

in the city. It has an extensive plant made up of rare cut glass, silver, and china wares, linens and other necessary articles. It is just as qualified to serve a thousand as a baker's dozen.

The Laurel Apartments, owned by Mrs. Susie Revels Cayton, but under lease, is a valuable investment with splendid returns. It is well located and continues to increase in value.

Clarence R. Anderson is one of Seattle's very successful attorneys and a heavy investor in her realty.

Dr. David T. Cardwell is a highly successful physician and surgeon and has an extensive practice.

Dr. Charles F. Maxwell has practiced medicine and surgery in the city for a number of years and has made a brilliant success.

The Searchlight, a weekly paper, owned and operated by Samuel P. DeBow, has a splendid circulation.

The Buffalo Hosiery Company was and is doing a thriving business. It is operated by Hall & Hawkins.

Noy Pierson is the proprietor of a well patronized tonsorial emporium.

Eugene Griffin is the owner of an enthusiastic young baseball bunch which is very popular.

Alonzo D. and J. Samuel Peoples are the names of the brothers.

James A. Roston and Howard D. Brown handle real estate and insurance and have much success in their work.

The Southern Express Company, with I. F. Norris, proprietor, is one of the big auto express concerns of the city and employs a score or more persons in its operation.

The Majestic Haberdashery, with Shadrick T. McCants as proprietor, is a coming concern and promises extensive expansion. Its proprietor is one of the active men of the city.

Woman's Exchange, with a line of groceries and candies in connection, is a business concern operated by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller. They also operate a small apartment house.

S. C. Valley's grocery store, which he recently acquired, has a fine family trade and gives much evidence of developing into a strong concern.

Benjamin F. Tutt is the proprietor of one of the most inviting barber shops in the city. A full line of

THE BOARD OF USHERS
Of The Mt. Zion Baptist Church

Dr. F. B. Cooper has laid for himself the foundation for quite a fortune as a dentist. He is one of Seattle's foremost dentists.

Dr. C. J. Allen has done exceedingly well as a dentist and is rapidly building up a professional name for himself.

P. Frazier is one of Seattle's foremost realty dealers and holds the record of selling more individual tracts for homes than any other dealer in the city. He has many clients among the Japanese of the city.

Peoples Brothers operate autos for hire and have a number of the smartest cars in the city in that business.

toilet articles and literature of colored persons are also maintained in the shop.

A. A. Taylor and H. S. Frasier both operate well arranged cleaning, dyeing and general tailoring establishments.

SEATTLE BIDS YOU WELCOME

Seattle was settled in 1852.

Seattle's population, 370,000.

Seattle's bank clearings, 1919, $2,021,004,335.

Seattle's postoffice receipts, 1919, $2,680,000.