

ELKS HAVE A LIVELY DAY

The Seattle members of the Ben- evolent and Protective Order of Elks and a host of visiting Elks from all parts of the United States held their second annual picnic at Wildwood park yesterday. The day was spent in games and athletic sports. Races with peculiar handicaps and games with unique disadvantages to the Seattle Elks were presented to the amusement of all present.

A ball game between the Mavericks, who are members of the Elks lodge, and the Seattle lodge No. 2 was the chief feature of the day. The Seattle players were unable to get any farther than first base on the visiting Mavericks were so energetic that when a Seattle Elk did reach first he was immediately hustled away and put into custody. The score, according to the reports of the visitors, was 28 to 0 in favor of the Mavericks.
