

GREETINGS FOR MISS ROOSEVELT

DIMES ARE COMING IN IN LARGE NUMBERS FOR THE TELEGRAM THE STAR READERS ARE GOING TO SEND TO THE BRIDE OF NICHOLAS LONGWORTH.

HERE'S THE SCHEME.

A message is to be sent to Miss Roosevelt on the day of her wedding, reading as follows: "We, whose names are subscribed hereto, send you, through The Seattle Daily Star, the best wishes of the State of Washington. May your marriage vows bring to you a season of happiness that will last throughout your life time."

The dimes are rolling in.

Seemingly everybody wants to get aboard the big band wagon.

Within an hour after The Star was upon the street yesterday afternoon the first dime arrived, and since that time they have been coming without interruption.

Nearly all of the employees of The Star marched in with their dimes last night and this morning, and when that message goes to Washington it will probably include the names of just about every man and woman in The Star office.

And that's the way it ought to be. For fear you didn't see The Star last night we want to tell you again just what we're going to do.

We're going to send this telegram to Miss Roosevelt on the morning of Saturday, February 17, her wedding day.

"We, whose names are subscribed hereto, send you, through The Seattle Daily Star, the best wishes of the state of Washington. May your marriage vows bring to you a season of happiness that will last throughout your lifetime."

To this telegram will be attached the signatures of hundreds and perhaps thousands of The Star readers. It will cost a fraction of a cent over 10 cents to transmit each one of these signatures to Washington by telegraph. Every Star reader who wants to add his or her name to this message of good will is asked to send to the "Roosevelt Editor, The Star, Seattle, Wash." his or her name, plainly written in ink, and 10 cents.

On Saturday, February 17, the day of the Roosevelt-Longworth wedding, and on the morning of which day the message is to be sent, the message with its complete list of signers will be published in The Star.

It's going to be the biggest message of the kind that ever went from the Pacific coast to the National Capital and it's going to carry Miss Roosevelt the greetings of more people than will any other single message received.

WHERE WILL THE CONVENTION GO?

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The general board of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, which met last evening, took a ballot on the question of the convention city for 1907, but will probably not make its choice public before tomorrow.

FIFTY THOUSAND FOR THIS CORNER

MRS. CLARKE PAYS THAT SUM FOR PIECE OF PROPERTY AT CORNER OF FIFTH AVENUE AND SPRING ST.

For a consideration of $50,000, the northwest corner of Fifth av. and Spring st. was sold today to Mrs. Clarke, already heavily interested in Seattle realty.

The buy is simply made as an investment, and the new owner will hold the property as at present. It is now improved with a number of flats bringing in a good income. The sale includes a transfer of title to the entire double corner, 120 feet on Spring and a similar frontage on Fifth av.

The big sale of tide lands to Union Pacific, or Harriman interests, involving a purchase price of $2,750,000, the biggest land deal ever consummated in this city, was exclusively reported in The Star yesterday.

AMERICAN IS PRAISED
BERLIN, Feb. 7.—Papers publish this evening a declaration that Hon. Henry White, the American representative at the Algiers conference, has done more to smooth over the difficulties between Germany and France than any other member of the conference. They declare that America deserves the gratitude of every nation desiring peace.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 7.—Senator Patterson hurled defiance at his Democratic colleagues in the senate today and charged them with attempted coercion and intimidation. He declared that he had been characterized as the "White House Democrat boiler, who sold his vote for patronage."

MAN HIT BY FAST TRAIN
SANDUSKY, O., Feb. 5.—Charles Ash this morning saw the 18-hour Pennsylvania line Chicago-New York train a mile away and started across the track. His remains hit the ground in pieces, and a companion barely escaped. The train did not stop.

IT WAS REALLY HER MOST STRENUOUS DAY

MISS ROOSEVELT SAYS THAT HER SHOPPING TRIP TO NEW YORK WAS THE MOST EXCITING EXPERIENCE OF HER LIFE—AN ARMY OF CAMERA MEN PURSUED HER AND SHE ESTIMATES THAT HER PICTURE WAS TAKEN 645 TIMES—A REGULAR WHIRL.

Staff Special to The Star.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 7.—Miss Alice Roosevelt is telling her friends that her romantic pre-nuptial shopping trip to New York was about the most exciting and strenuous experience of her life.

The whirl of social attention paid to her among the most fashionable members of the 400, dinners, luncheons, opera and theater parties, interspersed with dress-fitting and shopping and introductions to new friends, were as nothing compared to the wild chasing through the streets pursued by a frenzied mob of camera fiends.

Miss Roosevelt estimates that while in New York her picture was taken no less than 645 times. From the moment she arrived at Jersey City from Philadelphia, until she started for Washington, a hungry mob of photographers were at her heels. At no time did she escape them, and without an exception she entered into the spirit of the chase and called it "good fun."

WANT BIG PRICE FOR CORNER LOT

OWNERS OF PROPERTY AT FOURTH AND YESLER NAME A PRICE THEREON OF HALF A MILLION DOLLARS.

One-half a million dollars cash is the price asked for the Grand Union hotel property, located on the southeast corner of Fourth av. S. and Yesler way, consisting of a double corner and four-story brick building.

H. McGinley and J. Cannon own the property, which has been improved only a year past with the hotel building, erected at a cost of nearly $60,000.

It is not expected that the sale will be consummated at the price named, for among experienced realty dealers it is not believed that the corner with the improvements added are worth more than $150,000 in the open market, as the same property on the Washington st. side of the block, without improvements, is credited with being worth between $80,000 and $90,000 only.

LEM SHORT ASKS FOR A NEW TRIAL

FATHER HAS MORTGAGED HIS FARM TO FIGHT FOR HIS SON'S FREEDOM TO THE BITTER END.

Lem Short, who was last night found guilty of grand larceny and who is suspected of being one of the Great Northern holdups, has asked for a new trial, on the ground that he was not given an impartial trial; that the jury was improperly prejudged, and that the judge's decisions were in error.

Short's father, a farmer of Van Asselt, is supplying the funds to fight for his son's liberty, having mortgaged his ranch for $5,000 for that purpose. The family was somewhat surprised when the jury last night returned a verdict of guilty, but will continue the struggle to have the young man set free.

GRIMSLEY GETS OUT

L. H. GRAY TAKES FIELD IN SEVENTH WARD IN HIS PLACE.

Nelson Grimsley has withdrawn from the fight for nomination as councilman from the Seventh ward. Yesterday he looked up the law and found that he was not eligible—not having been an elector in the city for a sufficient length of time—and he left the race open for L. H. Gray, of the L. H. Gray Steamship company.

DESIRES A NEW LAW

Fire Marshal Kellogg Forced to Secure Enactment in Order to Compel Owners of Public Halls to Fasten Chairs to Floors.

Fire Marshal Kellogg contemplates radical measures to enforce his ruling that all chairs shall be fastened to the floors of public halls or gathering places when receptions or meetings of a public or private nature are being held.

His recent attempt to enforce this rule, which Corporation Council Scott Calhoun declared was not authorized under the existing statutes, led to the proprietors of many public halls declaring they would fight it to the highest court in the land if necessary.

power to carry the ruling into effect and will present it to the city council within the near future.

Deathtraps.
"This is a measure that ought to be enforced," he said in explanation, "and the average person does not realize just what a deathtrap these chairs would make in times of panic or fire. The proprietors of these halls do not want to fasten the chairs to the floors because it would ruin them for dancing purposes. This is the sole objection they urge against it. However, were a fire to ensue in a public hall with the chairs loose and any lives were lost I could be held accountable for their deaths and personally I believe I would be in part guilty of the holocaust."

Prof. Frederick Christensen, proprietor of two halls, one in the Arcade building and another at Broadway and Madison, has taken exceptions to Mr. Kellogg's ruling and under the advice of the corporation council there appears no way of enforcing the ruling order unless this new law specifically covering the subject, is passed.

The father of Alpo DeMars, a child of 9 years, reports he has left home. The child has a weak mind and did not run away, but probably strayed from home. Any information will be gladly received by the child's parents, residing at 521 Dexter av.
