The Aberdeen Brewing company will increase its capital stock from $100,000 to $150,000. Mrs. O. E. Nelson, of Centralia, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. and Mr. C. McDermott. Heating stoves, all kinds. Move boards, cast beds, and iron, etc., at Griggs' 404 Heron street. We are showing an absolutely fine line of Kimono and the Ideal dry goods store, 216-218 East Heron street. New goods arriving every day from San Francisco, New York, and Chicago at Blade's Millinery Parlors. Wanted To Exchange—A ranch and stock for improved city property. Address Geo. Champlin, Matlock, Wash. The City Market, corner Wishkah and G streets, has the sole agency for Aberdeen for Montano creamery butter. W. T. McBride has commenced the construction of another cottage on his property on Second street, between F and G. Mrs. A. D. Wood and Mrs. Fred Green went to Portland this morning. They will stay over Sunday returning next week. Mrs. C. S. Black returned Monday night from South Bend, where she had been to see her mother who has been quite ill. Professor A. E. Flowers of the Grays Harbor business college is in the city assisting in the work of establishing the new school. The sausage was nearly three feet long, and it came from Chicago, Eugene Hamburg is the owner, and he is willing to share a little of it with his friends. H. H. Carter moved into his new residence on First street yesterday. Mr. Carter has an elegant home and the HERALD wishes him and his family many happy years in it. G. Shackelford of the Pacific Mail Steamship company, is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Hart. Mr. Shackelford is spending his annual vacation in these parts. The steamer Santa Barbara went to San Pedro this morning with a small list of passengers. Captains report that the passenger list is heavier coming from California than going back. Have you been at the St. Louis Fair? If you have you will recognize the St. Louis hat at Blade's Millinery Parlors, corner of Market and H streets, next to Montons Furniture store. The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a progressive conundrum party at the home of Mrs. E. E. Shields, last evening. An admission fee of ten cents gave quite a round sum to assist the church treasury. Mr. and Mrs. Kinvoas who have been here for a week assisting in the meetings at the Swedish mission church, left for their home in Minneapolis yesterday. Mrs. Kinvoas is reckoned one of the best singers on the coast. On Tuesday morning Mrs. R. T. Dabney left for Iowa, where she will visit for some time with old friends and relatives. Before returning she will visit other Eastern states. She will be gone about three months. Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Chassell, of Sheridan, Wyoming, are here and intend disposing of their property at that place, and locating on the harbor. Mr. Chassell was in the sheep raising business in Wyoming, but climatic conditions did not suit him there.

Good entered the Aberdeen General hospital for treatment last night. Colgate's and Palmers' perfumes and toilet preparations at Evans Drug Co. James Jensen entered the Aberdeen General hospital for treatment Tuesday. A fine boy was born yesterday at the Aberdeen General hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Callow. Mrs. Rosen was discharged from the Aberdeen General hospital, and returned to Cosmopolis yesterday. Will the latest novelties in feathers, weapons, plaques, velvets, etc. at Blade's Millinery Parlors. The reception for the Rev. W. E. Thompson will take place tomorrow evening in the M. E. church. Mrs. A. D. Wood returned from Cosmopolis yesterday. The Pinehurst cottage has been closed for the season. Anton Delacour, an employe of the Shields' logging camp, was brought to the Aberdeen General hospital with a broken arm yesterday. Eugene France, W. E. Macfarlane and John Lindstrom are being groomed by their friends for mayor of Aberdeen at the December election. Sea Jacobs has moved his shoe stock from the corner of Wishkah and G streets to the old location of the Horse shoe store, on G street next door to F. E. Jones. C. T. Lov is being urged by his democratic friends to make the race for constable, and should he consent, he will give Mr. Anstie a close push for the place. The four year old son of A. J. Anderson, in East Aberdeen, had a severe scalp wound sewed up at the Aberdeen General yesterday, the result of a slip of an ax while splitting wood. The Western mill has been closed down since yesterday noon, on account of no water. It is thought that by waiting until tomorrow enough water will have accumulated to get a fresh start. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wooding and Mrs. Fred Nye, spent Tuesday afternoon at Cosmopolis, saying good bye to old friends, before Mr. and Mrs. Wooding depart for the winter to southern points. Rev. Thomas E. Elliott and family went to Vancouver Tuesday morning, where he is to be the pastor of the Methodist church. During his stay here Mr. Elliott has made many friends and did much toward enlarging the membership of the church. The funeral of Edward Hoover, of Aberdeen Gardens, on the Wishkah river, took place from the Presbyterian church, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Deceased was 21 years of age and lived on the Wishkah river for 18 years, and was well known among the young men of the harbor. Byron Weatherwax, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Weatherwax, was called by telegram to San Francisco Tuesday. He is one of the engineers on the U. S. transfer steamer Stevens, and as she is ordered to proceed to the Philippines immediately, he had to go south at once. The Rev. W. E. Thompson and family have arrived from Vancouver, and a public reception will be given him, by his parishioners of the Methodist church, tomorrow evening. Mr. Thompson went from Montano to Vancouver a year ago, and now returns to Chehalis county as pastor of the church at Aberdeen. The Pearson Bros. have made an innovation in the building business, so far as Aberdeen is concerned. They have plastered the exterior of their cement block on the corner of Wishkah and H streets. The plaster is of wood pulp and asbestos, and being white, makes a very neat appearance. The plaster is supposed to be fire proof, under ordinary circumstances. Tomorrow evening a benefit ball will be given in the Firemen's hall, by several of Aberdeen's society ladies. Prominent among the inaugurators of the movement are Mesdames S. N. and H. N. Anderson Jr., as a mark of favor to Miss Ula Jameson of this city, who goes East to perfect herself in her musical studies. Miss Jameson is a universal favorite, and no doubt the ball will be well attended.

W. E. Murphy, who has been clerking for N. G. Kaufman, has accepted a position in San Francisco. A. H. Marsh is on a trip through Eastern Washington and Idaho. He is traveling for a wholesale millinery house, and will be gone about two months. Miss Cahill, one of the Sunset Telephone operators, started on her vacation yesterday. She will visit Tacoma, Bellingham and New Westminster, B. C., before she returns. The Rebekahs celebrated the 54th anniversary of the order, Tuesday evening. Sam Bowes is reported as having eaten most of the popcorn and could not attend to business next day. Mrs. Jerry Katsner gives a party at her residence on Fourth and G streets. This evening, in honor of Miss M. Stewart. Miss Stewart is an old friend from Puyallup, and is at present employed in the Aberdeen State bank. Joe Buckley and Tom Black give a party to their young friends in Finlanders hall tomorrow evening. It is the intention to form a new club at that time to be called the Violet club. The object of the society is purely social, and it is to continue in existence as long as the promoters wish. Tuesday evening will be remembered by many of the young people of this city, as one of the pleasant times that come to their lives. The occasion was a party given by Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Kellogg of Hoquiam, in honor of Miss Maud McDermott and Chas. Alburty. The party returned at midnight hoping that the Kellogg family will soon invite them to Hoquiam again. Senator Foster and his private secretary, T. Simons, accompanied by Major Mills, government engineer, arrived in the city Monday evening to inspect the mouth of the Onalasis and Wishkah rivers, and the lower harbor. Monday evening was spent with the citizens of Aberdeen, and Tuesday with Hoquiam. In the afternoon of Tuesday the party went to South Bend on one of the N. W. L. company's tugs. Senator Foster wished to thoroughly acquaint himself with the situation here and other parts of the Washington coast, that he might know the needs of each place and prepare estimates to be submitted to the next congress.

HALL COMPLETED

THE LOCAL ELKS HAVE ELEGANT HOME.

B. O. P. Will Dedicate Their New Hall Saturday Afternoon. Social Session in The Evening. Nothing Finer in The Northwest.

A. G. Finley, decorator for the Standard Furniture company of Seattle, who has decorated several of the best homes in the city, has just completed the furnishing and decorating of the Elks' hall, which is to be dedicated next Saturday. Nothing as elegant can be found in any town of its size, as the Elks' hall in this place, and both Mr. Finley, the decorator, and the local Elks are justly proud of their new home.

In the general plan utility and elegance is kept in view, with the home idea carried into effect all through. The ground floor is devoted to the home and club department, and here are located the parlors, card room, dining room, kitchen, bath room, secretary's room and billiard parlor, while up stairs is the lodge room, three ante rooms and locker department. The furnishings of the downstairs are of the old Spanish Mission style, except the billiard parlor, which is fitted in golden oak. The furniture is all of weathered oak. The carpet in the reading room is royal Wilton, in the parlor plush; in the secretary's office there is a 8x10 Wilton rug; in the card room a 9x12 Wilton rug, and in the reception room a 6x9 Wilton rug. The billiard parlor has a rubber matting around the tables, while the dining room and kitchen have stained and polished floors. The lodge room and hallways are covered with royal Wilton plush carpets, the edge of the platform on which the members' chairs stand being covered with a brass shield.

The officers' stations are seated with large high backed throne chairs of weathered oak, with red Spanish-leather upholstery, the chair in the station of the exalted ruler being what is known as a trichair, it having separate seats for three persons. The draperies over the officers' stations are of the coronation designs, the windows being straight draperies with heavy lambrequins. The altars and desks are in keeping with the rest of the furniture, the name of the lodge being carved on the altar of the exalted ruler. The walls of the interior is all of the same tint, a mixture of fleh tint with a warm yellow cast, harmonizing completely with the fittings.

The Standard Furniture company of Seattle has furnished all of the fittings and under the supervision of Mr. Finley the arrangements are about as perfect as one can wish. The dedication which takes place on Saturday afternoon, will be made an event in the history of the order, in the Northwest. Visitors from Seattle, Portland, Tacoma and other parts will be present, and the program will be one worthy of the occasion.

LUMBERING NOTES

Low stocks for rail shipments should mean higher prices. It is conceded by buyers that stocks are light in lumber and shingles. British Columbia loggers will not be allowed to send across the international line logs that have been cut on crown lands. A recent decision of the government has been made on this vexed question. This ruling will make logs cheap in the province. The year 1904 has been a bad one for wholesalers. This is especially true in the red cedar trade. Margins have been practically obliterated. There has been nothing in the conditions to warrant anyone entering the wholesale lumber trade. Nevertheless, there have been some additions along the line. Coast lumbermen should keep a sharp look out for the lumber and timber needs of the Isthmian Canal. Already two large orders have been placed for yellow pine. The southern lumbermen have been warm advocates of a canal. They are cutting off a few coupons early in the game. It lies within the limits of possibility, every shingle should be made with a smooth butt. It must be acknowledged that many Coast shingles are as ragged on the butt as they would be if cut with a horse rasp. If there be any kind of a saw or device that will make smooth butts it should find a place in every shingle mill. Lumber manufacturers should realize that an increase price to a level profits are attractive to the outsider will always result in the addition of new mills, and a consequent increase in over production. It has been argued by some mill men that the better prices obtained by not only the cargo mills, but the car mills in 1902, attracted so much outside capital and increased the number of mills to such an extent that present low prices and consequent loss will offset the good margins formerly obtained. This is something well worth considering.
