

PURELY PERSONAL

Mr. B. F. Tutt has returned from his visit to the Middle West.

Mr. Clyde Coleman has gone to Chicago to attend the Northwestern University. He is studying dentistry.

Mr. Adam Coleman left for Alaska last Monday and will be away for three weeks.

Get a steam heated apartment at the Laurel, 303 22nd Avenue South.

Mr. J. Ross will leave next week for Georgia to visit with his father and other relatives and after being with them for some time will visit for a time with a niece in Massachusetts. Though he has done well in Seattle in a financial way, yet he is not planning to live in the city again.

A complimentary dinner party was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. John Love of Memphis, Tennessee, last Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Adam Coleman at their residence, 216 Twenty-second Avenue, and to make more complete the already pleasant occasion some forty guests joined with Mr. and Mrs. Coleman later in the evening for the entertainment of the guests of honor. Mr. Clyde Coleman, a son of the host and hostess, also featured in the entertainment, for the visitors, in view of the fact that he would depart the following Wednesday for the Northwestern University at Chicago, took advantage of the opportunity to bade him good bye. The evening was spent in music and games after which light refreshments were served. Mrs. Coleman was assisted by Mrs. O. H. Winston, Mrs. H. H. Cottrel, Mrs. Saul Hall, Mrs. William Chandler, Miss Madge R. Cayton, Miss Ida Brown, Miss Mabel Byrd, and Miss Thelma Porter. Mr. Charles R. Watts assisted Mr. Coleman in making it pleasant for the gentlemen. A delightful evening was unanimously voted by those present.

The Mississippi division of the American Legion, in its annual session at Jackson, Mississippi, recently adopted a resolution for justice that has startled the natives. Many old timers are rubbing their eyes to see if they have "seen thru a glass darkly." And the younger generation, particularly the soldier boys who saw service in France, are pointing to the expression with pride, saying: "This is the new voice of the South and you and each of you are invited to call and inspect the various apartments and if you are in need of such accommodations for the coming winter you are solicited to become a patron of the house. The Laurel Apartments is one block from Jackson Street and one block from Yesler Way on Twenty-second Avenue South, 303. Every apartment in THE LAUREL is an outside one and without a single dark room in the building. It is steam heated and sufficiently furnished for immediate occupancy. In fact you can be in living possession of one of the apartments within a few hours after having rented the same. The halls, lavatories and heating apparatus are all well cared for by competent persons. Come and see for yourself.

The resolution reads:

"We regard the so-called Negro problem in Mississippi, and the South generally, as an actual condition and not a mere theory for discussion, agitation and settlement by demagogues and politicians; that we realize the Negro is with us, a part of us, and is here to stay; that he is an important and indispensable factor in our industrial life, and as such is entitled to a square deal, and should be treated with common honesty in all his relations with the white race; that we urge all local posts in this jurisdiction to give this subject close attention and put forth their best efforts for the promotion of harmony between the races, in order that our common welfare may be served."

Commenting on the resolution editorially, the New Orleans, La., Item, one of the leading daily newspapers, says:

"Mississippi is one of the Southern states which has suffered most acutely from crimes of violence against colored people, at the hands of lawless and ignorant mobs, not only in reputation among their sister states, due economically in loss of population and labor. The law-abiding and justice loving citizens who are in a tremendous majority in every state, North and South, will rejoice to see the flower of their manhood taking a firm stand for justice and right.

"If there is such a thing as a superior race, its members must prove it by setting an example of law observance, toleration, comprehension, justice, kindness, and common honesty. Hatred, prejudice, violence and dishonesty are marks of inferiority. We hope the good people of Mississippi will support its Legionaires in the stand they have taken, and that other Southern states will observe and profit by the example."
