The Kitchen Cupboard

VACATION CANDY. FOR vacation treats a plain homemade fudge is a candy easy to make and not likely to have the harmful effects of rich candies purchased in many shops. Fudges are easy to make. Indeed, the older children can be taught how to prepare them and as a special reward be allowed to make their own candies. Fudges differ in name, but the method of making them all is about the same. Fudges Everybody Likes. Chocolate Fudge.—Take two pieces of chocolate, melt and add to it one cupful of cream, two cupfuls of granulated sugar, one-half cupful of New Orleans molasses and a lump of butter the size of an egg. Put the ingredients into a saucepan, stir them constantly and let them boil four minutes from the time they commence to boil hard. Test in cold water. Remove from the fire when the mixture forms a soft ball in water. Add one teaspoonful of vanilla; then beat till heavy and smooth. Pour in buttered pans and spread to one-half inch thickness. Cut in squares. Coconut Fudge.—Take two cupfuls of granulated sugar, two-thirds of a cupful of milk, butter the size of a walnut, one cupful of shredded coconut and one teaspoonful of lemon extract. Proceed as for chocolate fudge. A Sweets and White Effect. Layer Fudge.—Use a square bread pan for this. Make chocolate fudge, pour in and let it harden; then add a layer of coconut. Make this quite thick, cut in large squares and wrap in oiled paper. Chocolate Nut Fudge.—Make this like chocolate fudge, using one cupful of chopped nut meats when adding vanilla. English walnuts and almonds or bickory nuts and peanuts are nice for this. Toothsome Sweetmeats. Marshmallow Fudge.—Place in a saucepan two cupfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of milk and one tablespoonful of butter and two ounces of grated chocolate. Boil until it forms a soft ball when tested in cold water. Remove from the fire and add one teaspoonful of vanilla and a cupful of marshmallows chopped. Beat until it begins to stiffen, then pour into buttered tins, and when cool cut into squares.

AUTO-POLO The New Thriller is Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill's Latest In the long list of innovations among the stadium features with Buffalo Bill's and Pawnee Bill's Wild West and Far East this year, and one attracting wide-spread attention from every lover of exciting outdoor sport, is the new dare-game of Auto Polo; and it is some dare as presented personally by its famous inventor, Roltz King, with a corps of equally noted demon drivers. The game is the regulation one, with the expected substitution of Autos for horses, and witnessing it is instantaneous conviction that it has come to stay, and is far enough in advance of the century's thrillers, to assure its distinctive appeal to the devotee of daredevil stunts for a long time to come. The forthcoming Aberdeen visit of the big show Wednesday, Aug. 13, fresh from its New York triumphs, will present the game exactly as it was given when it caused so much agitation at New York Madison Square Garden.

THE WONDERFUL WAITE FAMILY. AN ANTIPODEAN TRAVELER FOR THE FIRST TIME HERE. BULL WHIP CRACKERS WITH BUFFALO BILL AND PAWNEE BILL. Of the newly added stadium features to the long program of the Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill shows this year, special mention is deserving the marvelous Australians; this troupe of native bushmen is proving a veritable revelation, and their expert manipulation of the boomerang, bush-axe, spear and bull-whip, is causing a general sensation, for without doubt their dexterous and gracefully accurate control of these apparently awkward weapons,—the great bull-whips especially, some of which measure 85 feet from butt to lash tip—is about as remarkable an exemplification of practical perfection, the spectator could well imagine. An afternoon and night exhibition will be given at the old Athletic Park show grounds, Wednesday, August 13.

PAWNEE BILL IN THE SADDLE. BUFFALO BILL AS HE APPEARS THIS YEAR. AUTO POLO.—The last word in dare-devil stunts, with Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Pawnee Bill's Far East, coming to Aberdeen, Wednesday, August 13.
