

WADE & JORDAN

303 East Market Street.

Latest Creations in

Tailor-Made Suits

Rain Coats, Tourist Coats, Skirts and Shirt Waists. Exclusive Line of Belts, Stocks, Ties and Fine Millinery.

New Stock Just Received From New York

BRIEF MENTION.

Order sheet music through Evans Drug Co.

A good line of musical goods at Evans Drug Co.

J. W. McClure is now with the Cyr Grocery Co.

When in Montesano get your meals at the Royal.

J. B. Egerer is transacting business at Menlo, Wash.

Real Snaps, lots at $25. Will Lanning, Room 14 Dabney block.

Miss Shannon went to Tacoma Saturday, returning last evening.

A very complete line of both plain and fancy paperies at Evans Drug Co.

L. P. Dudley is erecting a 6-room cottage at M and First streets, for rent.

The Pacific Transfer Co. makes baggage transferring a specialty. Call up tel. 41.

Misses Lillian Jones and Mamie Byles, of Elma, visited Aberdeen friends last week.

The Review club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Chassell, on First street.

Dr. J. W. Mapes has let the contract for a 6-room residence at M and First streets.

Rev. W. E. Thompson, pastor of the M. E. church, preached at Hoquiam last evening.

Remember the entertainment and dance by the ladies of the Degree of Honor, tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cloud pleasantly entertained a party of friends at cards Friday evening.

The ladies of the Scandinavian church will open a fancy goods fair on Thanksgiving evening.

W. H. Morgan returned last week from a visit to his land claim on the upper Wynoochie river.

John Pettit came down from Montesano yesterday and entered St. Joseph's hospital for treatment.

The Polson shingle mill at Hoquiam was obliged to close down Saturday on account of the storm.

Heating stoves, all kinds. Stove boards, coal hods, andirons, etc., at Griggs' 404 Heron street.

J. Baton had his leg crushed in Wilson's mill, Friday. He was taken to the Aberdeen General hospital.

New goods arriving every day from San Francisco, New York, and Chicago at Blade's Millinery Parlors.

Quite a list of passengers and freight was brought on the steamers Santa Barbara and Grace Dollar, Saturday.

The A. O. U. W. held a pleasant social session Friday evening, in honor of Grand Master Workman Steinbach.

Game Warden Livermore is on North Beach rounding up the duck hunters who have failed to take out license.

Major S. R. Nettleton returned from Olympia Friday. He was domiciled in the Olympia hotel when it caught fire.

On Friday evening Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Prichard entertained the Daniel club, the boys of the church, at their home.

Mrs. A. W. Deming, of Summit, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. Shields, returned to her home Saturday.

Seventeen dwelling houses for sale, $650 and up, a 22 per cent investment. Will Lanning, Room 14, Dabney block. Tel. 14.

The Knights of Pythias are preparing a special program for Wednesday evening, to be given under the head of good of the order.

Mrs. Seth C. Maker and son left Wednesday morning for Seattle, where they will join Dr. Maker.—South Bend Journal, Nov. 18.

Best and cheapest hill property in the city—25 lots in fine location, $200 and up. Will Lanning, Room 14, Dabney block. Tel. 14.

Al. A. Brauer, W. C. Lloyd, A. B. and J. W. Clark returned from North Beach Thursday evening, heavily laden with ducks and geese.

Mrs. J. C. Davenport, who has been receiving treatment at St. Joseph's hospital, is convalescent, and was taken to her home Friday.

A good timber claim can be had cheaper than locating and proving up. Will Lanning, Room 14, Dabney block. Tel. 14.

William Irvine is the new editor of the Olympian, which has lately been acquired by H. D. Crawford and Chas. F. Cork. Mr. Irvine left for his new labors Friday morning.

Plenty of school supplies at Evans Drug Co.

For magazines, novels, etc., go to Evans Drug Co.

P. R. Hogan left last week for a business visit in Wisconsin.

Reading matter for the rainy evenings at Evans Drug Co.

Miss Eleanor Trask is entertaining Miss I. Quimby of Montesano.

A lot of new brushes of all kinds just received at Evans Drug Co.

Work has commenced on the new school house in South Aberdeen.

For sore throat there is nothing beats our white pine, Evans Drug Co.

Dr. D. A. Schumacher has added a fine surgical chair to his office furniture.

Miss Eula Jameson was tendered a benefit dance at Hoquiam, Friday evening.

George Ramsey left last week with his family for Yakima, where they intend to settle.

Wanted—500 to 1,000 piling, cedar, spruce and fir, Panel & Folding Box Co., Hoquiam.

The Grays Harbor Oyster company has established a fish market at 201 South F street.

The tax rolls of 1904 will be in the hands of the county treasurer for collection December 1.

The second installment of 1903 taxes will become delinquent if not paid by November 30.

The county commissioner will open bids on December 5, for partially clearing the Cosmopolis-Melbourne road.

See Dr. Sullivan Eye Sight Specialist about your eyes. Office with Dr. Long Heron street here until Nov. 26. 19-31.

FOUND BICYCLE.—Owner can get same by proving property and paying for this add. WILL COLES, 912 Laura st. m-3t

John Baker left Saturday for a visit to his old home at Fairbury, Nebraska. This is his first visit in about 24 years.

The City Market, corner Wishkah and G streets, has the sole agency for Aberdeen for Montesano creamery butter.

Carl Walker returned home Thursday after an absence of a year, spent on board a ship engaged in laying the Pacific cable.

G. P. Clerin, M. R. Sherwood and E. C. Finch have bought the old town site of Laidlaw, on South Bay, for a game preserve.

Mrs. Thos. Rasor, formerly well known in this city as Miss Hattie Benjamin, came over from Oregon last week to visit Aberdeen friends.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are becoming a favorite for stomach troubles and constipation. For sale by All Druggists.

Mrs. T. E. O'Neil and baby were discharged from St. Joseph's hospital yesterday and returned to their home, 814 West Heron street.

Miss Gerda Knudson entertained the Aecelian Musical club at her home in East Aberdeen, in a very charming manner, Friday evening.

A contract has been let to Nels Hanson for the building of the Montesano-Aberdeen road, the same to be completed by June 1, next.

Presiding Elder Landing occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church last evening. The quarterly conference of that church will be held this evening.

Daniel McNeil returned to his home last week, at Port Moody, B. C., after a visit with his mother and other relatives, and having attended his sister's wedding.

For Sale—An eight-light Buffington acetylene gas machine, about 150 feet of pipe and a number of gas fixtures, will be sold at a genuine bargain. Inquire at the HERALD office.

Seventeen dollars was donated to the public library Friday by the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church. This will enable that institution to meet some of its immediate wants.

County Clerk Stamper was down from Montesano on business Saturday. Mr. Stamper will engage in the insurance business when his term of office expires, probably in Aberdeen or Hoquiam.

To take grease spots out of a carpet, mix half an ounce of borax and a little yellow soap in a gallon of hot water. Wash the carpet with this mixture, apply it with a clean rag and the spots will soon disappear.

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST.—T. Magill graduate of Phila. Optical College and licensee of California State Board of Optometry has opened an office at Mark Payette's Music and Art Store at 414 E. Wishkah St. Has Twentieth Century instruments. Uses the latest methods for the correction of eye troubles. Satisfaction guaranteed. Examinations free

H. D. Crawford is transacting business in Olympia.

Geo. J. Wolff went to Portland on business yesterday.

N. G. Kaufman left for Seattle this morning, to be gone several days.

Mrs. John O'Hare and child left for Olympia this morning, to visit her parents.

The cannery having stopped receiving fish on the 15th, the Chinese are loading for Portland.

Miss Slater was the guest of honor at a farewell party, given by Mrs. J. C. Hogan, Thursday evening.

Chas. H. Alburty has begun the erection of a neat dwelling on his property in the Pacific Land Co. Addition.

S. K. Bowes, N. G. Wheeler, R. Forbes, C. Miller and R. Scott went to Montesano this morning, as jurors in the superior court.

City School Superintendent K. E. Harris attended the annual meeting of the Puget Sound Schoolmasters' Club at Tacoma, Saturday.

The Order of Pendo will have a basket social and dance Saturday evening, November 26. Ladies to furnish baskets. Everybody welcome.

Joe Thein is the happy father of a baby girl, which arrived Friday morning, and the whole Ten-row is wishing Joe many happy returns.

Miss E. Slater left for her home in Michigan Saturday morning. She will visit at Salt Lake on the way, arriving home about Thanksgiving.

The Hoquiam and Aberdeen football teams will make another try for supremacy at Aberdeen on Thanksgiving day. The game will be called at 3 p. m. sharp.

The float and boat house being built by the Lindstrom Shipbuilding Co., for the life saving station at Westport, is about completed, and will soon be launched.

The Aberdeen Lumber and Shingle company's mill which closed down Friday, for lack of special logs, started again Saturday. The present rains will help both loggers and mill men.

Will Campbell, the well known base ball player, purchased the handsome fixtures of the Palace cigar store, and shipped them to Montesano, where he is about to engage in business.

Mr. F. A. Hart and wife returned Friday from the St. Louis exposition and incidentally a trip to Kentucky, Michigan and Colorado. Fred is looking fine and is glad to be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berthold came home Friday from Oregon, where John has been looking up timber interests. They stayed in Portland a couple of days to return with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hart.

The A. O. U. W. and Degree of Honor gave Grand Master Steinbach a rousing reception Friday night. The address of Mr. Steinbach showed the order in the best financial condition that it has been in for thirteen years, and a good growth along all lines.

The schooner Gardiner City is at the Lindstrom Co. shipyard undergoing repairs. This vessel was wrecked at Rodondo, Cal., about a year ago, and $10,000 was expended on her in repairs, now it is necessary to put in center stanchions to keep her deck beams in place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kitterage, of Oceosta, were Aberdeen visitors Friday and Saturday. On Friday evening Mr. Kitterage rode the goat in the Elks' Lodge, and Mrs. Kitterage, who is past grand chief of honor in the Degree of Honor, attended the social session of the A. O. U. W.

Several merchants are enquiring the whereabouts of J. Byers, the painter and decorator. He left town last week without bidding them goodbye or making any arrangements about his debts. One merchant, to whom he owed $50, is on his track, and thinks he will locate Byers.

Alex K. Melville, who disappeared under a cloud in 1886, forfeiting a bond for $3,000 signed by his mother, the late Mrs. Hilton, has reappeared in Portland, and through a power of attorney issued to his brother, Wm. K. Melville, seeks to recover an interest in the estate of his parents.—Vidette.

Jesse F. Murphy, district manager of the Equitable Life Insurance Co., has opened district offices in the Dabney block. Mr. Murphy intends practicing land law in connection with the insurance business, and his four years' experience as register of the Olympia land office, has thoroughly equipped him for that line.

Frank M. Davis, Department Commander Washington and Alaska, G. A. R., visited the Post at this place Thursday evening. Mr. Davis was accompanied by his wife, who is head of the Relief Corps for the same jurisdiction. After the business session all participated in a banquet at the Olympic restaurant. During the address of Mr. Davis some interesting facts were disclosed. King county paid $17,000 to indigent soldiers this year, while Chehalis county has not paid any. This is the first time in the history of the order where any man and his wife have been head of the two branches of the order, in one jurisdiction at the same time. Mr. Davis will visit all the Posts in the southwest part of the state before returning to his home in Seattle.

There was at the Northern Pacific de-loads of ship beams Squaw and Son Spar and Squaw Lumber company, of Hoquiam. They were three feet square and eighty feet long—Olympian.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wood arrived from their visit to Denver, Col., Friday evening. They were not expected back before next week, but they felt that Thanksgiving should be spent at home with the children. While away they visited a number of eastern cities.

Teachers' certificates were sent out Saturday by the state superintendent to the following Chehalis county applicants: Raymond Baker, Edward B. Beaty, Freda Bowen, G. H. Dunning, Doda M. Gilmore, Jennie E. George, W. W. Hewitt, Maude Hulbert, Katherine M. Knack, Susie Lenesty, Kate Shaughnessy, Mrs. K. L. Smith, R. M. Van Dorn, A. D. Van Walker, Samuel Gordon Burkhead, J. A. Dowden.

The fair and entertainment given by the ladies of the Congregational church, on Thursday and Friday, was a great success, and the ladies are more than pleased. On the first day they sold most of the articles on exhibition, and during the evening the audience was entertained by readings from the magazine, by home talent; and a novel feature of it was the putting of the advertisements on a sheet by means of a stereopticon. On Friday evening chicken dinner was served, and the proceeds of both evenings amounted to over $100.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES. The Evangelical Churches Will Hold Union Services in the Baptist Church.

Thanksgiving union services will be held in the Baptist church next Thursday morning, commencing at 11 o'clock. The following program has been arranged for the occasion:

Hymn..... Lord's Prayer..... Scripture Reading..... Rev. E. R. Prichard Anthem..... Offering for Children's Home..... Rev. W. E. Thompson Sermon..... Rev. Chas. McDermoth Hymn.....

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE. The Monthly Meeting of Public School Teachers Held Saturday.

The Monthly Teacher's Institute was held in the Market street school Saturday morning. The following is the program of the meeting:

Music..... Miss Sykes James' Talks to Teachers and Students, Chapter VIII..... Miss Robinson James' Talks to Teachers and Students, Chapter IX..... Miss Becker James' Talks to Teachers and Students, Chapter X..... Miss Kellogg Primary Reading..... Miss Thornton Tompkin's Philosophy of School Management..... R. E. Raker Tompkin's Philosophy of School Management..... Miss Simons Current Events..... Miss McKinlay The School System of England..... R. E. Foy

Along the Water Front The schooner Kona is at the Union mill loading for San Pedro.

The steamer Saucillito is loading at the American mill for San Pedro.

The schooner Jessie Miner is loading at the American mill for San Francisco.

The schooner A. J. West is loading at the West & Slade mill for San Diego.

The schooner Falcon sailed yesterday from the Western mill for San Francisco.

The schooner Comet sailed Friday from the American mill for Santa Barbara.

The steamer Newburg sailed Friday from the West & Slade mill for San Francisco.

The barkentine Gleaner sailed yesterday from the West & Slade mill, for San Pedro.

The steamer G. C. Lindauer sailed from the Wilson mill Saturday, for San Francisco.

The steamer Santa Barbara is finishing her cargo at the Michigan mill for San Francisco.

The schooner Edward R. West is at the West & Slade mill, loading for an Australian port.

The schooner R. C. Slade is at the West & Slade mill, and will load for Caladera, Chili.

The schooners Transit and Oceana Vance are loading at the Western mill for San Francisco.

The schooner Carrier Dove sailed Saturday from the Anderson & Middleton mill for Rodondo.

The schooner Nokomis arrived in port Friday, and is loading at the Michigan mill for San Pedro.

The schooner A. B. Johnson is loaded at the Wilson mill, and will sail tomorrow for San Francisco.

The steamer Melville Dollar arrived this morning, at the Bryden & Leitch mill, to load for San Pedro.

The schooner Sailor Boy arrived in port Friday, and is loading at the Western mill for San Francisco.

The steamer Grace Dollar arrived in port Friday, and is loading at the Bryden & Leitch mill for San Francisco.

The barkentine Newsboy arrived Saturday from Mexico, and will load at the West & Slade mill, for Santa Rosalia, Mexico.

NO KICK

COMES FROM THE WEARER OF THE

PINGREE SHOE

THEY FIT
THEY ARE NEAT
THEY ARE STYLISH
THEY SATISFY
THEY ARE ALL YOU DESIRE IN A GOOD SHOE

The Very Latest Styles for Women, Men and Children Have Just Arrived.

JEFF'S

Postoffice Block, Aberdeen.

HOLIDAY GOODS

We have just received our full line of Xmas Goods and in order to make room, for a few days only, we will sell Ladies' $25 and $20 Coats for $15, also Ladies' Tourists Coats, a great variety, at GREAT REDUCTIONS

$17.50 Cravenette.....$14.75	$8.00 Ladies' Skirts.....$5.50
$12 and $15 Cravenettes.....$9.75	$7.50 Ladies' Skirts.....$4.75
$10 and $11 Cravenettes.....$6.50	$6.50 Ladies' Skirts.....$4.25
$7 and $9 Cravenettes.....$5.00	$5.00 Ladies' Skirts.....$3.75
$5 and $6 Cravenettes.....$4.00	$4.00 Ladies' Skirts.....$2.75

Misses' $10 Coats for $7.50.
Children's $10 Coats for $7.00.
Children's 9 coats for $6.00.

A large assortment of novelty dress goods at great reductions. Your money back if goods are not satisfactory. Vesey Values are the best.

Ten Acres for Sale or will Trade for Aberdeen Property

Located six miles from Tacoma on the Interurban R. R. Small house and barn on tract, also good well of water, some fruit trees set and entire tract under cultivation. Well located for a chicken ranch and small fruit. One-half mile from school house; also on rural mail route.

F. E. JONES, AGENT

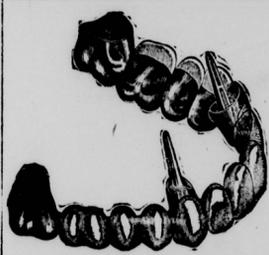

DR. LONG, Dentist

Room 8, Dabney Bldg. Over Pfund's Jewelry Store.

All work guaranteed. No charge for extraction where teeth are ordered.

EXAMINATIONS FREE

PRICES:
Full set teeth.....$5.00 Gold crown, 21K.....$5.00
Bridge work.....4.00 Gold filling.....1.75
Porcelain crown.....4.50 Silver filling......50
Painless extraction......50
Office Hours, 8:30 to 8; Sunday 9 to 12 M.

ABERDEEN COMMISSION CO.

DEALERS IN

Hay and Feed

All Choice Grades of FLOUR

Butter, Eggs & Poultry

208 East Heron Street.

Phone 471

BRICK Apply for carload price to CHEHALIS BRICK & TILE CO. BRICK CHEHALIS, WASH.

Wait and See!

The Largest Line of HOLIDAY GOODS Ever Brought to Grays Harbor, including Toys and Dolls

Our Prices Will be Entirely Satisfactory to You. On Display December First.

RED CROSS PHARMACY

Telephone 131.

Telephone 131.