

THE SEATTLE STAR

E. F. WELLS & CO., PUBLISHERS. Every afternoon except Sunday. Telephone Pike 150.

No regiment ever reflected more credit upon its state than the First regiment has reflected upon the state of Washington. The people of Washington realize this, and when this regiment shall return the Star will guarantee that it will receive a glorious reception by an entirely appreciative people.

The spectacle of judges being compelled to contribute thousands of dollars to campaign funds is a nice thing to contemplate. Can anybody show how Croker is an improvement on Aguinaldo? The latter only demands his $200,000. Croker makes millions out of the "spoils."

Quay went up from the prisoner's bench in a Pennsylvania court to the Senate of the United States as though a bombshell had lifted him. It isn't often that men rise so rapidly in the world as Mr. Quay does without the aid of giant explosives.

GREAT MEN'S BIRTH

- Columbus, the discoverer of America, was the son of a weaver. The eminent French humorist, Francois Rabelais, was the son of an apothecary. Cervantes, the illustrious Spanish author, was born of an ancient but reduced family. He early entered military service and served as a common soldier.

Moving a City.

The Japanese officials in Formosa recently showed rare executive capacity. The city of Jukochan was in a sanitary condition. The typhoid epidemics frequently appeared. The situation prevented a good sewerage system.

When a Woman Faints.

First of all loosen every tight thing around the neck and abdomen—that is, unfasten the collar and undo the corsets. Allow all the fresh air possible, do not crowd round, and if in a crowded place, carry the patient into the open air or close to an open window.

DRESS SEIZED FOR A DEBT

A Troublesome Question is Raised in Portland.

PORTLAND, April 22.—Lillie Stone's $75 dress was attached by M. Kane on account of a dressmaker's bill for $18 alleged due for work performed on another garment, and there was quite a breezy time in consequence yesterday afternoon in Justice Kraemer's court.

History Revised.

"Grandpop," he began, turning the leaves of his book, "did your history used to say that the Spaniards settled this country?" "I believe it did, my boy."

BURGLARS ROB RAILWAY DEPOT

Safe Broken and Mail Pouch Cut Open.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 22.—The depot at Eureka Junction, on the W. & C. R. R., was broken into last night, and the express safe and mail pouch stolen.

Disraeli Snubbed Thackeray.

Mr. John Hollingshead sends us the following story concerning Disraeli and Thackeray: Mrs. Ritchie's admirable biographical notes of her amiable and immortal father hardly need any little addition from me, but the following fact may be of interest as it indicates Thackeray's candor and truthfulness.

AMERICAN ARRESTED

Held in Nicaragua Despite Protest.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 22.—The steamship Condor, from Bluefields, Nicaragua, arrived here last night minus one of her firemen, an American named Jack Martin, who was arrested by Torres on the alleged ground that he took part in the Reyes rebellion.

"ALL SORTS."

The empire of Japan comprises today about 4000 rocky islands. The Coryphoe: Yes; but he's rich enough to be her husband—Puck. Nearly 3,000,000 Congo walking sticks are imported into the United States every year.

PASTOR RESIGNED

Divorce Rends Parmley Baptist Church.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 22.—The resignation of John L. Sullivan as pastor of the Parmley Baptist church has been accepted by the congregation as a consequence of trouble caused by one of the members marrying a divorced woman.

AMUSEMENTS.

In view of the coming of the Bostonians to the Seattle theater May 3 to 4, the following from yesterday's Oregonian will be of interest: "Those wisecracks who have predicted that Portland will not respond to a great musical attraction, have been contradicted by the sale which precedes the engagement of the Bostonians at the Marquand Grand next week, and which was opened yesterday. All day long large parties were in evidence, and the gross amount taken for the first day was over $5000.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN SOCIETY

Clayton Crawford, will return to this city about May 1. Miss Anna Foster, a charming lady of Olympia, is visiting the Misses Bagley on Queen Anne hill. The Ladies' Musical club of Seattle is entertaining members of the Tacoma Musical club this afternoon in Elk's hall.

AMUSEMENTS.

Several parties have been given at the theaters during the week. Rev. H. H. Gowen was in Portland during the week, and while there gave a lecture on "Downing." The lecture was given at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Lewis, and the Portland Oregonian commenting on Mr. Gowen's lecture, said: "Seldom, if ever, has a lecturer appeared in Portland who unites such scholarly attainments with so happy a faculty for winning the enthusiastic attention of cultured audiences as Mr. Gowen. With a keen relish for humorous points and a limitless fund of laughable stories with which to barb an argument and drive it home, he yet enters profoundly and reverently into the philosophy of Browning, citing one poem after another to illustrate this in its various phases. Possessing a remarkable memory as well as unusual fluency of speech, Mr. Gowen held his listeners enthralled for two hours."

AMUSEMENTS.

Next Wednesday evening, at the Seattle theater, Ian MacLaren, better known, perhaps to many as the Rev. John Watson, D. D., will give a reading. To the reading public MacLaren is known as the author of "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," and other tales of the life of the Scotch people. His first American tour was made in 1896, and was a triumph trip through the United States. This time he comes with a more than doubled, and large audience have heard him in all of the large cities.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMBLER, Pa., April 22.—A firebug who operated here last night, failed to accomplish the destruction he intended. He first put a match to Dr. R. V. Mattison's stable, near the public school house, but the blaze was quickly extinguished. Then he started a fire with shavings, kerosene and lathes between two big piles of boards at J. W. Craft's lumber yard. This flared up brightly, but the fire company soon had it under control. It is said the guilty party is known.

AMUSEMENTS.

Set Nerself on Fire. CHESANING, Mich., April 22.—Mrs. M. B. Keith wrapped a shawl saturated with kerosene about her, went out into a field and set fire to it. She was soon discovered, but was burned so badly that she died a few hours later. Mrs. Keith had for years showed signs of insanity.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theaters in Seattle have been quite active during the week just ending. The engagements have all proved profitable, interesting and attractive on account of the fact that plays never before seen in the city have been given. At the Third Avenue theater, Mansfield's version of "Cyrano de Bergerac" received marks of appreciation. Mr. Scott, a rising young actor, gave a good interpretation of the title role, and his support was good.

AMUSEMENTS.

There are now only two admirals with their flags afloat—George Dwyer and Sir John O. Hopkins (British). doubled, and he is now believed to own one of the best contemporary histories of the Spanish war extant. Count Sergius Tolstol, the second son of Count Leo Tolstol, who has thrown in his lot with the Doukhobors, is now located in Winnipeg, where the most important of the settlements is situated. The count is looked upon as a kind of leader, and he has so far realized his role as to set his fellows an example of uncomplaining fortitude.

AMUSEMENTS.

"I am sorry," said the magazine editor, courteously, "but we are not accepting any short stories now." "But the scene of this story," said the confident contributor, "is laid in a place that nobody ever heard of, and is written in a language that no one can understand." "Then why didn't you say so before?" exclaimed the magazine editor, as he grasped it eagerly.—Life.

AMUSEMENTS.

Gutta percha is now at the highest price in its history, and the supply has arisen as to where the question of building a cable across the Pacific ocean from this country to our new possessions in the Philippine islands. So short is the supply of gutta percha that cable people say that if this cable laid it will be the last one that will be laid until a new insulating material is discovered that will take the place of gutta percha.—New York Times.

AMUSEMENTS.

More goats are raised for their hair in California than elsewhere in the entire Northwest. Catalogues, pamphlets, etc., at specially low prices. SAVE MONEY by giving them an opportunity to figure.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Third Avenue theater next week Manager Russell announces the engagement of John L. Sullivan and his company of specialty artists. The performance will be introduced by John L. and Jake Kilrain in a boxing match. The company has appeared before some of the best theatrical audiences in the large cities.

AMUSEMENTS.

The engagement of Mrs. Planka and her lions, as an extra attraction at the Third Avenue theater this week was a profitable move on the part of Manager Russell. Mrs. Planka is an interesting lady. She says that she expects to be killed in the cage, but the fascination is too great to give it up. Those who have witnessed the performance know Spiffire. She seems to be the most ferocious, but this same lioness saved Mrs. Planka's life not long ago. The big lion attacked her, and the other two lionesses, seeing her down, sprang to the attack. Spiffire saw her mistress' position and quickly sank her teeth in the shoulder of the lion. A fierce fight ensued between the animals, during which Mrs. Planka was dragged from the den. "When Spiffire dies, I will leave the den, for I would not consider myself safe alone with the others," said Mrs. Planka. "The reason Spiffire is taken out of the den and put in a different cage when the feeding time approaches, is because she always precipitates a fight. What might have been a serious affair, was narrowly prevented on the stage Thursday night by the keeper of the lions. Dick French, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. French, accidentally approached the den, and not thinking, leaned up against the bars. The keeper happened to look just in time, and was horrified to see little Dick in his precarious condition, and all the more frightened, and a lion stealthily approaching the boy. With a yell and a quick grab little Dick was pulled out of the way while the paw of the lion grabbed the cold iron of the bars. Little Dick has stayed in the front of the house since then.

AMUSEMENTS.

Next Wednesday evening, at the Seattle theater, Ian MacLaren, better known, perhaps to many as the Rev. John Watson, D. D., will give a reading. To the reading public MacLaren is known as the author of "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," and other tales of the life of the Scotch people. His first American tour was made in 1896, and was a triumph trip through the United States. This time he comes with a more than doubled, and large audience have heard him in all of the large cities.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMBLER, Pa., April 22.—A firebug who operated here last night, failed to accomplish the destruction he intended. He first put a match to Dr. R. V. Mattison's stable, near the public school house, but the blaze was quickly extinguished. Then he started a fire with shavings, kerosene and lathes between two big piles of boards at J. W. Craft's lumber yard. This flared up brightly, but the fire company soon had it under control. It is said the guilty party is known.

AMUSEMENTS.

Set Nerself on Fire. CHESANING, Mich., April 22.—Mrs. M. B. Keith wrapped a shawl saturated with kerosene about her, went out into a field and set fire to it. She was soon discovered, but was burned so badly that she died a few hours later. Mrs. Keith had for years showed signs of insanity.

AMUSEMENTS.

There are now only two admirals with their flags afloat—George Dwyer and Sir John O. Hopkins (British). doubled, and he is now believed to own one of the best contemporary histories of the Spanish war extant. Count Sergius Tolstol, the second son of Count Leo Tolstol, who has thrown in his lot with the Doukhobors, is now located in Winnipeg, where the most important of the settlements is situated. The count is looked upon as a kind of leader, and he has so far realized his role as to set his fellows an example of uncomplaining fortitude.

AMUSEMENTS.

"I am sorry," said the magazine editor, courteously, "but we are not accepting any short stories now." "But the scene of this story," said the confident contributor, "is laid in a place that nobody ever heard of, and is written in a language that no one can understand." "Then why didn't you say so before?" exclaimed the magazine editor, as he grasped it eagerly.—Life.

AMUSEMENTS.

Gutta percha is now at the highest price in its history, and the supply has arisen as to where the question of building a cable across the Pacific ocean from this country to our new possessions in the Philippine islands. So short is the supply of gutta percha that cable people say that if this cable laid it will be the last one that will be laid until a new insulating material is discovered that will take the place of gutta percha.—New York Times.

AMUSEMENTS.

More goats are raised for their hair in California than elsewhere in the entire Northwest. Catalogues, pamphlets, etc., at specially low prices. SAVE MONEY by giving them an opportunity to figure.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Third Avenue theater next week Manager Russell announces the engagement of John L. Sullivan and his company of specialty artists. The performance will be introduced by John L. and Jake Kilrain in a boxing match. The company has appeared before some of the best theatrical audiences in the large cities.

AMUSEMENTS.

The engagement of Mrs. Planka and her lions, as an extra attraction at the Third Avenue theater this week was a profitable move on the part of Manager Russell. Mrs. Planka is an interesting lady. She says that she expects to be killed in the cage, but the fascination is too great to give it up. Those who have witnessed the performance know Spiffire. She seems to be the most ferocious, but this same lioness saved Mrs. Planka's life not long ago. The big lion attacked her, and the other two lionesses, seeing her down, sprang to the attack. Spiffire saw her mistress' position and quickly sank her teeth in the shoulder of the lion. A fierce fight ensued between the animals, during which Mrs. Planka was dragged from the den. "When Spiffire dies, I will leave the den, for I would not consider myself safe alone with the others," said Mrs. Planka. "The reason Spiffire is taken out of the den and put in a different cage when the feeding time approaches, is because she always precipitates a fight. What might have been a serious affair, was narrowly prevented on the stage Thursday night by the keeper of the lions. Dick French, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. French, accidentally approached the den, and not thinking, leaned up against the bars. The keeper happened to look just in time, and was horrified to see little Dick in his precarious condition, and all the more frightened, and a lion stealthily approaching the boy. With a yell and a quick grab little Dick was pulled out of the way while the paw of the lion grabbed the cold iron of the bars. Little Dick has stayed in the front of the house since then.

AMUSEMENTS.

Next Wednesday evening, at the Seattle theater, Ian MacLaren, better known, perhaps to many as the Rev. John Watson, D. D., will give a reading. To the reading public MacLaren is known as the author of "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," and other tales of the life of the Scotch people. His first American tour was made in 1896, and was a triumph trip through the United States. This time he comes with a more than doubled, and large audience have heard him in all of the large cities.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMBLER, Pa., April 22.—A firebug who operated here last night, failed to accomplish the destruction he intended. He first put a match to Dr. R. V. Mattison's stable, near the public school house, but the blaze was quickly extinguished. Then he started a fire with shavings, kerosene and lathes between two big piles of boards at J. W. Craft's lumber yard. This flared up brightly, but the fire company soon had it under control. It is said the guilty party is known.

AMUSEMENTS.

Set Nerself on Fire. CHESANING, Mich., April 22.—Mrs. M. B. Keith wrapped a shawl saturated with kerosene about her, went out into a field and set fire to it. She was soon discovered, but was burned so badly that she died a few hours later. Mrs. Keith had for years showed signs of insanity.

AMUSEMENTS.

There are now only two admirals with their flags afloat—George Dwyer and Sir John O. Hopkins (British). doubled, and he is now believed to own one of the best contemporary histories of the Spanish war extant. Count Sergius Tolstol, the second son of Count Leo Tolstol, who has thrown in his lot with the Doukhobors, is now located in Winnipeg, where the most important of the settlements is situated. The count is looked upon as a kind of leader, and he has so far realized his role as to set his fellows an example of uncomplaining fortitude.

AMUSEMENTS.

"I am sorry," said the magazine editor, courteously, "but we are not accepting any short stories now." "But the scene of this story," said the confident contributor, "is laid in a place that nobody ever heard of, and is written in a language that no one can understand." "Then why didn't you say so before?" exclaimed the magazine editor, as he grasped it eagerly.—Life.

AMUSEMENTS.

Gutta percha is now at the highest price in its history, and the supply has arisen as to where the question of building a cable across the Pacific ocean from this country to our new possessions in the Philippine islands. So short is the supply of gutta percha that cable people say that if this cable laid it will be the last one that will be laid until a new insulating material is discovered that will take the place of gutta percha.—New York Times.

AMUSEMENTS.

More goats are raised for their hair in California than elsewhere in the entire Northwest. Catalogues, pamphlets, etc., at specially low prices. SAVE MONEY by giving them an opportunity to figure.

J. F. ADAMS Wholesale and Retail Cash Grocer. No. 512 Second Avenue, between Taylor and James.

Public and Parochial School Pupils Helped To Make Advanced Grades. Wilson's Modern Business College. A Good, Big, Reliable School. We Ask no Greater Favor of Prospective Patrons Than That They Visit Our School. Day and Evening Sessions. Collins Block, Third Floor, 416

Sparkman & McLean REAL ESTATE. Phone Red 1791, 605 Bailey Bldg. We offer a neat, six-room home, substantially built, in good neighborhood, lot 2018, small lot, close to downtown, balance in payments to suit.

The Ramaker Music Company Has Removed to 1415 Second Ave. Between Pike and Union.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. Real estate transfers filed yesterday were: Lake View Cemetery association to Mrs. L. B. Foy, $2,000, lot 92, Lake View cemetery. Henry A. Brosten to Carrie M. Shears, $10, lot 4 blk 89, Salmon Bay park add.

FIREBUG AT WORK AGAIN. Attempted to Burn Building at Ambler, Pa. AMBLER, Pa., April 22.—A firebug who operated here last night, failed to accomplish the destruction he intended. He first put a match to Dr. R. V. Mattison's stable, near the public school house, but the blaze was quickly extinguished.

Set Nerself on Fire. CHESANING, Mich., April 22.—Mrs. M. B. Keith wrapped a shawl saturated with kerosene about her, went out into a field and set fire to it. She was soon discovered, but was burned so badly that she died a few hours later. Mrs. Keith had for years showed signs of insanity.

A Dollar's Worth For Every Dollar You Leave Here. It follows that good clothes can only be found at a good store. We never handle trash. We boast that the $15 BUSINESS SUIT we sell gives you $15 worth of wear. At this price you can get a choice of CHEVOT, WORSTED, CASSIMERE, SERGE, Etc. Double or single-breasted. All garments fitted to your person free of charge. J. REDELSHEIMER & CO. 800-802 First Ave., Cor. Columbia.