ELMA WINS CONTEST

Clarence Root, Student in Elma High School is Awarded Prize By Three Judges.

In the county declamatory contest, held Friday night in the J. M. Weatherwax High school auditorium, in which the five high schools of Chehalis county were represented, the judges unanimously awarded the gold medal to Clarence Root, of Elma. The five declamations were all excellent, and the large audience was well entertained. Those participating were, Horace Cook, Aberdeen; Miss Blanche Beaver, Hoquiam; Miss Goss, Montesano and Clarence Root, Elma.

The high school orchestra and Mrs. N. P. Bryan, Kilday Greene, Miss Mildred Hogan and Clyde Spencer, accompanied by Mrs. Croxall, rendered a splendid musical program.

TO CRUISE TIMBER

County Assessor R. A. Wiley and Chief Cruiser J. A. McGillivuddy, accompanied by County Engineer Shorey, left Montesano Friday to cruise the timber of the Simpson Logging Co., in 21-7. This is the land that suit has been brought to reduce the assessed valuation, allegation being made that the land does not contain the amount of timber reported by the county cruisers.

AIRY GIRLS DELIGHT PATRONS OF THE WEIR

The Weir theater certainly sprung a sensation last night when "The Aeroplane Ladies" appeared on the stage, or, rather, in midair. These shapely girls are, without doubt the most sensational and spectacular aerial performers who ever visited Grays Harbor. They must be seen to be thoroughly appreciated. Words fall to convey an adequate idea of this great act.

INSANITY SUSPECTED

Clarence Winners was taken in by the police Sunday, while acting strangely in South Aberdeen, on suspicion of insanity. He is not violent, but is being held at the city jail while the city physician examines into his condition.
