesano, is getting his pile-driver on the ground to drive the pile foundation for Geo. W. Ninemire's business block, on the northeast corner of Market and G streets.

There will be an election of officers at the regular meeting of the Aberdeen Fire Department, in the new hose house, this evening. All honorary and active members are requested to be present.

The Bryden & Leitch Lumber Co. has chartered the big steel steamer Sam J. Murphy for three months. The Murphy will carry a million and a quarter feet of lumber and only draw 16 feet of water.

J. M. Hackett went to Seattle this week, where he purchased an additional boiler for the Union Shingle Mill. The mill has been short of steam ever since it started, a defect that the new boiler will remedy.

Miss Tillie Madden died, of catarrhal pneumonia at St. Joseph's hospital Tuesday, and the remains were shipped to Tacoma for burial today, accompanied by her sister, who came down from Stielacoom to see Miss Tillie and arrived too late.

Eight hobos and vagrants were run out of town Friday, and two Saturday, by the police with instructions to keep away. If this class of gentry were all handled in this manner promptly there would be fewer burglaries and holdups to report.

The mills in South Aberdeen were shut down Friday morning by a break in the water pipe crossing the river. The break was caused by a pile being driven against it, at the West & Slade storage boom, and was repaired by the next day by Water Commissioner Linn.

WE NEVER SLEEP

If you are looking for an appropriate
Christmas Present
Get a pair of the latest in Shoes and Slippers
A New and Up-to-Date Line
JUST ARRIVED AT
Jeff's Shoe Store
186 Commercial Block.

MEN OF AFFAIRS

Wear clothes that help their standing. For a man with a small income our stock provides fashionable clothes at a reasonable price. You can dress as well on a small allowance here as many do on a large allowance when they patronize exclusive tailors.

Geo. Fisher, The Clothier 16 HERON STREET

"IF YOU DON'T KNOW JIM FULLER, YOU OUGHT TO"

"HE SELLS THE KIND OF FURNISHINGS GENTLEMEN WEAR"

49 HERON ST. KOEHLER BLK.

BARGAINS IN SHOES

$3,000 STOCK of Men's Ladies' and Children's Shoes must be sold at cost and less than cost. — Going out of the shoe business. — Great bargains

FRANK THOMAS - - 61 Heron St.

Three Beautiful Novelties

The "Collodio Carbon Photos," very pretty and striking; the "Artist's Proof Photo," handsome and artistic, and "Walnut Finish," very fine and original. These are productions of the last few months and all the rage in the East. You will make no mistake in having some of these for holiday presents, as they certainly make the most handsome, up-to-date, as well as inexpensive, presents you can give. Call and see them

GYLFE'S STUDIO
F Street, Aberdeen. Successor to Merwin

A Flow of Eloquence

is indispensable if one wishes to fairly describe the superiority of this store as a trading place. It takes strong words and lots of them to convey an idea of what we have for customers; but a visit to the store will make words unnecessary.

Aberdeen Grocery Co. 59 HERON ST. Telephone 84

TEETH By my method of making models I can guarantee your plate to fit. If I fail it costs you nothing. Teeth pulled without pain. The finest office in the city. DR. S. R. WAGONER, First and Madison Streets, 217, 218 Globe Block. If others have failed I will make you a plate that will fit.

Don't Fail TO SEE

Our line of Holiday Goods before buying.

Books, Games, Toys, Toilet Articles, Musical Instruments, Collar and Cuff Boxes

Friday afternoon we will serve hot and cold drinks free to the ladies.

Smits Drug Co.
30 Heron St. Tel. 611
Aberdeen, Wash.

SMOKE "SELECT" AND "THINK OF ME" CIGARS. THEY ARE MANUFACTURED BY HOME LABOR.