There Was But One Napoleon

Another Bonaparte has scored a failure. The downfall of one Bonaparte or a dozen is of small moment except as it emphasizes how few men possess the combination of genius, daring, courage and ability that makes fame that lasts for the ages.

There have been many Bonapartes since the Little Corporal folded his hands and died a prisoner. There have been thousands of men who have been proud of the fact that they even resembled the man for whom thousands gladly laid down their lives and who lashed Europe until the crack of the whip was heard around the world. But NOT ONE who could hope to fill his shoes.

The ear made Prince Louis Bonaparte governor of the Caucasus and got him a CHANCE.

Prince Louis has the face of Napoleon III, with all the strength left out.

In a country peopled with savage Tartars and revengeful Armenians, where FORCE is the law and bloodshed the custom, he was as out of place as would be a tiger at a pink tea.

And so another Bonaparte has scored a failure and it is stated that he is to give up his high position.

In France there are still thousands who cling to titles, to the ways of the old regime, and who hope and believe that there will yet be a man who can force the nation to its knees and that an emperor will again take up the scepter.

They are wrong.

THERE WAS BUT ONE NAPOLEON.

"Do you see any prosperity in eggs at 40 cents a dozen?"
"That's just what makes me think Shaw is right. If eggs were 20 cents a dozen I'd be buying them. They're 40 cents and I don't buy 'em. There's where I save 40 cents."

N. O. Sportstall remarked that football was demoralizing to humanity at the Washington-Oregon game.

"Of course, it's a good thing to have friends, but I have seen times when it didn't require pull for a man to get to the front," remarked the old man.

"In business or in politics?"

"Neither. I was thinking of some of my experiences in the army."

AND ADVERTISED.

"You claim to have done a great deal, but tell me what you ever did for literature?"

"I invented a new breakfast food."

Some German intends to ascend Mt. Everest, that he may play "Die Wacht am Rhein" on his piccolo, 29,002 feet above the sea level. If a man is determined to play a piccolo, there's the place.

The "Soft-Stop" Device on the Emerson Piano

AN IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT IN PIANO CONSTRUCTION IS THE EMERSON PATENT SOFT STOP, A FEATURE OF THE EMERSON THAT SHOULD NOT BE OVERLOOKED.

BY MEANS OF THE SOFT STOP THE VOLUME OF TONE CAN BE REDUCED TO A DREAMY SOFTNESS, THIS MATERIALLY ADDING TO THE RANGE OF EXPRESSION.

THE RESISTANCE OF THE ACTION (TOUCH) IS IN NO WAY AFFECTED BY THE USE OF THE SOFT STOP.

ANOTHER FEATURE OF THE EMERSON IS THE EXTRA HEAVY FRAME. AS THE FRAME OF A PIANO IS THE FOUNDATION FOR THE SOUNDING - BOARD, THE NECESSITY OF ABSOLUTE RIGIDITY CAN BE APPRECIATED. THIS ACCOUNTS IN A GREAT MEASURE FOR THE WONDERFUL LASTING POWER OF THE EMERSON.

EASY PAYMENTS.

YESTERDAY WAS A RECORD BREAKER in C. D. Hillman's Meadow Gardens. In ten days all of our cleared and grubbed land will be gone forever. No wonder, they sell for $250 for a tract over 400 feet long. Why, it would cost more than that alone to clear it. Over $400 worth of potatoes raised on one acre of this land. Some have fruit trees. On sidewalks and city water.

We have also uncultivated land at $50 per acre. Come out and hear 100 farmers busy. We also want about twenty more carpenters and ten more salesmen. Take new Renton car to Duwamish bridge—only a few minutes ride. Come today. Everybody says it is the best offered in Seattle. Just like a big lawn.

BANKRUPT SALE

BY ORDER OF U. S. COURT

In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Washington, Northern Division, In Bankruptcy.

In the matter of H. Kessler, Bankrupt, No. 3126.

Bill of Sale to D. J. Rickles.

Know all men by these presents, that I, Manly B. Haynes, as the trustee in bankruptcy of H. Kessler, party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of Thirty-five hundred and sixty-five dollars and five cents, lawful money of the United States, to me in hand paid, do by these presents bargain, sell and convey to D. J. Rickles, of Seattle, Washington, the party of the second part, all and singular the following assets of H. Kessler, the above bankrupt, to wit:

The entire stock of merchandise of the above named bankrupt, consisting of the stock in trade, at No. 1217 First Avenue, Seattle, King County, Washington, together with all and singular the fixtures and equipment belonging to said bankrupt in said store room, excluding, however, property claimed as exempt by the bankrupt.

To have and to hold the said property and each thereof unto the party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever.

This conveyance is made pursuant to an order only made and entered herein by the referee directing and confirming said sale, which said order is dated this day and is on file and of record in the above entitled cause.

In witness whereof, the party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal this 21st day of November, 1905.

(Signed) MANLY B. HAYNES, Trustee in Bankruptcy of H. Kessler.

State of Washington, County of King, ss.—

This is to certify that on this 21st day of November, A. D. 1905, personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, Manly B. Haynes, who is personally known to be the same person described in and who executed the foregoing instrument as trustee in bankruptcy of H. Kessler, bankrupt, and acknowledged to me that he executed the same freely and voluntarily as such trustee for the uses and purposes therein mentioned.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal the day and year in this certificate first above written.

(Signed) WALTER A. M'CLURE, Notary Public in and for the State of Washington, residing at Seattle.

Approved as to form.
(Signed) JOHN P. HOYT, Referee.

THE lines to left of this space tell the story of the trials and tribulations of The Old Rainier Clothing Company. Since the readers of this paper last heard of this old established concern it has gone through bankruptcy proceedings and has been sold, as will be seen in the Court's order, to J. D. Rickles for a trifling consideration of $3,565.05. This stock at the above figures is such a bargain that I can afford and will sell everything it contains at prices that will set all Seattle agog.

Everything will be sold for less than other dealers can buy the same from the factory, as the price I paid for this stock was so little that I can sell as above mentioned and then realize a fair profit.

It's an opportunity to buy

Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Furnishings, Etc.

At a price, the saving of which means dollars in your pocket. All contract goods—such as Monarch Shirts, Boston Garters, Harlow Shoes, Lion brand Hats and Arrow brand Collars will be sold at less than it cost the factories to turn them out.

Sale Starts Saturday at 9 o'clock

STAR DUST

In answer to the question, How cold would it be if it was twice as cold as 2 degrees above zero? will say: As 2 degrees above zero is 30 degrees of freezing, consequently twice that cold would be 60 degrees below zero, which would be 60 degrees below freezing point.—J. D. I. D., 422 30th Av., Seattle, Wash.

BOYS AND GIRLS

COME TOMORROW and all next week and see the live turkeys fed on corn in our windows.

It's great fun; every turkey has a name—even the old grandfather turkey with the big red necktie. There's Eat-Em-Alive, and Bill Turkey, and Gobbler, and Mr. Wise Turkey, and Young Massa Turkey who struts around with one eye cocked, and lots of others.

Don't forget, the Big Stove and Chandler house is the place—at the corner of First and Spring streets.

HANKS,

I will be delighted to meet the Boys and Girls!
