

THE SAFEST PLACE TO KEEP YOUR MONEY IS IN THE BANK. THE BANK HAS IT SAFE FOR YOU.

IF SOME ONE had banked ten dollars at five per cent compound interest 200 years ago and you today had that ten dollars and the interest on it you would have over FIVE TONS of silver dollars. We will pay you 4 per cent interest on the money you deposit in our bank and compound the interest every six months.

CHEHALIS COUNTY BANK

Depository for Public Funds of Chehalis County and City of Aberdeen.

If You Are Going to Leave Your Wife

at home, leave comfort there too, by having a Gas Range helping in the kitchen. They take up little room and are easy to get. We sell them on easy payments, $5.00 cash with order and balance $2.00 per month. We run a free service pipe from main to house.

GAS CO.
103 Heron
Phone 2701

Tales of the Town Tersely Told.

Miss Edna Ralph is visiting friends at Seattle.
Peter Swanson is erecting a cottage in South Aberdeen.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Doncaster went to Portland Saturday, to reside.
Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Taylor went to Seattle Friday, to visit the fair.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manuel, of Westport, visited in the city Saturday.
Mrs. John Hanson and children visited relatives at Melbourne, last week.
Judd Elliott, of Seattle, who has been visiting in this city, left for his home Friday.
Judge F. W. Loomis, of Aberdeen, will deliver the Fourth of July oration at Montesano.
C. R. Harper is in the city, from Prosser, Wash., and is looking up real estate matters.
A. L. Johnson has commenced the construction of an $1,800 residence, near the American mill.
Mrs. W. H. Drisko who was burned in the Zelasko building fire, was able to leave the hospital Friday.
Miss Eva Kuhn, of Colfax, is visiting the city, the guest of Mrs. Charles Ewart, 118 West First street.
William Melrose is hauling lumber to L and Market streets, to erect a $2,000 residence at that point.
Miss Mollie Jeans, the well known school teacher, has gone to Seattle, to spend the vacation with her parents.
Mrs. Adelia Lanning entertained the Jolly Girls' club Friday afternoon at her home 310 West Wishkah street.
The Eagles lodges of Aberdeen and Hoquiam are planning a joint outing and clam bake at Electric park in August.
Word from Miss Carrie Wilson and party, who started for a tour of Europe, says that they left New York on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rupp went to Tacoma Saturday, on the way they stopped at Olympia to look in on the legislature.
Perry Pennoyer, clerk of the school district at Aberdeen Gardens, is advertising for bids for the erection of a new school house.
Mrs. William Callow and her sister, Miss Jennie Day, left for Shelton, Mason county, Saturday, to remain during the summer.
Miss Virginia Callison, of Chehalis, and Miss Gertrude Callison, of West Virginia, are in the city visiting their brother, I. P. Callison.
Miss Edna and Master Earl Rowland entertained a party of young friends Friday evening at their home, 413 East First street.
Edward Trefurd was arrested Saturday at the corner of Broadway and Fourth street, for riding on the sidewalk. Trefurd put up $10 bail to appear on Monday.
J. P. O. Lowndale, of Portland, who has real estate interests in the Humptulips country, came to Aberdeen on Saturday from that section, where he has been visiting.
The steamer Centralia was delayed in sailing Thursday while Constable Youngberg searched for a valuable dog, belonging to A. W. Jacobson, that was stolen and was believed to be secreted on the vessel. The dog was not found.

T. G. Ewing of St. Joseph, Mo., is a visitor in this city.
Mr. and Mrs. Watson A. West visited the Seattle fair last week.
Frank Noeneger has started a $700 cottage in North Aberdeen.
Inspector Fuller has moved the U. S. Immigration office to Hoquiam.
Rev. F. F. W. Greene, who has been at Pacific, returned home Saturday morning.
Albert Voorhies is building a neat cottage on the corner of Park and First streets.
Fred Redinger went to Copalis Friday, to have a fire place built in his summer cottage.
Rev. H. A. Hause went to Portland Thursday night, to attend the North Baptist convention.
Miss Mabel Noe, of Montesano, visited Aberdeen last week, the guest of Mrs. C. P. L. Roberts.
Ed. F. Jones and J. D. Cray enjoyed a trout fishing expedition on the Satsop river yesterday.
The Misses Brownell entertained the T. A. T. club Thursday evening, at their home on Fourth street.
Miss Nettie Ballew entertained a party of young friends Friday evening in honor of Miss Rozella Mace.
Miss Mable Larson entertained the T. O. C. club Thursday evening at her home, 112 East Hume street.
Steve Kaites and daughter, left for Vancouver, Wash., on Saturday, to make their permanent home in that city.
John C. Davenport and H. H. Carter left Saturday for Ketchikan, Alaska, to look over some mining propositions.
Mrs. J. J. King left Friday for her home, at Spokane, after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Halferty.
Mrs. J. H. Fuller entertained the Young Married Women's Club Friday afternoon at her home, 509 North G street.
The Aberdeen Investment Co. has leased the entire front suite of the Lodie building, their business demanding more room.
Mrs. F. G. Jones and children, who have been attending the fair at Seattle, returned Friday evening, well pleased with the trip.
Mrs. A. C. Ennis returned Saturday evening from Seattle, where she attended the convention of the Federation of Women's clubs.
W. G. Powell who was attending the bankruptcy court at Tacoma, as trustee in the case of W. J. McClure, returned home Friday evening.

For a Spring Tonic
There is nothing better than BROADWAY SARSAPARILLA WITH LODIDE OF POTASSIUM. It contains no opiates.

BROADWAY PHARMACY
911 - Phone - 911

Mrs. M. E. Dahl is visiting friends in Portland.
Mr. Oscar Sevier left this morning for Unionville, Mo.
Miss Agnes Carey is visiting friends in Tacoma this week.
Thomas Douglas went to Centralia on business yesterday.
A. J. Morley left for his logging camp near Elma, this morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keeley left this morning for a short visit in Seattle.
Mrs. Nina Tethrake went to Hot Lake, Oregon, last week for her health.
Misses Edith Crane and Irene Keller, of Montesano, visited Aberdeen friends last week.
Miss Romayne Wood, who has been attending school in Connecticut, returned home Saturday.
James Hodge, principal of the Franklin school, left for his home in Indiana this morning.
Miss Marie Gleeson returned to Satsop Friday, after a visit with her cousin, Mrs. Dan Pearsall.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cross entertained at dinner Friday evening at their home, 308 North F street.
The employes of the Wilson mill will be notified to report for work next Monday morning, July 5.
W. C. Calder, of Baker City, Oregon, a former prominent resident of Montesano, is in the city on business.
State Treasurer Lewis returned to his duties in Olympia this morning, after spending Sunday with his family.
Arthur Wilson, superintendent of city schools, wife and son, Edward, are enjoying an outing on Vashon Island.
Mrs. Louise Savigny, secretary of the board of education, went to Portland yesterday for a vacation of two weeks.
Mrs. Milton Wiggins left this morning for a visit with friends in Tacoma. She will visit the fair before returning.
George M. Cornwall, editor of the Timberman, was on the harbor last week in the interest of his popular trade journal.
Work on the north jetty has been suspended temporarily, while some repairs are made and the unloading slip is dredged out.
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Miller, of Guthrie, Oklahoma, are in the city, visiting their son, C. W. Miller, cashier of the Aberdeen State Bank.
Bert Lewis and family, who have been visiting with friends and relatives in Cosmopolis, returned to their home, in Raymond, this morning.
The mills of the Wilson Bros. & Co. and the Hart-Wood Lumber Co. will start up July 6, and the others will resume operations soon thereafter.
Byron Crawford, who conducted the Aberdeen Undertaking parlors during the illness of S. A. Randolph, has returned to his home at Hoquiam.
A. Townsend, the progressive baker, has ordered an auto delivery wagon for the speedy delivery of the popular products of his establishment.
D. Penn, a South F street pawnbroker, was arrested last week for failure to procure a license. He deposited $100 bail, and will have a hearing today.
Judge Sheeks will wear the legal judicial gown as soon as his crinoline arrives from New York. Judge Irwin already has his, and made his debut in it last Thursday.
Mrs. S. G. Kaufman entertained at luncheon Friday afternoon, in honor of Miss Nina Kaufman, of San Francisco, and Mrs. E. C. Watson, of San Antonio, Texas.
Mr. and Mrs. Phil Schooner, of Hutchison, Kansas, are in the city, to spend the summer with Mrs. Schooner's father, J. E. Hutchison, of the Aberdeen Printing Co.
Friday, August 6, has been designated as "Chehalis County Day," at the Seattle exposition, when it is expected that everyone who can get away will attend and boost for the county.
D. J. McDougall is putting up a neat two-story dwelling at Fourth and Jefferson streets, the cost to be $2,000. This is in a new district, but so far all of the homes built there are good ones.

Mrs. C. H. Rowland left for Portland this morning to join her husband.
Mrs. J. J. Carney spent Sunday in Montesano, visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. H. Fleet.
Mrs. C. P. L. Roberts entertained Thursday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Bragg, of Virginia.
Walter Hilligoss left this morning for Spokane. He will stay over at Seattle and visit the fair.
Beginning July 8, the evening train will run through to Moclips instead of stopping at Hoquiam.
Raymond Sauers returned Saturday from a fishing trip on the Satsop. He reports lots of fish and a good time.
O. W. Bishop left Saturday for his home at Alpena, Michigan, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Dunlop.
Mrs. Nell Bresnau and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Duluth, are visiting Mrs. S. C. Packer, 217 North H street.
A. B. Eaton has charge of the real estate and insurance business of Grant Wheeler, during the latter's absence in Tacoma.
Miss Harriette Hogan left for Centralia this morning to meet her grandmother, who is expected on the train from Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Peterson and two children, Mrs. Gus. Peterson and Mr. Eloy Jensen left Saturday for a visit to their native land, Denmark.
Supt. McDougall began the laying of the 8-inch water main in the Chehalis river Saturday. Diver Colby, of Hoquiam, is doing the diving.
Mrs. R. A. Raser and two children of Helena, Montana, are visiting in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams, 419 East First street.
David Boyd and daughter, Miss Viola, left last week for their home, in Hamilton, Montana, after a visit with Mr. Boyd's sister Mrs. Malcom Magill.
R. L. Boyle and son, Harlan, of Kellar, Wash., are visiting old time friends on Grays Harbor. Mr. Boyle was a pioneer real estate man of Aberdeen and Ocosta.
The Tardes and Labor Councils of Aberdeen and Hoquiam have arranged a splendid program for their Fourth of July celebration, at Electric park, Saturday, July 3.
The contract for the plumbing on the Finch building was awarded to the Aberdeen Heating & Plumbing Co. The building will be erected five stories, as first contemplated.
Mrs. Louise Johnson, who died at her home, 1216 Summit street, last Thursday, was buried from the Woods' undertaking parlors yesterday at 2 p. m., Rev. C. McDermoch officiating.
Harry Prentice, a '09 graduate of the Aberdeen High school, took a position today as reporter for the Herald. Any courtesies extended to the young man will be duly appreciated by this paper.
Alfred Dorsey, who was arrested by the Aberdeen police for the theft of $30, at Stearnsville, plead guilty Saturday in the superior court, and was sent to the state reformatory for an indefinite period.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davidson returned Friday evening from their wedding trip, and will make their home with Mrs. Davidson's parents, Judge and Mrs. J. C. Pearson, until their new house is completed.
Miss Ida Thomson, a school teacher of Aberdeen, and George Flynn, of Hoquiam, were married Thursday evening at the Episcopal church, Hoquiam, and left the next morning for an automobile tour on the Sound.
While running to catch a car Thursday evening, Mail Carrier John Shaker ran into an obstruction at Heron and H streets, and was painfully injured, two teeth being knocked out and his lip cut so that several stitches were taken in it at the hospital.
The fire department made a quick run Friday afternoon to Market and Jefferson streets, where a cottage occupied by J. Wright was on fire. The Wright family was at the beach, but the neighbors got their household goods out. The house, owned by I. C. Crowther, was completely gutted.
David T. Mitchell and Pat King are in the city jail on a charge of vagrancy. Two automobile robes, that the police believe to have been stolen, were found in their possession, but as it has been impossible to find the owners, no charge of theft was placed against the men.
George Halferty was severely injured and his bicycle wrecked by colliding with the automobile of F. C. Wheeler, at H and Second streets, Thursday evening. Mr. Wheeler was going slowly, and motioned to the young man which way he intended to go, which Halferty misunderstood, and the collision resulted. Beyond some painful bruises and scratches, Halferty escaped serious injury.

Commercial Job Printing at moderate prices, at the Herald Printery, 408 East Heron Street.

At Jeff's Shoe Store

Continuation of
CLEARANCE SALE
Until July 3rd

We will continue our sale until July 3rd, and we will reduce prices still lower than ever on odds and ends.

See Our Windows

B. J. GARMAN CO.

Jeff's Shoe Store P. O. Block

W. B. PAINE & CO.

212-214 S. G St. Aberdeen

OUR SPECIALTY WILL BE IN CARRYING INSTOCK AT ALL TIMES A COMPLETE LINE OF

Books, Stationery and Office Supplies

NEW GOODS ARE ARRIVING DAILY AND IN THE NEAR FUTURE WE WILL BE ABLE TO BOOST AS COMPLETE A LINE OF STATIONERY AS IS CARRIED IN ANY OF THE LARGER CITIES ON THE COAST.

HENRY HARLAN, Manager

Your Spring Gordon is here

The Hat that makes $3.00 do the work of $5.00.

Popular Spring Shapes and Faddish Colors.

Geo. Fisher
The Reliable Clothier

THE WHITE HOUSE

Sole Agents for

Dutchess Trousers

Prices Range from $1.50 to $6.50 per Pair at

ALEXANDER & McBRIDE

Next to Burnett's Jewelry Store

408 E. Heron St.