CHAUTAUQUA WILL START TOMORROW

Comus Players Furnish Entertainment for First Night

TICKET SALE LARGE

Judge Wanamaker Will Be Feature on Sunday Program

Tomorrow evening will see the opening of the chautauqua out at Electric park. For the seven days from July 15 to 21, inclusive, there should be a steady pilgrimage to the big tent. Last year's was a mighty fine chautauqua. This year's, to judge from the program, is to be a better one.

The first 600 tickets at $2.50 apiece are almost sold out. The second batch of season tickets will go at $3. Secretary W. C. Mumaw of the local chautauqua association, which guarantees ticket sales to the Ellison-White company, looks for the largest attendance that yet has greeted the chautauqua on Grays Harbor.

The program tomorrow evening will be put on by the Comus players, who will give scenes from Shakespeare's plays and from "Carson of the North Woods." Judge R. M. Wanamaker will be the feature on the Sunday program with his lecture on the vital problems of our federal, state and local courts. Benjamin Fay Mills will speak Monday on "The World on Fire." Tuesday the New York Marine band will be the feature. There are many other features of the program each day, copies of which may be obtained at the local offices of the Grays Harbor Railway & Light company or at the Hoquiam establishment of the Heikel pharmacy.

Until a person looks over the list of chautauquas that are being held in all parts of the United States this summer, the magnitude of the business is hardly grasped. It probably has shown a greater growth than any other institution of modern times and each year the total chautauqua attendance has increased 200 per cent.

To keep these chautauquas in operation requires the services of many hundreds of people and the list of men and women who devote all or part of the summer months to this kind of work, includes many of America's notables. Besides the hundreds of musical attractions, lecturers and entertainers, there are many hundreds of advance men, college crew boys and other assistants who manage the immense detail of the chautauquas.

The chautauqua of today is operated on a strict business basis, and unlike many other movements of the present day, it pays its bills and financially is a success. When it is understood that $15,000,000 was spent last year in promoting the chautauquas of the United States, it will be readily understood that as an institution is making good on a business basis.

Judge R. M. Wanamaker of the Supreme Court of Ohio, who will speak at the chautauqua Sunday, brings a message of even greater individual interest and importance than that of nearness—a constructive treatment of the vital problems of our federal, state, district and local courts. No man in America today is so ably equipped, by reason of actual participation, and demonstration of contented principles, to point out the glaring weaknesses of our system of jurisprudence, and at the same time offer a workable remedial solution to the problems.

As district attorney, as judge of the court of common pleas, as judge of the supreme court of his state, Judge Wanamaker struck a new note in the annals of jurisprudence in this country. He proved not only to the people of Ohio, but to many outside thousands who were eager to familiarize themselves upon the subject, that after all, the dispensation of equal justice guaranteed to every one under the law, is a thing of simple and direct method.

FIGHT TO KEEP BOAT SHIPMENT OF BOOZE OUT

The Hoquiam police, despite the discouraging aspect of the situation, seem determined to put down the practice of bringing liquor to Grays Harbor on boats. The Aberdeen police, too, have been just as energetic. The last case, however, comes from Hoquiam in the raid on the steam schooner Willamette, Sunday night. The contention of ships' captains and stewards that they have full right to carry any amount of stock is yet to be fought out in the courts.

The Herald tells it all right.

ELECTING A PRESIDENT 3

Jefferson Elected by House of Representatives.

THE Democratic Republicans supported Thomas Jefferson for president and Aaron Burr for vice president in 1800. The Federalists supported John Adams and C. C. Pinckney. The vote, as counted on Feb. 11, 1801, was:

Jefferson, 73; Burr, 73; Adams, 65; Pinckney, 64; Jay, 1.

No one having received a majority of the votes cast, the house of representatives proceeded on the same day to elect a president. The balloting continued for six days, and finally Jefferson received the votes of a majority of the states and was declared elected. Sixteen states voted.

Jefferson defeated C. C. Pinckney of South Carolina by a big majority in the election of 1804.

ABERDEEN LODGE GETS READY FOR VISITING DOKKIES

Tehamash Temple Will Entertain Imperial Palace Officers

The reception of visiting Dokkies from the Imperial Palace, August 7, is to be the most important function ever attended to by the local Knights of Pythias, according to present indications. Tehamash temple is making ample preparation for the occasion, and Tacoma, Olympia, Centralia, South Bend and other cities are taking a hand in the work. These committees have been named from the local temple:

Reception Committee—Grand Chancellor F. W. Loomis, D. M. Bows, A. E. Graham, William Tamblin, George J. Wolff, Peter Creech, M. M. Stewart and J. W. Barkley.

Publicity Committee—C. M. Cloud, R. V. Mack, J. W. Clark, J. E. Hutchinson and A. T. Fisher.

Banquet Committee—W. H. Cady, Fred Davidson, E. A. Newton, W. C. Bailey and J. B. Brinkley.

Memorial Committee—The Dead Ones.

Music Committee—W. H. Cady, W. D. Fletcher, Carl Elder, Wayne Little, C. C. Pinnick and William Appleyard.

Application Committee—For Aberdeen—J. A. Shields, A. B. Cady, E. A. Olleman, Roscoe Conrad, R. A. Wiley, A. E. Graham, Louis Mortisen, H. W. Hansen, John Tenwick and A. V. Nelson.

Application committees, too, have been picked by all the other cities in Southwestern Washington.

LOCAL ELKS HELP

The local lodge of Elks is busy itself with plans for assisting the Hoquiam Elks in entertainment of delegates to the Elks state convention next month. The Aberdeen lodge hopes to supply 700 rooms for visitors, but so far has secured pledges of but 150 of them.

STRIKE UNSETTLED

Settlement of the longshoremen's strike today seems as distant as at any time in the past month. The Grays Harbor Stevedore company reports that it is meeting with but little difficulty in loading and unloading vessels here. Reports from San Francisco, Seattle and Tacoma are not so encouraging, however.

LOGGING CAMPS OF HARBOR ALL RUNNING AGAIN

All the logging camps of Grays Harbor, closed during the Fourth of July celebrations here and in other towns of the county, are running again. Some may be a little short handed still on labor, as many logging camps have lingered through this week in Aberdeen, Hoquiam and elsewhere, resting up from the Fourth, but by tomorrow night, in all probability, all probably, all crews will have reported for duty and next week will see every camp running full blast.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Street improvement was the main business at the Wednesday night's council meeting and resulted in the ordering West Hume street paved from Washington street to the railroad tracks and in taking preliminary steps for improvement of the portion of Second avenue damaged by slides last winter. The council voted against paving D street from Market to Randall, numerous protests being made to this project. The street committee was asked to investigate the advisability of graveling the west end of Heron street so the Federal mill might have an outlet for its lumber wagons.

The portion of Hume street ordered paved is three blocks in length and the project will cost about $7000. No protests were made against this project.

Efforts to stop the Second avenue slide caused considerable discussion and this resulted in the mayor, city attorney and city engineer being instructed to secure the permission of the abutting property owners for the city to put in drain ditches. After this is done other necessary work will be done to offset the damage done by the slides.

Water Supt. George Bowen reported house numbering here to have been badly done and Mayor Phillips advised an effort be made, probably by the water department, to have all homes in the city properly numbered. Where numbers have to be changed a charge of 25 cents will be made.

The council instructed the water superintendent to refuse to install meters at any place other than those of regular consumers of city water. North Aberdeen in winter is supplied with water from the numerous springs that come out of the hill. In the spring, however, North Aberdeen residents need city water. It was not thought advisable to install long pipe lines unless the city would be assured that a number of residents of this section would become constant users of city water.

Neinist & Rodrick were awarded the contract, at a price of $400, for painting both the Heron street and North Aberdeen bridges. Lawrence street from Curtis to Front and the entire length of Stockwell street, both in South Aberdeen, were ordered closed, due to the unsafe condition of these plank streets. Building Inspector L. D. Kelsey reported 27 building permits, calling for the erection of buildings valued at $11,470, had been issued during June. A resolution was passed calling for building a six foot plank sidewalk on the north side of Aberdeen avenue from Oak to Maple street.

DATES IN 1916 TO REMEMBER

Intending Voters Should Pasty This in Their Hats

By I. M. Howell, Secretary of State

JULY 14TH—First day for filing candidacies (sixty days prior to date of primary election).

AUGUST 7TH (Not later than)—All registration officers are required to file with the Secretary of State, I. M. Howell, typewritten lists of all registered voters, with postoffice address, in their respective precincts, not earlier than four nor less than three months prior to date of general election. (Names and addresses to be used for mailing list for the purpose of forwarding copies of pamphlet containing initiative and referendum petitions, constitutional amendments (proposed), together with arguments for and against).

AUGUST 12TH—Last day for filing candidacies (thirty days prior to date of primary election).

SEPTEMBER 1ST—Registration books to be closed ten days prior to primary election day.

OCTOBER 17TH—Registration books open again immediately after primary election day and remain open until twenty days prior to general election day.

Books to be closed October 7th.

SEPTEMBER 12TH—Primary election (Second Tuesday in September).

NOVEMBER 7TH—General election. (Tuesday after first Monday in November).

JUNE PERMITS, 2,618

January: 70 liquor permits. February: 252 liquor-permits. March: 539 liquor permits. April: 1015 liquor permits. May: 1631 liquor permits. June: 2618 liquor permits.

Total number of liquor permits obtained in Grays Harbor county in the first six months of operation of the dry law, 6,125.

The total bulks large, but study of the figures should produce some reasons for satisfaction; for instance, the percentage of increase in number of permits obtained in May over April and in June, over May, 60 per cent in each case, is not nearly so great as in February, March or April over preceding months. The level of thirst, in other words, may be almost reached.

JONES-ORMOND.

Frank P. Jones and Mrs. Goldie Ormond of Seattle were joined in holy wedlock in the Baptist parsonage at 11 a. m., Tuesday, Pastor W. H. Gibson officiating. Miss Adwage Fournier and Mr. Clifford Selberg stood with them through the ceremony. The wedding party were attended by the bride's parents and others. After the ceremony they sped away to the Catholic church, where Miss Fournier and Mr. Selberg were married. They left on the afternoon train for Seattle, where they will make their home.

INSURANCE RATES HERE BOOSTED BY ORDER OF BUREAU

Insurance rates are boosted in Aberdeen by notice received from the State Rating Bureau. At least half of the residences of the city are affected by the advance, occasioned by their having papered instead of plastered walls, and having chimneys resting on wooden brackets, a charge of 25 cents per $100 carried being added for the first and of 10 cents per $100 carried, for the second cause.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Merchants Picnic Association will issue their own program. Advertising for the same should be given to Mr. A. E. Sparkes, who represents the association and has proper credentials. No other proposition should be entertained.

ELECTING A PRESIDENT 4

Madison Defeats Pinckney Decisively in 1808.

THE Democratic Republicans nominated James Madison of Virginia in 1808. His running mate was George Clinton of New York. The Republican ticket that year was C. C. Pinckney of South Carolina and Rufus King of New York. The election took place on Nov. 8, and the vote, as counted on Feb. 6, 1809, was: Madison, 122; Pinckney, 47.

In the election of 1812 Madison, renominated by the Republicans, defeated DeWitt Clinton of New York by a vote of 128 to 89. Nominations were made by a caucus, and Clinton refused to be bound, and the Federalists decided to support George Clinton.

CANNERIES SHOW FALLING OFF FOR SEASON OF 1916

Clam Pack Off 50 Per Cent; Salmon Just Above Normal

The salmon and clam packing industries of Grays Harbor have fallen off this season. The depreciation in the clam pack is estimated at 50 per cent, due to the scarcity of the clams. The salmon, as figured now, is but 16,000 cases against 40,000 cases put up last year. This, however, does not mean that 1916 clam season was a bad one. Last year's was away above normal, and this year's is slightly above normal.

Naval Militia Will Begin Its Cruise to Alaska Tomorrow

Men of Fourth Division Will Go to Sitka and Then to San Francisco

The first of two cruises for the Fourth Division, Naval Militia, will start tomorrow, when 33 members of the organization will leave from Tacoma on the armored cruiser New Orleans for Sitka. The men will be away three weeks. They will have shore leave at Sitka, and then will go to San Francisco where they will be given more shore leave. The second cruise will start August 10 on the cruiser Vicksburg, and 33 more of the local naval militia will take part in it. The itinerary of the cruise has not been announced. Ensign William Donovan, Jr., will be in command of the local naval militia on the first cruise; Ensign John C. Freeman of the men on the second cruise.

RECEIVE BRICKS FOR POSTOFFICE

FIRE AT CARLISLE

Mid-day Wednesday a fire totally destroyed kilns A and B at the Coppals Lumber company's mill at Carlisle. Both kilns were filled with lumber, practically all of which was No. 1 stock. This also was destroyed and the total loss will reach about $10,000, partially covered by insurance. The other kilns and the rest of the mill were saved from the fire by the work of the mill crew who turned out as a fire fighting force. The two kilns destroyed were each of 26 by 105 feet in ground dimensions and of wooden construction. A. P. Sprague, manager of the mill, says that work of constructing new kilns will be begun at once. The new kilns will be of concrete fire-proof construction. The mill now has a battery of four fire-proof kilns, and has only one wooden construction kiln remaining.

MERCHANTS WILL PICNIC ON JULY 27

Annual Outing for Grays Harbor Storekeepers on Soon

GO TO OFFUT LAKE

Between 2,000 and 3,000 People Expected for Picnic

July 27, two weeks from yesterday, is to be the big red day letter day of the year for merchants and store employees of Aberdeen and Hoquiam. There are bargain days that are good and bargain days that are better or worse; but July 27, the day when the merchants themselves buy, is best of all, for on that day the Grays Harbor merchants and clerks go on their annual picnic. It will be at Offut lake this year, and a big attendance is expected.

There will not be a store open in the two cities on the day of the picnic, and between 2,000 and 3,000 people are expected to go on the outing. Two special trains will carry the merry-makers besides the automobiles that are sure to be requisitioned. There will be dancing in the Offut lake pavilion in the afternoon, as well as a fine program of sports. These committees will handle the affair:

Executive committee—J. Y. Martin, general chairman; J. W. Huff, W. H. McKnight, E. A. Newton and W. G. Powell of Aberdeen, and P. L. Tullus, F. A. Cook, A. V. LeClere, James Warnken and F. A. Smith, of Hoquiam.

Marshall of Day—J. W. Brockschink.

Transportation—J. W. Huff, W. G. Powell, C. H. Ward and C. H. Rychar.

Picnic grounds—F. A. Smith.

Dance committee—Clayton Rychar, Arnold Nelson, Max McGrew, Ralph West, C. A. Olsen, N. Abramson, Ernest Eklund, George Eshom, F. A. Smith, Bert Hayes, Edgar Jones and Cliff Selberg.

Refreshments—W. W. Maxey, A. H. Ward, E. H. Shelley, Frank Lindner, J. S. Ryan, Lee Cunningham, W. J. Robinson, L. B. Hogan, P. L. Tullus, F. A. Cook, George Thonet, F. H. Brockschink, J. L. Northup and J. L. Neubert.

Sports—James Warnken, Joe Zelasko, Tony Satlow, T. L. Davidson, Edward Moore and Fred Davidson.

Program—J. W. Huff, R. Conrad, P. L. Tullus and E. A. Newton.

Closing—C. A. Holmer, W. H. McKnight, T. H. Blyth, I. J. Leonard, J. A. Eaton and J. P. Morgan of Aberdeen; J. R. Hoskins, O. I. Teglund, C. S. Sutor, K. C. Berg, H. G. Wilkin and George Glander, of Hoquiam.

Low Record for Mortality Kept Up By Aberdeen

Death Rate Here in Six Months Is 56 Against Birth Total of 114

Aberdeen has kept up its end, for the first six months of 1916, in sustaining the low record for mortality of the state and the high birth rate. The June record, especially, is one of which any city in the world might be proud, four deaths and sixteen births.

For the six months, January to June, inclusive, the deaths in Aberdeen totaled 56. Births in the same period totalled 114.

United States government reports for several years have accorded Aberdeen a position occupied by only two to three other cities of like or near population, in the whole country, as respects its low mortality. The year 1916 will keep up the record.

CLEAR OFF WEEDS

A start at ridding the city of some of its dandelions and weeds was made Tuesday. Mayor J. M. Phillips, under authority of an ordinance which allows the city to do such work, put a small gang of men at work in the downtown section cutting off the weed crop. At the same time he expressed the wish that property owners all over the city would join in the good work.

MIGRATION TO BEACHES IN ON

Aberdeen residents and residents of all Grays Harbor towns, in fact, are leaving in steady streams for the beaches and for Lake Quinalt, for summer outings of weeks or longer duration. The borders of Lake Quinalt are reported to be lined with campers, since the completion of the new highway.
