

ABERDEEN WILL BE DRESSED UP

Big Splash and Three Conventions Coming Here in the Next Two Months

Aberdeen will be dressed in holiday attire from June 10 until after the Splash and again in August, two conventions coming to this city this month, the big Splash the first of July and the Photographers convention in August.

The United Spanish War Veterans, whose state gathering is to be held here June 10 to 13 inclusive, will be welcomed with a display of bunting and flags. It is the intention to have the down town section decorated more elaborately than for any gathering in the past. Flags, red, white and blue bunting and lights of national colors for the most part will be left standing for the state convention of dentists, which is held here June 15 to 18 and many of the merchants plan to leave their store fronts dressed for the big Splash celebration July 2 to 4. On August 11th the Northwest photographers come here for a three-days' session and Old Glory will again be swung to the breezes.

The Spanish War Veterans will have about 700 delegates here, while the dentists and photographers all together will have between 300 and 400 delegates. The Splash will bring to Aberdeen fully 30,000 people so June and the first week of July should witness some lively doings.

SHINGLE MILL BURNED

Big Shingle Mill of Commercial Company at Cosmopolis, Is Destroyed by Fire Yesterday

Fire was discovered in Shingle Mill No. 1, at the big plant of the Grays Harbor Commercial Co. at Cosmopolis, shortly after one o'clock yesterday afternoon, and owing to the high wind at the time, was a total loss before the flames could be checked. The Aberdeen fire department was called on and quickly responded, and through its efforts the fire was confined to the shingle mill and kept from spreading to other parts of the plant.

Good work by the firemen kept the flames from the dry kilns and boiler room. The origin of the fire is unknown, and it throws about 30 men out of employment. The loss is estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000, and is fully covered by insurance. Local officials of the company believe the mill will be rebuilt at once, although the final determination will come from the head office in San Francisco.

PANAMA EXPOSITION

State Commissioner to Exposition Visits Grays Harbor, Looking Up an Exhibit

Richard Seeley Jones, of Seattle, executive commissioner of the state for the Panama exposition at San Francisco, visited Aberdeen and Hoquiam this week, in the interest of the exposition exhibits from this section.

Mr. Jones addressed the Hoquiam Commercial Club at their meeting Wednesday, and interviewed members of the Aberdeen Chamber of Commerce yesterday. L. H. Burnett suggested that Grays Harbor furnish a tall flagpole for the state building, which Mr. Jones thought a good idea.

The pole would have a bronze plate giving its dimensions, and the location it came from. The fishermen and packers will have a display from Grays Harbor, and the millmen will furnish a lumber exhibit. Mr. Jones has visited nearly all sections of the state, and has found keen interest manifested in the advertising possibilities of the coming exposition.

HOQUIAM FORMALLY INVITED

Geo. J. Wolff Attends Commercial Club Meeting, and Invites Sister City to Splash

HOQUIAM, June 4.—Moral support, not financial, for the Splash, was asked and an invitation given Hoquiam to attend the second annual Splash, at Aberdeen this year, by George J. Wolff yesterday at the Commercial Club luncheon at the Grayport.

Frank L. Morgan of Hoquiam has been picked by the Aberdeen committee as grand marshal of the Fourth of July parade, which is expected to be the largest ever held on the Harbor.

Mr. Wolff, at the close of his remarks yesterday, asked that a committee be appointed on the Splash matter, and such a committee will be appointed at the luncheon next Wednesday, and probably instructed to render every possible assistance to the Aberdeen committee.

"We hope to make the Splash this year the biggest thing of the kind ever held in the Southwest, and we hope Hoquiam next year will outdo us as badly as we expect this year to outdo the splendid Splash held in Hoquiam last year," said Mr. Wolff. "We hope Hoquiam's people will turn out good and strong for the Splash this year. We don't need or want Hoquiam to subscribe, but want you there, especially on the Fourth."

MRS. WINIFRED B. FULLER AND JOSEPH QUIGG WED

HOQUIAM, June 4.—Joseph James Quigg and Mrs. Winifred B. Fuller were united in marriage last night at the Catholic church, Rev. Father Quigley officiating. The ring service was used. Only about 20 immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present. Miss Gertrude McMonagle acted as bridesmaid and George Kimball, the bride's brother, as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Quigg will be at home to friends at 411 N street.

It was hard work to gain the bride's consent, but Eagles 250 strong, captured the groom after the ceremony and took him to their nest on J street, promising to return him "in an hour." A banquet and moot court were held by the Eagles, and the groom sent home at 10:30 o'clock with good wishes, and a five-pound box of chocolates for the bride.

MR. AND MRS. EKLUND HOLD SILVER WEDDING

HOQUIAM, June 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Matt Eklund celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding Monday evening at their home, 1015 Arnold avenue. About 75 guests were present to participate in the happy event. A number of beautiful silver gifts were presented the couple, including a tea set, a cake stand and a sugar bowl and also a cut glass cup. A musical program was rendered under the direction of Mr. Verner Honnell. Rev. Truedson made a short speech congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Eklund upon the occasion. A delicious supper was served late in the evening. The couple were married at Osceola, Mich., June 1, 1889.

HOME STUDY OBJECTED TO

ELMA, June 4.—Attorney E. S. Avey has served notice on the Elma school board to abolish the arbitrary assignment of work to be done at home nights by children in the lower grades. It is anticipated the order will be issued for another school year, but if not, Mr. Avey says he is authorized to bring the matter into court, and get a decision on whether or not children may be forced to study outside of school hours or be lowered in their grades. If this is done it will, it is said, be the first case of the kind ever brought in the United States.

COUNTY FAIR DATE

ELMA, June 4.—President George Simpson of the Chehalis County Fair Association has announced the date for the annual fair this year, September 23-27. The date is earlier than usual, yet late enough to be after harvest and with a better chance for clear weather.

AGED MAN MISSING

MONTESANO, June 4.—R. H. Dillard, aged about 75 years, a pioneer settler in the North river valley, who has been boarding here for some time, has been missing several days and his friends are uneasy for his safety. He went to Aberdeen Tuesday morning, after shaking hands with several friends and bidding them good bye and has not been heard of since. A friend met him in Aberdeen and the old man bid him good bye. He has two sons living on North river who were notified, and began search for him.

NOT GUILTY OF SLANDER

For full information, apply to the local secretary of the board, at the Aberdeen postoffice.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT

At the meeting of the Aberdeen Civic Improvement association Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. J. S. McKee of Hoquiam, made an interesting address, and Saturday, September 5, was selected as the date for the annual flower show.

Mrs. William Irvine and Mrs. L. G. Humbarger were chosen as delegates to the meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs at Raymond, June 20, and Mrs. S. K. Boves and Mrs. Arthur Wilson as alternates.

HARBOR GETS $110,000

Word has been received by Frank H. Lamb, chairman of the port commission and Hoquiam member of the recent delegation to Washington, that the rivers and harbors committee has reported the rivers and harbors bill to the senate with a provision of $110,000 for maintenance and raising the north jetty. This is full recognition of what was asked by the delegation and by Major Cavanaugh, government engineer for this district.

HOMEMADE TROUSERS.

With a Word to the Woman Who Makes Her Own Gowns. Would men ever get anywhere, do you think, if they fussed around with women do? And the worst of our case is that we are rather inclined to point with pride to what is really one of the most vicious habits of our sex. We have all seen the coming satisfaction with which the comely young school-marm, complimented upon a pretty gown, announces, "I made it myself." And we have all heard the chorus of admiring approbation following the announcement—joined in it, perhaps, and asked to borrow the pattern. But really, viewed in the light of reason, what is there about the feat upon which she should so plume herself?

Suppose that a man should point proudly to his nether garments and say: "Lo! I made these trousers." I have not a mental picture of even the most eccentric of his fellow clerks or mail carriers, or clergymen, or school-teachers, crowding around to admire and cry: "What a splendid way to spend your time out of business hours! And it looks just like a tailor made." Which last is just as truly a lie when we call it to our fellow women as it would be if we told it to men.—Mary Lee Herndon in Atlantic.

provision funds into a single cash balance and payment of the state debt.

Now, when the general fund is depleted, the policy of the state treasury is to make the overdraft against the cash balances of the other fund accounts, and to pay back on restoration of the general fund surplus cash balance, the two per cent interest that would be required if the depositories instead of the state government utilized the balances.

This is simple and clever financing, and minimizes greatly the interest waste imposed by legislatures that make appropriations widely in excess of visible revenues. County and city government should adopt this plan.

What the energies of a few serious men have accomplished at Olympia during the last 20 years in putting state finances on a better basis should serve in some manner as examples for reforms in the administration of county, city and school funds.

Since the deposit interest fund act went into effect in 1907, the cash balances of the state's fund accounts, at two per cent interest, have earned the following sums: January, 1909 $14,197.33 January, 1910 21,405.00 January, 1911 28,978.01 January, 1912 30,239.40 January, 1913 41,235.46 January, 1914 47,109.23 Total $183,173.43 larly partly because its practice develops a sensation akin to that of intoxication. The nearest of the "Shakers" to Tacoma appear to be the Mukleshoots, although it is possible Peterson may try to organize a branch among the Puyallups.

In addition, on the list of tribes appearing in the federation's session for the first time will be Indians from the Walla Walla valley, from Astoria, Ore., and from the Umatillas at Pendleton, Ore. The tribes represented at the first pow-wow, held early in the year, will all be seen again. They are the Quinault, Makah, Squally, Clallam, Puyallup, Squaxin, Clatsop, Cowitz, Georgetown, Tulalip and Chinook. Some of these tribal organizations now include others the Ozettes being among them.

One Public Session.

The evening of June 15 will be an open session of the pow-wow to the public, and for this program President Bishop has arranged a rare treat in the nature of three aged Indian speakers who figured in the days of early Indian history of the Northwest. Chief Tabola H., probably nearing the century mark in years and oldest known Indian living in this section of the country, will speak. The Clallams will send the other two speakers, one being Tom Jefferson, who was at Point No Point in 1854 when the Indians signed a treaty there with Governor Stevens of the territory of Washington. These wise old men of the tribes will tell what they remember of the memorable days of 1854 and 1855 in their native tongue, which will be given to the public by interpreters. Allen Weir, former secretary of state of Washington, will also be among the speakers.
