

JIM BRITT'S LONG VACATION WAS PART OF A SHREWD PLAN

BRITT'S CONFIDENT PHIZ.

Strength is greater than ever. believe I am better than ever. "And now, the last few days before the battle, I am able to stand almost anything. I can fight round after round without tiring. I can run mile after mile without fatigue. I sleep soundly and eat heartily, yet I am within a few pounds of weight. I am clever and fast as ever, and Gags will find me a formidable opponent on Admission day.

mine and to regain my laurels as champion of the world. After a pause he continued: "I took a long rest, coming into the country here for months at a stretch. After a year and a half I decided I was right. Then I secured my match with Nelson and set in to put on the finishing touches by hard training. The public did not think I would win, and the Dane was the favorite. I upset all calculations by beating Nelson without sustaining serious damage.

THE MARKETS

Washington ranch eggs jumped this morning to 35 cents per dozen while the Oregon ranch eggs advanced to 23 cents per dozen. Prices of fruit and vegetables are firmer this morning than they have been for some time. The market was brisk and steady with a slight increase in some of the prices. This is the season for preserving peaches and many are sold for that purpose. Prices are lower than they have been. Hay and feedstuffs have increased in value during the past few days and are quoted a few dollars higher per ton.
