The State Has No Right to Prevent Suicide.

By the Rev. Dr. CHARLES P. FAGNANI of the Union Theological Seminary, New York.

IF THE STATE DOES NOT ASSIST A MAN IN MAKING HIS LIFE EASIER AND MORE CHEERY IT HAS NO RIGHT TO HOLD HIM OR PREVENT HIM FROM COMMITTING SUICIDE.

A man who attempts suicide and fails is never helped by the authorities. HE IS PUNISHED. What good is done to a DISCOURAGED man by imprisoning him for a term and then turning him back into the old environment with all its gloom?

Laws for punishing would be suicides sprang from the idea that they were trying to cheat their master or the state of their labor. It was SLAVE PHILOSOPHY, based on the belief that a man did not own his own body.

The state does nothing to help a discouraged man, but it should, IF IT BELIEVES THAT IT HAS ANY RIGHTS OVER HIM. A large part of the suicides are due to a lack of employment. The state should make one of its duties the assisting of men and women in finding SATISFACTORY AND CONGENIAL WORK. If that was done, you would find that many self inflicted deaths would be checked. As it is, the attitude of the state makes the man contemplating suicide wish only to make a good, sure job of it.

OF COURSE SUICIDES ARE IMMORAL AND COWARDLY. THERE IS NOTHING MORE CONTEMPTIBLE THAN A MAN WITH A FAMILY KILLING HIMSELF AND THEN LETTING THEM SHIFT FOR THEMSELVES. YET, WHEN A MAN IS ALONE IN THE WORLD, WITHOUT WORK, AND HE ENDS HIS LIFE BECAUSE OF THE GNAWING DISCOURAGEMENT, YOU DO NOT BLAME HIM SO MUCH AS YOU DO SOCIETY FOR LETTING HIM GET INTO THAT STATE OF MIND.

The success of the antisuicide bureau of the Salvation Army proves to how great an extent cheery advice and assistance in finding work really check suicide. Men with loaded revolvers in their pockets with which to put an end to it all in case they find no work before night catch sight of the little ad. of the army, drift into the office on a last chance and, SUDDENLY FINDING THEMSELVES ON A NEW START, go out with a smile on their faces and a spring in their step. But no PRIVATE organization can do it all, and, further, IT IS THE STATE'S DUTY.
