The high waters caused by the excessive and continued rains caused considerable damage to the bridges on the highways in this section.

OAKVILLE

Oakville was about the only town in the country that did not lose heavily in recent high waters.

Chas. Richard and wife and son, Roy, of Seattle who have been visiting at the home of George Fields, have returned to Seattle.

The Italian who lost his leg while at work on the steam shovel last summer and who sued for damages has lost his case, it being proven that he alone was to blame.

Mrs. M. E. Burch has received a communication from the A.-Y.-P. fair management saying that all medals awarded at the fair will be forwarded as fast as possible and that no one should be uneasy if they do not receive same for some time.

TREASURER ACTS WISELY

The flood caught the taxpayers who had not paid the second installment of taxes and who were waiting until the last moment before doing so, in an unpleasant predicament. After November 30, fifteen per cent interest is added and unless county treasurer Taylor takes cognizance of the time the remittances were mailed which he will probably do, the delay is apt to prove costly. Its always prudent to pay taxes promptly. —Montesano Vidette.

NEW BAPTIST PASTOR

Warmly Welcomed by City Pastors Last Evening in the Baptist Church

Rev. E. Burton, the new pastor of the Baptist church, received a royal welcome from his people and the resident pastors, last evening, the reception being held in the church.

The inclement weather did not deter the membership of the church from being present, though many of the friends who otherwise would have been there, were kept at home by the storm. Rev. F. K. Van Tassel acted as master of ceremonies by introducing Mr. Burton and then calling Rev. E. R. Pritchard to the platform, who welcomed Mr. Burton into membership of the Grays Harbor Ministerial Association. He was followed by Rev. F. F. E. Green of the Episcopal church, who extended words of cheer to the new pastor, as one who was to do a pastor's work in this city. Rev. C. McDermoth of the Congregational church, then called Mr. Burton's attention to the social side of church life, and welcomed him into the army of workers, who made the stranger feel at home with us.

Rev. A. H. Hauser, of this city and Rev. H. Ferguson of Hoquiam, welcomed him into membership in the Baptist Brotherhood. These exercises were closed with a vocal duet delightfully rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Burton, after which the ladies of the church served refreshments.

The new pastor expressed himself as well satisfied with his church, and said he was not afraid of hard work and expected success.

EZRA KENDALL IN "THE VINEGAR BUYER"

Of all the funny things Ezra Kendall has done, "The Vinegar Buyer" was always the funniest. And now, while waiting for the authors of "The Man from Home" to fashion him in a new play, he was taken "The Vinegar Buyer" from off the shelf dusted it off and brought it up-to-date, by introduction of new lines and scenes, dusted off his famous high hat, and is now "dusting it" about the land, getting a few thousand more laughs out of this good old play before again tempting fate with something new. On Sunday, Dec. 12, he plays Joe Miller at the Grand theater.

ELECT OFFICERS

At the meeting of the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star Tuesday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

Worthy Matron, Mrs. Martha Hawkes; worthy patron, George Huntley; assistant matron, Mrs. Ella Wheeler; secretary, Mrs. M. E. Lucas; treasurer, Mrs. J. G. Lewis, conductor, Miss Agnes McGillcuddy; assistant conductor, Mrs. W. I. Agnew. Following the business meeting the officers of the lodge served a banquet to the members, and a most enjoyable evening was passed.

PAY FOR TEMPLE

The last payment due the contractor, N. Cripe, on the Pythian Temple fell due today, and at 9 o'clock this morning the committee had the necessary money on hand, except the insignificant sum of $167.50. Knights Randolph and Dan Bowes got busy, and as the Herald goes to press the contractor has received his money. And, a good word right here may not be out of order. The committee in paying Mr. Cripe felt good over it, every relation between the contractor throughout having been the most pleasant, and the work extremely satisfactory.
