ANOTHER CASE OF SMALLPOX

Quinault Indians Are Still Under Quarantine

Another case of small pox has broken out in the house of Silas Hall on the Quinault Indian reservation and the place is again under strict quarantine. The quarantine was to have been raised last Sunday but Al-loting Agent F. R. Archer called in Dr. MacLafferty who issued the order that the house must remain under quarantine again.

Considerable has been said and printed concerning a statement made by Mr. Archer several days ago, regarding conditions on the reservation and physicians have been quoted regarding the matter, saying that everything was in good shape. Mr. Archer, speaking of the matter said: "I have been interested in this matter because I did not care to see the dread disease spread over the county. I have maintained all along that the matter had not been properly handled and I still say so. What has happened on the reservation is known only to a few and I want to say that the Indians were entitled to stricter regulations and better care than they got."

DAY NURSERY TO BE OPENED

The day nursery, under the management of the Civic Improvement association, will be opened March 1 in the building on the Northwest corner of East Second and F streets. Mrs. F. A. M. Hall will be in charge. Only children 18 months old and over will be accepted, and those old enough will be placed in the kindergarten class. The charge will be 10 cents per day for one child, 15 cents for two children and 25 cents for three.

The charge will assist in defraying the expenses of the institution and furnish necessary attention for children of those who cannot afford to pay a maid.

CHILDREN CLING TO MOTHER

A pathetic scene was witnessed by police officials at the city jail Tuesday afternoon, when the two little children of Mrs. Josie Batovich, held in the city jail pending trial for selling liquor without a license, refused to leave their mother's side. The children came to the jail and asked to see their mother and when evening came were told it was time to go home. They clung to her dress and refused to move unless their "mamma could go with them." The officers, touched by the scene, gave consent for the children to remain and the women's ward was made comfortable for the mother and her babes.

BRIDGE COMPANY AT WORK

The International Bridge & Construction company of Seattle, which has the contract to repair the Heron street bridge, which was put out of commission several days ago, by a collision with the steamer Centralia, have begun work. The castings have been made and the work of raising the bridge back on its gearing has begun. Scows will be placed under the ends of the bridge and the structure raised by the tide.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS BALL TONIGHT

The annual dance to be given by the Electrical Workers' Union at the pavilion, occurs tonight. The large hall has been decorated for the occasion and will be a blaze of electricity. The men spent yesterday testing out the apparatus and when the dance begins, the spectators will be treated to a grand sight. The attendance will be large and the dance will probably be held two nights and possibly three.

MILL COMPANY BUYS PROPERTY

The American mill company has purchased a half block of land at East Market and B streets from Mrs. Jed Rogers for $10,000. The dwellings on the property will be removed at once and a fine office and also a retail lumber yard located on the property. The recent decision of the council compelling the mill company to move its lumber from the streets, resulted in the purchase.

OLD M'INTYRE FARM SOLD

The old farm of Charles McIntyre at Copalis, was sold Tuesday to Mrs. Jed Rogers, the consideration being $10,000. The tract is the original homestead of A. A. Benner, a well known pioneer and sea otter hunter who came to this section 30 years ago. Mr. McIntyre, has been prominent in political affairs of Chehalis county, being one time a commissioner of the county during the time the Democrats captured the reins. The tract is ideally situated, being on the Copalis river and ocean beach.

TO DECIDE ON PLACE

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Chehalis County Fair association to be held in Elma, Saturday, the place for holding the next fair will be determined. Elma has raised nearly $2,000 for the fair and whether the stockholders will vote to allow the show to be held there is a question to be decided on later.

PYTHIANS CELEBRATE FORTY-EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY

Musical and Banquet to Members and Friends at Their Hall Last Monday Evening

In commemoration of the founding the order of the Knights of Pythias by James H. Rathbourne at Washington, D. C., in 1864, Wishkah Lodge No. 44, of Aberdeen, entertained 100 members and guests at their hall last Monday evening, it being the Forty-eighth anniversary. Rev. Greene made a short talk on Pythianism.

The musicale was exceptionally good, the best talent of the city taking part. Solos were rendered by Miss Nan Allard, Mrs. C. I. Prescott, Allan Dougherty and Rudolph Allen. A quartet also rendered two selections, while Miss Jeanette Scott gave two piano selections.

Following the musical, Chairman Dougherty ordered the arrest of Dan Bowes, who was brought forward. The jury was next called and instructed to bring in a verdict of guilty. Attorney Loomis appeared for the prosecution and Attorney Graham for the defense, but neither one was given an opportunity to speak, the affair being a burlesque on the recent Hiltz trial. As the jury brought in the verdict of guilty and ordered Bowes deported to Cosmopolis, Mr. Dougherty presented Mr. Bowes with a life membership in the order of Knights of Pythias. As the card was handed to him, his eyes filled with tears, and he was unable to speak.

Following this presentation, a sumptuous banquet was served in the banquet hall, after which dancing was indulged in.

CAMPBELL DIES AT SPOKANE

Amassa B. Campbell, one of the heaviest stockholders of the National Lumber & Box company of Hoquiam, died at his home in Spokane last week. Mr. Campbell was interested with A. Finch and Henry Wicks, of Youngstown, Ohio, in the mill. One of the ironies of fate shown in the pathetic death, Campbell, who was a millionaire, starving to death, owing to a cancer of the throat.

UPSET TAR CAN CAUSES FIRE

An overturned tar can in the alley near the Twins saloon on F street, caused a small fire and considerable smoke, which resulted in the fire department being called out. The department in rushing to the scene reminded one of a large city, Chief Tamblin leading in his buggy and the remainder of the department following and Chief of Police Templeman bringing up the rear on his motorcycle.

DREDGER WORKING GOOD

The new pump in the dredger engaged in filling the flats is working in excellent shape and the flow of water and sand being cast on the land is large. The residents outside of the fill district are being flooded out, as practically all the water is finding an outlet through the Fry creek slough near the park, which is not large enough to carry off all the water through the present small culvert.

POLICE ARREST SPEEDERS

Four motor cycle riders were arrested, found guilty and fined $25 for speeding last Sunday. The fines were suspended and the men listened to a short speech by Judge Tucker on speeding. The police intend putting a stop to speeding by motor cyclists and autoists.

WOMAN HELD FOR TRIAL

Josie Batovich, an Austrian woman, who it is alleged, has been conducting a blind pig in South Aberdeen, where she has been selling her liquor to foreigners, is under arrest at the city jail, awaiting action of government authorities. The woman was arrested following the testimony in an assault case, one witness testify-
