FIRE AT COLFAX AT THE THEATERS

THIRD BLAZE IN THREE MONTHS VISITS THE CITY AND DESTROYS SEVERAL BUILDINGS

(Special to The Star)
COLFAX, Wash., Feb. 27.—The business section of this city was visited by the third fire in three months at midnight last night. D. Hopper's drug store, a building owned by Julius Lippitt, a Japanese restaurant, Burns' photograph studio, a building owned by Phil Wilman, were all burned. The loss will be $10,000; insurance $6,000. The fire started in the drug store from an unknown cause. The buildings burned joined the site of the old bowling alley which was burned in December, and directly opposite the scene of the $5,000 fire of last month. All burned buildings will be replaced with brick blocks.
MADE WILL IN SHOW
The high school attended this morning what is conceded by all to be the best assembly held this year. Hickman Price, who so successfully managed the minstrel show, gave out his financial report, showing a net profit of $510, which is twice the amount ever made by any school organization in a single performance. This money is to be equally divided between the athletic association and "Whitman," the school publication. Dr. Fletcher Whalen, pastor of the First Methodist church, delivered an address on

"Character," which occasioned almost continuous applause. He illustrated his talk by saying: "If you are not always very careful, your character will become associated with that of the city council." Miss Marguerite Longacre sang several pleasing soprano solos which called for numerous encores.

Last night the Keane company put on "Parsifal" at the Seattle. It is too bad that the Keane company should have attempted it, for while Keane, in the title role, and Charles Deason in the character of Kundry, handled their work acceptably, and, at times, with unexpected capability, no stock company, much less the Keane stock company, could have furnished the support that is necessary to make a success of an aesthetic piece like Wagner's wonder play. Unless the work of the minor characters and of the ensemble is meritorious the interest of such a play cannot be sustained through to the end, and last night "Parsifal" dragged. Its dragging, too, was rather accentuated than leavened by the orchestrations and the chorus was something to be regretted.

The scenic fittings and the costumes deserve some credit, for both were appropriate and, indeed, saved "Parsifal" from being a complete fiasco.
NEW BILL AT THE STAR.
At the Star theater this afternoon the new bill of players is going into effect. The house is packed, as it has been at every performance since it opened a week ago. The headliner of the new bill is Frank Hall and his untamable lion, with the Bunts Brothers, head-to-head balancers, as a featured act. The performances at the Star are continuous from 2:30 to 4:30 and from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock every day.
"THE SIEGE OF FORT FRAYNE."
The boys of Company A, Signal Corps, N. G. W., are working hard to make a success of their "Siege of Fort Frayne" next Friday and Saturday evenings at the Grand. They are rehearsing daily and expect to give the public a dramatic treat, as well as to harvest a neat crop of shekels from their treasury. They expect to make a special hit in the scene of the Indian attack.

"LOVER'S LANE."
"Lover's Lane," which opened at the Third Avenue yesterday afternoon, is always a popular little play, and the cleverness of Louise Brandt, who plays "Miss Simplicity" with an efficient support, makes it a thoroughly acceptable entertainment. The scenery of the production is effective, and one of the best merits of the play is the naturalness of the cast throughout; particularly is this noticeable in the school room scene in the second act. Edgar Baum, in the role of the minister, is clever and makes a good opposite for Louise Brandt, who, by the way, is not Louise Brandt at all, but Mrs. A. Lincoln Hart, having married the manager of the company a few days ago in Portland. The company will play "Lover's Lane" all this week, and next week will put on "Que Vadis."

PROMOTED

Guy Sweeney has left for St. Paul to take up the position of assistant general freight agent for the Great Northern railroad company at that city. Mr. Sweeney has been chief clerk in the office of J. C. Eden, assistant general traffic manager of the Great Northern. Eden was out of the city this morning when a Star reporter called. There has been no announcement as yet who will fill Mr. Sweeney's place.

CAPE TOWN, Feb. 27.—The British steamer Dee, which encountered a heavy storm in rounding Possession island, has been wrecked on the coast. It is believed that all on board are lost.

UPHELD THE TEXAS LAW

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The supreme court today upheld the anti-trust law of Texas, affirming the judgment of the state court enjoining the National Cotton Oil and Southern Cotton Oil companies from doing any further business in the state for having violated the anti-combination statute. Justice McKenna read the decision holding the statute proper and within the legitimate powers of the legislature.

NECK WAS BROKEN

AGED BALLARD MAN FELL TO HIS DEATH IN HIS HOME

(Special to The Star)
BALLARD, Feb. 27.—Haddens Sterling, aged 71, was found dead in his home at 227 East Mohr street, this morning with his neck broken. Sterling had been subject to dizzy spells for some time past and it is thought that he was attacked by another spell last night and got up to go downstairs and call for aid. There is no railing around the stairs and it is believed that he stumbled and fell headlong down the stairs to the lower floor. Death is supposed to have been instant. Sterling's remains were taken to William Mayfield's undertaking parlors. Mayfield is deputy coroner under Dr. Carroll and the body is in his charge. Sterling had no family living here. He leaves a son aged 21, in Oregon.

JURY BEGINS WORK

(By Scripps News Ass'n)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 27.—The grand jury investigating the Baker-Baker and other legislative bribery charges began this morning. Judge Alfred gave special instructions to the jury on the subject of bribery and promised to punish any one attempting to tamper with the jury.

FIELD IS INCREASED

The appointment of E. R. Ingersoll to the position of North Pacific coast freight agent of the Big Four and W. T. Kelly freight agent for the same road at Portland, has recently been confirmed. At a conference meeting held the first of the year between C. Tillinghast, assistant general freight agent at Chicago; Walter Nichols, assistant general freight agent at St. Louis, Mo.; and G. H. Ingalls, general freight agent at Cincinnati, O., the plan of appointing Mr. Kelly and Mr. Ingersoll to these positions on the Big Four roads was put on foot. Mr. Ingersoll is the North Pacific coast agent for the New York Central lines with headquarters at Seattle.

MAY COACH UNIVERSITY

O. F. CUTTS, candidate for coach of the varsity football team, is a born football player, and probably one of the best known in the country. He first came into prominence at Bates college, in Lewiston, Me., where he played for three years. When CUTTS entered Bates, football in that institution was in its infancy. He was one of the first to go onto the field and during the three years he was a tower of strength in every game. He is powerfully built, has always taken good care of himself and has never met a man who could worst him in a scrimmage. On graduating from Bates, in 1896, he went to Haverford, Pa., where he taught mathematics, and here he first showed his wonderful ability as a coach. The team was most successful during his years with it. In 1900, CUTTS went to Harvard, but could not play football until he had been there one year. He was readily accepted on the team in 1901, and played all through the season at right tackle. During his first year with the team Harvard won from Pennsylvania by 33 to 0; from Yale by 22 to 0, and he was selected by Walter Camp as tackle on the all-American football team. While in the Harvard law school, in 1902, he coached the Bates college team to victory and went to Purdue university, at LaFayette, Ind., in 1903 as coach. He was coach of the team which was in the awful wreck of October 31, when 17 students were killed and in which he lost some of his best players. Last season he consented to remain at Purdue as athletic director and took a green team into the field. So successful was he with them that Purdue won the championship of Indiana for the first time in ten years. During this season his team defeated the Indiana university by a score of 27 to 0, and Notre Dame by a score of 36 to 0.

DID NOT GET IT

(By Scripps News Ass'n)
NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The jury in the divorce suit of Mrs. Brady against Daniel Brady, a wealthy railway supply manufacturer, in which Gertrude Mackenzie, a comic opera actress, is co-respondent, has disagreed. Mrs. Brady was granddaughter of the late Isaac Singer, the inventor of the Singer sewing machine.

★ OLYMPIA, Feb. 27.—The Kennedy railroad commission bill, a replica of the emasculated bill of the sub-committee of the joint railroad committee, introduced some time ago, will be killed in the senate this afternoon. The Kennedy bill, if passed, would rob the commission of all power and was drawn up and introduced on the demand of Ben Grosscup, attorney for the Northern Pacific.

William Curtiss was arrested by City Detective Eason this morning on a charge of having been the man who nearly scared a little girl into hysterics on Fourth avenue and Spring street yesterday. He is a butcher. He has caused the police considerable trouble. Curtiss had considerable money upon being searched at the station this morning. The little girl's story is being investigated by the police.

BRYAN, O., Feb. 27.—For an alleged crime of arson, committed at Montpelier, O., 24 years ago, George Letcher, a former banker at Fayette, O., was placed on trial here today. Letcher was a resident of San Jose, Cal., from which place he was deported last December by some Ohio officers after fruitless extradition proceedings. He is being defended by George Buchard, a San Francisco attorney.

G. H. Rowan, traveling freight agent for the Burlington, was taken to the Seattle General hospital this morning. Mr. Rowan is seriously ill with pneumonia and it is thought it will be some weeks before he will be again at his work.

MRS. COWEN DENIES IT

LANDERKIN'S MOTHER-IN-LAW SAYS SHE NEVER ATTEMPTED TO INDUCE ELLEN BASKETT TO ELOPE

Mrs. Alice Cowen, of 1321 1/2 Third avenue, mother-in-law of Milton Landerkin, the tug engineer who is alleged to have hypnotized 15-year-old Ellen Baskett into eloping with him, said today that she had nothing to do with the elopement; that she never tried to persuade the girl to run away with Landerkin, and that she never was on the street with the girl or ever attempted to induce her to drink beer with her in a saloon.

Mrs. Cowen says that since Landerkin and her daughter were divorced, she has had nothing to do with the Baskett's. "Ellen came to my house one day," said Mrs. Cowen, "after all this trouble happened and I told her she could not come to my house any more. I did not want to be mixed up in the scandal, and I certainly never tried to coax the girl to elope with Landerkin. Landerkin has come to my house at intervals, but purely on business matters."

TO FIND LOST MAN

(Special to The Star)
VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 27.—D. G. S. Kestrel was dispatched last night by Captain Gaudin, agent of the marines, to the northern coast to search for T. W. Harvey, the light keeper at Langer's Island, who has been missing since February 18. His wife is now at Inverness and news was telegraphed to Captain Gaudin by Robert Spears, of Aberdeen. Another keeper is temporarily in charge. The Kestrel will search the adjacent islands for some trace of Harvey.
F. O. Miller, general passenger agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, and E. F. Keeley, general freight agent for the same company, will arrive in Seattle tomorrow in their private car from Portland. As the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road is about to move its offices, and as there has been no satisfactory place picked out yet, it is thought these two officials will do the picking.
