

MRS. JOHN H. M'GRAW PASSES AWAY

Life of Ex-Governor of Washington and Prominent Seattle Society Woman, Club Member and Charity Worker, Passes Away at Providence Hospital.

After an illness of several days Mrs. John H. McGraw, wife of ex-gov. John H. McGraw, died this morning at Providence hospital.

JAILED IN MONTANA

Word has been received by Sheriff Smith that J. B. Hancock, formerly of Seattle, has been arrested in Havre, Mont., and is being held subject to extradition proceedings.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF GOOD TEMPLARS

The thirty-eighth session of the Grand lodge of the state of Washington of the Independent Order of Good Templars, concluded its work this noon.

BURGLAR ROUTED BY YOUNG SOCIETY GIRL

Miss Orletta Pettygrove, Daughter of F. W. Pettigrove, Finds Burglar in Residence on Sixteenth Avenue, But Puts Him to Flight.

A burglar who yesterday tried to rob the residence of F. W. Pettygrove, 900 16th av., a wealthy resident of Renton Hill, was discovered and put to flight by Miss Orletta Pettygrove, a well known society girl of the young set, and the daughter of Mr. Pettygrove.

HUNDREDS ARE KILLED

(By United Press.) WARSAW, July 18.—Anti-Jewish demonstration in Skinitz on the Austrian frontier has resulted in the death of scores of Jews and many are injured.

TAKING OF EVIDENCE IN HAYWOOD TRIAL ENDED

State Rested Wednesday and Defense Has Now Rested—Attorneys Arguing Over Instructions to the Jury—Wood May Rule Out All of Evidence of Colorado Troubles.

ROASTS DEBS

(Star Special Service.) EVERETT, July 18.—Because Grant Hamilton, national organizer of American Federation of Labor, in addressing an open meeting of union men last night denounced Debs and other socialists and termed the Industrial Workers of the World "Industrial Wreckers of the World," declaring the organization endorsed socialism and anarchy and adding that recently at Goldfield "the hills were covered with armed men holding for revolution," a number of the audience denounced him as "Traitor" and "Scab" and left the hall.

BIG WAR IS PREDICTED

(By United Press.) DETROIT, Mich., July 18.—A world-wide war will probably start in July, 1908. This is imminent, according to the astrological indications as interpreted by Prof. Lyman Stowe, who predicted the Spanish-American war.

EXAMINING BOOKS OF POLICE DEPT.

The experts employed by the city who have recently completed their investigations into the shortage of John Riplinger, defaulting city comptroller, commenced their examination of the books in the police department this morning.

GOMPERS IS CALLED INTO TELEGRAPHERS STRIKE

(By United Press.) CHICAGO, July 18.—That the telegraphers' strike is nearing a crisis in this city is evidenced by the summoning today of President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor and other members of that organization to Chicago for a conference. Gompers was summoned by Small, who is said to be on his way here.

ELKS' BIG PARADE

(By United Press.) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 18.—Ten thousand Elks participated today in the annual march down Broad street. Grand Esquire John F. Sullivan gave the signal to start and the line was led by 24 mounted policemen and 12 of Cincinnati's "quien sabe" club. El Paso represented a Mexican bull fight in the procession.

CLOUDBURST KILLS MANY

(By United Press.) PITTSBURG, Pa., July 18.—At least nine are dead and much property damaged as a result of Wednesday's cloudburst in eastern Ohio and West Virginia. Many railroads were washed out.

CAMPS ARE UNSANITARY

Sanitary Inspectors Frasch and Lampman have been spending the past several days among the camps along the Lake Washington shore, between Leachi and Madison park, toward Lake Union. They report finding many cases of unsanitary camps. The board of health 10 days ago distributed printed warnings to all the campers to clean up and make things sanitary.

AUTOS COLLIDE—2 WILL DIE

(By United Press.) SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 18.—Sheriff Campbell is expected to arrive late this afternoon or this evening to take Frederick Magill and his bride back to Clinton, Ill., to stand trial on the charge of murdering the former wife, Margaret Magill, Frederick Magill's daughter, is now domiciled at the home of Magill's local counsel. The accused say they are more anxious than ever to meet their accusers.

WOODMEN'S RECEPTION

The head camp officers of the Woodmen of the World, now in the city for the ninth annual head camp session, were tendered a reception last night by Home Camp, No. 286. The convention will be opened Wednesday morning at the Grand Opera house when the public is invited to attend. Sen. Samuel H. Piles will make the address of welcome.

MUST STERILIZE BOTTLES

Board of Health Issues Orders Which May Put Small Milk Dealers Out of Business—Will Insure Consumers Against Germs From Dirty Bottles.

Orders have been issued from the board of health that no milk bottles shall be used by dairymen a second time without sterilizing. The order has created consternation among the small dairymen or those who drive wagons whose milk and bottles are bought wholesale from the large dairymen.

CITY TO PURCHASE WATER WORKS

The council fire and water committee last night voted to buy the water system at Columbia City from the Columbia Heights syndicate for $850. The syndicate wanted $1,200.

SWELTERING NEW YORK

(By United Press.) NEW YORK, July 18.—Eight persons have died from heat in this city up to 1 o'clock this afternoon. The hospitals are crowded. The thermometer was 98 at noon and still climbing. Tenement families are camping at Coney Island and also sleeping in the parks.

MRS. STANCHFIELD IS DEAD

Mrs. Charles E. Stanchfield, mother-in-law of John E. Clancy, died this morning at the family residence, 2209 Yesler way, aged 60. The remains are at Bonney-Watson's. No funeral arrangements have been made.

STRIKE OF JEWELERS

Thirty employes in the factory of Joseph Mayer & Bros., jewelers, walked out Wednesday afternoon and all attempts to adjust matters today failed. The union asked for a half holiday on Saturdays, double time on holidays and pay for overtime. The firm granted two of the requests but refused to accede to the demand for pay for overtime.

WALK MILE IN SEWER

Superintendent Case of the street department, and his chief foreman, Thomas, this morning performed the unusual feat of walking a mile through a sewer, wading in high boots through the flow in the dark tube from Rainier boulevard to the tideflats. This is the first time, so far as is known, that anyone but workmen have entered the

ELOPERS RETURN HAPPILY WED

Carl Currier and Alice Sapp, After Eluding Detective Kennedy, Climbed Into Depot Yards, Went to Portland, Wedded, and Returned for Parental Blessing.

Laughing gleefully at the way in which they had eluded parents and officers who endeavored to prevent their marriage, Carl Currier and Alice Sapp, now Mrs. Carl Currier, returned to Seattle this morning from Portland, where they were married yesterday evening.

FIND BLANK DEED ON BISWANGER

A blank deed was found hidden in the lining of the coat worn by George Biswanger, arrested yesterday on the charge of forging deeds to property, and is regarded as valuable evidence by the prosecuting attorney's office. It bore the notarial stamp of Charles B. Allen, "District of Alaska," and is believed to be one of those which Allen is claimed to have used. The authorities say they have an accomplice of Biswanger's located in California.

At the depot a party of strange women were made acquainted with the romantic story and they took the girl in charge, allowing her to pass as one of their party.

"UNWRITTEN LAW" IS PARDON BASIS

(By United Press.) JACKSON, Miss., July 18.—Gov. Vardaman this afternoon pardoned Dr. Birdson, the slayer of Dr. Butler. Vardaman declared that he based his action on the "unwritten law," which he says should prevail in this state.

TO PLACE SWITZER UNDER BOND

The authorities have practically arranged to ask that H. C. Switzer of 24th av., who was arrested on Tuesday by Detectives T. Ryan and McClurg, charged with brutal conduct toward his family, be placed under heavy bonds to keep the peace.

CITY CAN PAY TO GET RIPLINGER

The city council in special session this afternoon heard the opinion of Corporation Counsel Scott Calhoun on the proposed offer of a $5,000 reward for the capture of ex-City Comptroller John Riplinger. Under the legal opinion the city can make a contract with some detective agency to pay $5,000 for the return of Riplinger to Seattle. An ordinance appropriating money will be introduced into the council. City officials have a half dozen reports of Riplinger's whereabouts, running from Honduras to Iowa.

B. GERBER'S STORE OPENS TOMORROW.

The new ladies' wear store to be run by B. Gerber, at 1206 Second av., will be opened tomorrow.

GAMBLERS PAY CAMPAIGN EXPENSES OF COUNCILMEN

While the public service corporations, with the aid of the city council, were looting the city of franchises in 1900-1902 the city was suffering from a reign of terror and lawlessness the like of which has seldom been witnessed even in a frontier metropolis. This lawlessness had as the principal cause for its existence the big profits enjoyed by the proprietors of the gambling houses. But those profits were encroached upon by the unrestrained operations of bold thieves, big mitt men, card sharps, bunco artists, burglars and hold-up men, many of whom were operating with police protection. During that reign of lawlessness a voluntary organization of leading citizens known as the Civic League undertook to secure the enforcement of the laws as a means of protecting life and property. In this installment of his narrative Mr. Smith relates the history of that movement, telling how it developed the fact that criminals were operating with police protection, and how it found the council too cowardly to assume the responsibility of ordering or ever asking the enforcement of the law.

(Continued on page 3.)