

Tales of the Town Tersely Told.

Dr. Schumacher, over State bank. The Herald twice a week tells it all. Sheet music, the latest, at Evans Drug Co.

G. Canterbury, dentist, over State Bank.

T. C. Moulton is building a cottage at Rosevelt beach.

Dr. G. E. Chamberlain, Rooms 8, 9, and 10, Dabney Block.

Harmon Weber will leave this week for his land claim on the Hoh river.

Dean for good values in crockery and glassware. Investigate, 211 G St. If

Dr. D. C. Urie has moved to Rooms 1, 2, 3, Wishkah blk. Phone 2171 or 3333

A very good assortment of office supplies and blank books at Evans Drug Co.

W. F. Stout is putting up a $250 residence on West Sixth and Division streets.

Finished cottage for rent at Moclips, Empire of Robt. Chabot, Moclips, 82 9/10 C. R. Olson and Waldo Hart spent yesterday at Cabasset with their families.

Wanted—Girls to enter the training school for nurses. Aberdeen General hospital.

Henry Christensen has commenced the erection of a residence in North Aberdeen.

For Gurney, Express or Dray, call 14 A-A Star Transfer. Your orders promptly filled.

At last Friday's meeting, the Knights of Pythias decided to take a vacation until September 1.

Catches, bandages, plasters and all kinds of dressing for wounds, burns, etc at Evans Drug Co.

Wanted—Gentlemen or lady to do high class soliciting in Aberdeen. Address K. X. HERALD. 76-11

Jacob Rejk is building a cottage on the West End addition, the intention being to enlarge it later.

Call on Dr. B. rsee, Vendome hotel, he is the one who fits glasses properly, and guarantees them five years. 88-11

Mrs. Jos. Leybold, Sr., was in the city visiting her daughters, Misses Frances and Nellie Leybold, last week.

Cemetery lots enclosed, brick, concrete and mason work of all kinds. JAS. McNAMARA, 213 North B street. 73-11

A. G. Damon, the pioneer settler of Damon's Point, was doing business in the city several days last week.

When you are sick call on A. W. Shelley, Dr. of Pharmacy. Consultation free. Corner G and Market streets. Tel. 661. 11

William Hunt is putting up a near home in South Aberdeen at a cost of $800. Mr. Hunt says he is going to stop paying rent.

J. S. Book left Friday for Seattle, from whence he will sail for Alaska, to look after his mining interests in the land of the midnight sun.

The work of remodeling the interior of the postoffice lobby is about complete, and the additional room and facilities will be appreciated by the public.

J. M. Thien is improving his dairy property in France addition. Joe commenced business in a small way three years ago, but has grown with the city.

Another fine residence has been started by S. Jacobson, on East Fifth street near North Broadway. The cost of this residence will be $2,500 without plumbing, etc.

Talk about your breakfast foods, A thousand you can see; I would not have them as a gift. But would have Rocky Mountain Tea, W. B. Paine & Co.

S. A. Randolph is having a streak of luck. A fine young daughter about a week ago, and on Friday evening he won a $100 gold watch, at a raffle at Birmingham's cigar store.

The moving of buildings in the west end of the city is getting to be quite an industry. Three buildings are now on the move, the object being to erect better houses in their stead.

Dabney hill is beginning to come into prominence, after years of the simple life. John Swanson has set the ball rolling by erecting an $800 cottage there, and others will soon follow.

$100,000 to loan on improved real estate in Aberdeen, Hoquiam and Cosmopolis. Aberdeen office, 208 South H street, phone 2591. Hoquiam office, 512 Eighth street, phone 126. W. H. Lamb & Son. If

The Grays Harbor Gas Co. has finished driving piles for the new addition to the gas plant, and material is being hauled for the superstructure. The cost of the addition when completed will be $12,000.

The pipe for the sewer in district C is laid as far as Second street. On account of the titles the work is somewhat hindered, but by working two shifts of men the contractors are trying to overcome the difficulty.

Columbus just landed, meeting a big Indian chief, with a package under his arm, he asked what it was. "Great medicine, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea," said the Indian. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets, W. B. Paine & Co.

The Northern Pacific railway is a believer in improvements when it believes that they can be permanent. At present preparations are being made to put a steel bridge across the Wishkah river at Hume street, to take the place of the present wooden structure, and workmen and material are here for that purpose.

Dr. Schumacher, over State bank. If This morning, J. Burns was admitted to St. Joseph's hospital.

Dr. E. E. Lane, Dentist, Hayes & Hayes building. Telephone 177. If

Ben Jensen was discharged from St. Joseph's hospital this morning.

Pocket knives, scissors and all kinds of manicure goods at Evans Drug Co. If

Dr. A. S. Austin, Dr. O. R. Austin, office in Hayes & Hayes Bank Bldg. If

A 12 pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. In Greer yesterday morning.

Dr. D. C. Urie has moved to Rooms 1, 2, 3, Wishkah blk. Phone 2171 or 3333

Mrs. G. B. Reid and children went to Moclips this morning to spend the summer.

For Gurney, Express or Dray, call 14, A-A Star Transfer. Your orders promptly filled.

Fancy and plain stationery, calling cards, invitation paper, etc., at Evans Drug Co.

H. B. McNeil is improving his property on East First street, between C and D streets.

Tell Dr. B. rsee, Vendome hotel, all about your headaches, stomach and eye troubles; he cures them. 88-11

M. Bondelson, of Minnesota, who has been visiting his niece in this city left for her home this morning.

$5 down and $5 per month will buy a lot at Rosevelt beach. Lots $25 to $75 each. Will Lanning, 116 S G St. If

R. J. Hitts has collected $115 for the Blair children who are sick with typhoid fever at the Grays Harbor hospital.

John Carlson is moving his dwelling house from its location on Heron street to Wishkah street, between Alder and Park.

Miss Ethel Sargent, who has been visiting relatives in California, arrived home Friday, called here by the death of her sister, Jennie.

Jeff Garman's store window facing Market street was pierced by a bullet on Friday night. As no one heard the shot the mystery is who did it and why.

Contractor W. H. White is preparing to build another residence for Samuel McClymont, on his lot on H street, between Second and Third, at a cost of $2,500.

Lost—A lady's gold pin, between G and Fourth and the Grand theater, or in the theater. Finder will please return to Mrs. T. S. Hill, 417 North G street, and receive reward.

A gasoline launch with five fishing boats in tow arrived from Astoria Friday. The new vessels are for the Alexander Fishing & Packing Co., and will be used in its fishing operations.

Among the passengers that went to California on the steamer Norwood were Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Coats, Miss Esther Coats, Raymond Savers, Fred Hamberg of this city, and Miss Souls, of Oakland, Cal.

The fire department was called out on Saturday morning by a blaze on the roof of a small house at Fleet and East Wishkah streets. The fire was extinguished with a few buckets of water before but trifling damage was done.

Your brain goes on a strike when you overload your stomach; both need blood to do business. Nutrition is what you want, and it comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. B. Paine & Co.

The freight room at the N. P. depot is being enlarged by an addition of 40x65 feet. The passenger depot is to be improved by enlarging both waiting rooms and the ticket office and adding a room for express matter. Aberdeen is still going ahead.

Capt. Al Stream left Saturday for Willapa Harbor, where he will superintend the raising of the schooner Solano, ashore in that harbor. The vessel has been purchased by the Hart-Wood Lumber Co., and Capt. Stream will raise her if the feat be possible.

A. Irgebritzen has commenced the erection of a single mill in North Aberdeen. The part now being put up is the engine room 36x40 feet, and mill 36x63, the shed on the side of the main building being 20x51 feet. This means another payroll for Aberdeen.

An air of prosperity is apparent among the merchants of the city, many of them making extensive improvements in their store rooms. Geo. J. Wolff has added another room to his already large establishment, and J. H. Read has built a gallery on the north end of his rooms.

JULY CLEARANCE SALE

Odds and Ends Shoes at Extreme Cut Prices

LADIES' $4 and $5 Shoes Sale Price $2.10 Pr.	MISSES' SHOES $1.75 & $2.25 Values Sale Price $1.10 Pr.	BABY SHOES Sale Price 50c Pr.
One Lot of Boys' Shoes Sold at $1 pr. SATURDAY only	One lot Ladies' Patent Colt Oxfords, $1 a pr. SATURDAY only

Jeff's Shoe Store

POSTOFFICE BLOCK

Dr. Smith, Osteopath, 7-8 P. O. block. Purres and hand bags at Evans Drug Co.

Dean for best Tea and Coffee. Phone 1411 for prompt delivery.

C. Downing and Joseph Doveditch were admitted to St. Joseph's hospital yesterday.

Razors, strops, mugs, soaps, and all kinds of shaving conveniences. Evans Drug Co.

Dr. Paul Smits received last week a handsome Thomas automobile, of 60 horse power.

On Saturday, Martin Leypold and A. Krang were admitted as patients at St. Joseph's hospital.

Roy Jensen and Ray Taylor who have been under treatment at St. Joseph's hospital, have returned to their homes.

Wm. Applepard has sold his residence property on Division street, and will build a new home near the American mill.

Mrs. Otis and daughter left Thursday for their home at Alameda, Cal., after visiting Mrs. Wm. Gibrath, the aunt of Mrs. Otis.

H. E. Bailey has purchased the confectionery stock of Mr. Hugh, in the Dr. Smits block, and removed it to his store at Heron and F streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawks went to Copalis this morning. They were accompanied by Miss Agnes Dwin of Sedro Wooley, who is their guest.

The American Contracting Co., which is graveling the bluff road, lost a scow load of gravel last week by the scow turning turtle in the slough where she had been left for unloading. Wm. Dutcher who has a sub contract for distributing the gravel, is having an elevator made by means of which he hopes to take the gravel from the scows to his wagons.

Mrs. Samuel Benn and daughter, Leta, left for Portland this morning to spend a week with friends.

C. Sanfer, a banker of Oklahoma, visited Aberdeen last week, and was most favorably impressed with conditions here.

Jonathan and Will C. Wilson, sons of Chas. R. Wilson, left Thursday on the steamer Lindauer, for a short vacation in California.

Mrs. R. P. Brown went to Tacoma on Friday, to spend a few days with her husband, the efficient manager of the Aberdeen base ball team.

Mrs. J. J. Ward and children left last week for Raymond, where Mr. Ward has a responsible position with the Creech Bros. at their new saw mill.

John Hogan, who attempted to cut his throat a few weeks ago, was taken to Montesano on Friday by Acting Sheriff Anstie, and was committed to the insane asylum.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Coats went to Skagit county this morning where they will be joined by a party of Seattle friends in a fishing excursion up the Skagit river.

Miss Esther Coats arrived last week from Munzing, Mich., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coats. Mr. and Mrs. Coats and Miss Coats left today for an extended tour in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Calvert, who were here to attend the funeral of Mr. Calvert's sister, left for their home on Friday morning. Mr. Calvert in N. P. agent at Eagle Gorge, and got leave of absence to attend the funeral.

Councilman Jas. A. Hood left yesterday for San Francisco, where he will superintend the completion of the steam schooner William H. Murphy, recently built at the Matthews shipyard, Hoquiam, in which Mr. Hood is interested.

At the special meeting of the city council held Thursday night, to consider the revocation of the license of the Chelalis Bar, it was decided to continue the matter until the regular meeting on next Wednesday night. In the meantime, the place will be managed by Ed Dolan.

C. B. Blethen, managing editor of the Seattle Times, came down in an automobile, Saturday, from Seattle to Hoquiam in 6 hours and 48 minutes. When the road between Aberdeen and Montesano is completed and graveled, and the bridge over the Humpstulps river is finished—which will all be accomplished in a few weeks—the road between Puget Sound and the ocean beach will be alive with machine, and the cost of those road improvements will prove a fine investment aside from the development of the county.

TO BE ATTRACTIVE
it is necessary to have some attractive feature.

EVERY WOMAN
cannot have a pretty face, but she can have pretty teeth.

I make old teeth like new, unsightly and unattractive, and replace teeth too far gone with new ones.

Come in and get my free advice and estimate.

DR. W. J. LONG

Room 8 Dabney Block
Office hours 8:30 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sundays 9 a. m. to 12 m

THE HERALD TELLS IT ALL.

Latest Spring Styles
SUITS; COATS and SHIRT WAISTS

Only Exclusive Tailor Made Ladies' Suit House on Grays Harbor.

S. STELLA JORDAN
303 East Market Street.

The HERALD Gives the News

New and late patterns in

JARDINIERES and CUSPIDORES

Styles to Suit Your Fancy
Prices to Suit Your Purse

211 South G Street DEAN'S PHONE 1411
Tea, Coffee and Grocery Store

For the Beach
PHOTO SUPPLIES ALL MAGAZINES
All kinds of Reading Matter, Face Creams, Candies, Etc.

TEL. 911

BROADWAY PHARMACY
DUDLEY & CARBERRY, Props.
Cor. Broadway and Heron