America to Her Allies

The world lay smiling in a dream Until the drumming guns, the smoke From burning cities, pillaged towns, Upon the sleep of nations broke.

But we, since we had drawn the ends Of all the earth into our heart— Confusion wrought within our soul; We hoped to play the neutral's part.

The neutral's part . . . full soon we knew The Kaiser's ultimate device: The world his altar, he the priest, Democracy the sacrifice!

Our dream has fled; we, too, have waked To strike with splendor, faith and power In issue of the highest cause That ever greatness history's hour;

Our eagles climb the crying dawn On wings of no uncertain flight; We set our banner, full of stars. By yours, on war's accepted height;

The drums are roused, the bugles blow; The die of destiny is cast; The full decision of our days Is yours at last! Is yours at last! —Harry Kemp in New York World.

People.

A little backache at first. Daily increasing 'till the back is lame and weak.

Urinary disorders may quickly follow. Dropsy and often Bright's disease. This frequently is the downward course of kidney ills.

Don't take this course. Follow the advice of an Aberdeen citizen. J. C. Miller, 611 E. Second Street, Aberdeen, says: "I can always vouch for Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know from personal experience that they are a medicine of merit. I have taken them on different occasions when my back has felt stiff and sore and they have always done me good. I have found Doan's Kidney Pills reliable and more so than anything else I have ever taken for kidney troubles."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Miller had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (48)

SPORT SILKS.

Points About the Gorgeous New Designs Just Out.

Brilliance of coloring and surprising combinations characterize the new sport silks which have just arrived in the big stores.

Plaids, stripes and spots of various sizes and great diversity of shapes are found among these silks, and the vivid, oftentimes startling color schemes are most interesting. The comparatively few plain varieties are supposed to be chiefly for evening wear, although even these may be used in combination, the coat of one color and the skirt of another for street wear. In fact, they are not supposed to appear alone for the evening, but to be used in pairs at least, according to the latest rumors of spring fashions.

Heavy shantung pongees seem to be leading in favor, with georgette crapes and satins following closely after. All of them have the great advantage this year of being woven on broad looms, which, of course, spells both ease and economy for the dressmaker.

Robin's egg blue is scheduled as a leader on this spring's color calendar, and a highly successful season is expected for it. Some of the combinations in which it is destined to play a part are certainly surprising, to put it mildly. They do not sound exactly attractive in words, perhaps; but, contrary to all expectations, they really do look well when put together properly.

"Be careful never to throw them at each other," warns an expert. Then he proceeds to gather up handfuls of soft satin, the robin's egg blue in one hand and violet in the other. After the first start of surprise one realizes, as he twists them deftly together, that they really do harmonize after all, that the effect is beautiful. Another of the new combinations he shows is robin's egg blue and brass, far less startling than the first and quite pleasing. Chartruese georgette crape also and this same robin's egg blue combine very well indeed, and the effect is particularly pleasing for evening wear.
