Miss Dora Leland is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eger. Miss Leland reports the beach life immensely. C. E. Estes came up from Hoquiam yesterday and entered the Aberdeen General hospital, where he will undergo an operation for appendicitis. I don't want the earth, but I can save you money on prescriptions. I don't give any percentage to doctors, and will give my customers the benefit of 25 per cent on all prescriptions. A. W. Shelley Chemist. Corner Market and G street. If

L. J. Smith, an employe of the Caldwell logging camp, was brought to the Aberdeen General hospital yesterday with a badly crushed leg. This evening the Women of Woolcraft will entertain their friends in the W. O. W. hall at an ice cream social and dance, to the tune of 10 cents each. W. W. Eastman, of the Aberdeen stove factory, whose residence is in Portland, is in the city looking after affairs connected with the company. Word has been received from Arthur Livingood that he is working in the interests of the Portland Journal, with headquarters at Dallas, Oregon. Invitations are out for a card party to be given by Mesdames Keyes and Mildred West, at their residence on Third street, near Broadway, next Saturday. Miss Young, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. J. Hackett. Mrs. Young is one of Oregon's greatest mountain climbers, and is a member of the Alpine club of that city. Messrs. Jerry Cray, C. J. Cray and George Stone accompanied by Miss Cray returned from their Alaskan trip yesterday. They will visit here for a short time. Word was received yesterday, from the sloop Fearless, of her safe arrival in San Francisco. The Fearless is less than ten tons burden, and left here one week ago last Sunday. The annual excursion of the United Artisans to Westport last Saturday and Sunday, was attended by a large and jolly crowd, and, as usual, all enjoyed the affair thoroughly. R. T. Dabney has completed the foundation for his new brick building on Heron street, next the Vulcan Iron Works store. The building will be pushed to completion. J. B. Fithian of the Portland Lantern, is visiting on the Harbor, and made this office a fraternal visit. Mr. Fithian will stay on the Harbor for several days, and may finally locate here. The frames of the new steamer being built by the Lindstrom Ship-Building company, for Beadel Brothers, of San Francisco, are being rapidly placed, and soon she will be ready for planking. The steamer Centralia brought eleven passengers and a quantity of freight to San Francisco, this trip. With the freight were 100 barrels of oil for Hicks & Son and the Standard Oil company. Mrs. Ed. Young, of this city, and Mrs. Masters and children, of the schooner Mahukona, now loading at the Union mill, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Chas. R. Reed, at her home in South Aberdeen. Yesterday the ladies of the Presbyterian church were hospitably entertained by Mrs. W. Thompson, at the Wishkah boom. The party chartered the gasoline launch Fearless for the trip. At Zelasko's furniture store for the present. Yesterday a committee from the Loggers association, was counting the number of feet of logs in the Harbor. The association are trying to ascertain if it is possible to open the camps full blast, with profit to all concerned. G. S. Kendall came in from his ranch in Pacific county, on Monday evening, to attend the wedding of his daughter, Blanche, who was married in this city yesterday morning. He left this morning to go on with his farming. Mr. H. Anderson, who has been looking around the country for a business location, has decided to locate in Aberdeen. Mr. Anderson is from Butte, Montana, and has gone to dispose of his interests and bring his family here. The spars and heavy hoisting timbers for the big dredger now in course of construction in Lindstrom company's yard, are being put in place. In about a month the dredge will be towed to the Sacramento river, where she will be put to work. The I. O. R. M. of this place commenced decorating Market street today, in preparation for the carnival to be held here on the 22d, inst. The decorating is under the supervision of G. Davis, of Seattle, who has several assistants helping him. Yesterday the game warden sent out a number of assistants over the county to prevent hunting. This has become necessary, as the idea has gotten abroad that the open season commences August 15, when in fact it does not commence until September 1st. Geo. J. Wolff has made an arrangement with the Red Men's street carnival, and will give every child calling at his store a ticket that will entitle them to enter the 25 cent show for 10 cents next Tuesday afternoon, August 23, thus saving each child 15 cents. Judge J. C. Pearson found out Tuesday that his springing days are over. He tried to outrun Attorney E. E. Shields endeavoring to catch a drunken sailor who had escaped from their toils. He however found a good substitute in Albert Hanson, who took up the race for the judge, but even then it was doubtful if the trio would have stopped running yet, if the sailor had not fallen over a pile of building material. Later Judge Bush addressed the sailor, allowing him the privilege of swelling the city treasury in the sum of $15.

Yesterday President B. H. Fox, posted the assessment, in the case of Boettger, of Hoquiam, who was fined $10, Sunday, by Umpire Osborn. This means that the fine will have to be paid before he can play in any team in the Southwest. Boettger talked too much. N. G. Nielson is fitting up the building next to the Springer boat building shop for a sail and tent making loft. Mr. Nielson has already sent for a lot of rope and canvas, and by next week will be ready for business. He has several contracts already and will soon have a crew of men at work. On Monday evening Miss Harriet Hogan kept open house, in honor of the Misses France, who have spent several weeks here visiting their father, and will soon leave again for the East. Of course the gathering was an enjoyable one, as that is what would be expected when Miss Hogan acts as hostess. Organizer C. Berliner, of the Woodmen of the World, visited the local camp last evening. There was a large attendance present, and several candidates were initiated. After business, Mr. Berliner gave a favorable account of the work and growth of the order in the state, after which some time was spent in social session. Charles Patnude, of Olympia, and Miss Blanche Kendall, of this city, were married yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, at the Kendall hotel, by Justice J. C. Pearson. Both families and a few invited friends were present to witness the ceremony. The young people took the 10:10 train for Olympia and a wedding trip. The Herald sends greetings and good wishes. Twenty six Foresters came down from Olympia Tuesday, to show the Aberdeen Foresters how to play base ball, and later in the evening to show how the team work ought to be done in initiating members. They did both, but Aberdeen showed them how visitors ought to be entertained. The Olympians returned to their homes on Wednesday, well satisfied with their visit. The baseball game between Olympia and Aberdeen Foresters, came off at the Athletic grounds Tuesday afternoon. The game was won by Olympia by a score of 11 to 10. While the game was not up to the best of the leagues one, it was very enjoyable, and the playing was good. The line up was Olympia—Brower, 3b; House, ss; Cook, 2b; Hill, cf; Neilson, cf; Breager, 1b; Willey, 2b; Walner, c; Aberdeen—Rochon, ss; Sherwood, 2b; Belt, p; Bowes, 1b; Hill, cf; Willey, cf; McNeil, 3b; Jones, c; McDevitt, rf; Rodgers, sub. Capelle-Rasmussen. This morning at 7:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Garman, Mr. Louis Capelle and Miss Magdelena Rasmussen were united in marriage, the Rev. C. McDermoth officiating. Mr. Frank Lannoye and Miss Thekla Olsen were the bride and groom's supporters, and the little Misses Garman and Bowes led the marriage procession, and Miss Anna Knudson played the wedding march. The dining room and parlors were appropriately decorated and over the place where the ceremony was performed a large bell of roses hung from the ceiling. The wedding breakfast followed the ceremony and after a toast to the bride and groom by Mr. Geo. Nye, in which all joined, the party adjourned to the depot, where the young couple took the train for Houlton, Oregon, the future home of Mr. and Mrs. Capelle. Miss Rasmussen is a sister of Mrs. B. J. Garman and Mr. Capelle is from Houlton, Oregon, where he is employed by a branch of the Aberdeen stove factory. Many beautiful presents were received from friends, a large number of whom were present at the ceremony. Along the Water Front The schooner Lucile is at the Michigan mill, loading for Rodondo. The E. Wiley, $123; Howard, $118. Howard was given the contract. The street superintendent was instructed to put in a crossing at the intersection of Frame and M streets. R. P. Waldenstrom. On the evening of August 30th the Swedish people of Aberdeen will have the opportunity of their lives, in listening to one of their really great men, viz: Peter Paul Waldenstrom, Ph. D., D. D., M. A. Twice in twelve years has America been favored with a visit from him. About 1872, at a little gathering of friends, the question came up as to whether the work of Christ aimed to reconcile God to man or man to God. A careful searching of Holy Scriptures led Waldenstrom to change his views, and to hold that in Christ's work of reconciliation God is the subject, the love of God, the source, the whole world the object, the reconciliation of man to God is not of God to man. These views stirred up one of the greatest controversies in Sweden during the last century. The discussion did more than any other "one thing" to further the Free Church movement. For administering the Lord's Supper to little bands of believing souls, Waldenstrom was tried, condemned and punished by the consistory of the state church. At last he appealed to the King. He finally laid down his ministry in the state church. He says, "The Christian Church has room for every Christian just because he is a Christian. The Christian Church in the Biblical thought is one which has room for all who believe in Jesus and are God's children." Dr. Waldenstrom is an eminently popular preacher. Master of a pure, simple Swedish, he preaches so that the humblest man can understand him. He once said that the highest compliment he had ever received was from a little girl, who, having heard him preach, said to her mother, "Why, he didn't preach, he just talked." Mr. Waldenstrom will be in Seattle August 27, in Tacoma August 28-29, and in this place August 30, when he will speak in the Congregational church to the Swedish people, at 7:30 p. m.
