

DR. IVAN A. PARRY IS TO BE HEALTH OFFICER

Well-Known Physician Will be Named to Succeed Dr. Grant Calhoun—Has Been in Seattle Seven Years—Mayor Holds the Appointment of Dr. Bouras to Be Valid.

DR. IVAN A. PARRY, Who Will be Chosen Health Officer of Seattle.

Dr. Parry attended the Illinois university after taking an academic course at the University of Minnesota. While attending the latter college the doctor was prominent in athletic sports and was a member of the Minnesota football team.

Mayor Moore is satisfied that his appointment of Dr. F. S. Bouras to be a member of the board of health is valid, despite the statement of a sensational newspaper to the contrary.

The mayor ruled an almost identical case when Dr. Calhoun's appointment as health officer came up to him. He held them and holds now that wherever the framers of the charter meant to have special qualifications in appointees, it said so, and that in the case of the board of health all the special qualifications demanded were set out in the section covering the creation of the board.

FENDER HEARING TOMORROW

Several newly invented fenders will be presented for the consideration of the board of public works at the fender hearing to be held tomorrow. It is not likely, however, that the large fender manufacturer of the country will be represented as sufficient notice has not been given them.

The morning session will be given up to testimony to establish the inadequacy of the fender now in use in Seattle. As Labor Commissioner Hubbard, who is to conduct the investigation, is not in the city today, no information could be secured as to who will be subpoenaed as witnesses tomorrow.

RAILROAD POLITICS REPULSED

Railroad politics met with repulse at the election of officers held at the Rainier club Saturday night. Sam Hill, of the Harriman faction in Seattle, being defeated by the presidency by George H. Walker, retiring vice president, to whom the presidency was coming according to the custom of the club.

campaign by a sensational newspaper, but the membership of the club rallied to support Walker and his traditions, and elected him by a margin of 29 votes. Hill, the defeated candidate, is a son-in-law of James J. Hill, but trains with the Harriman interests in Seattle and was backed by those interests for the presidency of the club.

COREY'S HONEYMOON SPOILED BY MABELLE'S FATHER AND SISTERS

What makes it real pleasant for the Corey is the fact that there is no more or less reference to the advertising and press campaign of the sketch by the Gilman estate. They don't seem to appreciate the compliment, though. In fact from New York as W. E. Corey Gilman is persona non grata at the Corey mansion. He found that the English butler tried to freeze him and then hurried at him.

Corey's lawyers asked Gilman whether there would be a reference to the magazine or his wife in the sketch, but Gilman's answer was noncommittal. PRAIRIE FIRE IS RAGING. (By United Press.) ST. PAUL, Oct. 14.—A special to the Pioneer Press from Great Falls, Mont., says that a great prairie fire is sweeping the ranges in the eastern part of the state, and that 80 square miles of choice grazing ground in the vicinity of Culbertson has already been burned over.

Corey's lawyers asked Gilman whether there would be a reference to the magazine or his wife in the sketch, but Gilman's answer was noncommittal. PRAIRIE FIRE IS RAGING. (By United Press.) ST. PAUL, Oct. 14.—A special to the Pioneer Press from Great Falls, Mont., says that a great prairie fire is sweeping the ranges in the eastern part of the state, and that 80 square miles of choice grazing ground in the vicinity of Culbertson has already been burned over.

LINCOLN HIGH AND NIGHT SCHOOLS BEGIN WORK

DR. IVAN A. PARRY, Who Will be Chosen Health Officer of Seattle.

The session for 1907 of the Seattle night school opens this evening, to continue for two terms of 70 nights. Sessions will be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings during this period. Nine elementary or grade schools and one high school will be operated. The high school sessions will be held in the Washington high school building, on Broadway, and the grade schools will meet in the Central, Longfellow, Franklin, Warren Avenue, B. F. Day, Green Lake, Ballard Central, Columbia City and South Seattle school buildings.

CLAIM IMHOFF IS NOT A THIEF

Friends and relatives of Henry Imhoff, the young expressman who was sentenced to 63 days in jail because he refused to divulge the location of a trunk belonging to Rev. Peter Orloff, claim that the boy is not a thief and insist that they can prove that all of the goods found in the barn at Dean and Rainier boulevard were honestly acquired.

really broken into by a policeman several months ago, in searching for clues as to the residence of several people last year was 1,300 of which 300 were high school students. The new Lincoln high school was opened for the first time this morning. The building is now entirely finished, with the exception of a portion of the gymnasium. About 1,900 students and 40 teachers reported this morning.

APPOINTMENT HAS DISAPPEARED

The official appointment made by Mayor Moore of Charles R. Case to be superintendent of streets and sewers is missing. For several months it has been in the street committee pigeon hole awaiting action of that committee.

has made a determined effort to force the city council to action. He has asked that the appointment be either confirmed or rejected without further delay. The disappearance of the official appointment has complicated matters, and it is expected a crisis will be reached at the meeting of the city council tonight.

Chairman Mullen of the street committee, and Committee Clerk Shradler with deny any knowledge of the whereabouts of the document and someone will be asked to account for its disappearance.

ARRESTED AS HE LEFT STEAMER

Charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, J. L. Peppard, a young man who arrived in the city this morning on the steamship Governor, was arrested as the steamer docked today, by Detectives Adams and Corbett. The particulars of the charge are not known. Peppard was picked up on receipt of a telegram from the chief of police of the California metropolis.

SCHWAB LOSES ONE MILLION

and 4,900,000 bushels into the pit to stem the upward tide, but failed. On today's prices the bears lose almost 10 cents a bushel. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The market opened weak and lower, and for a while it looked as if the liquidities of last week was to continue, but directly after the opening good buying orders were in evidence from both insiders and foreign investors, and the shorts, becoming nervous, covered freely and the market rapidly advanced to above Saturday's close. The Harman stocks showed especial strength, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific each gaining two points. The close was irregular.

and 4,900,000 bushels into the pit to stem the upward tide, but failed. On today's prices the bears lose almost 10 cents a bushel. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The market opened weak and lower, and for a while it looked as if the liquidities of last week was to continue, but directly after the opening good buying orders were in evidence from both insiders and foreign investors, and the shorts, becoming nervous, covered freely and the market rapidly advanced to above Saturday's close. The Harman stocks showed especial strength, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific each gaining two points. The close was irregular.

SCHWAB EN ROUTE WEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Charles Schwab, head of the Union Iron Works, has left New York for San Francisco to put things in perfect shape for the reception of the big fleet of warships due here next March. While the yards of the government here are ample for the usual demands made upon them, they will not go far when it comes to caring for the monsters of Admiral Evans' fleet.

FOWLER CHARGES GRAFT

Before a large number of Socialists, at the Labor Temple last night, A. E. Fowler, former secretary of the Japanese-Korean exclusion league, and who was sent to St. Louis on the charge of being mentally unbalanced, talked for half an hour of his experiences in the "crazy house," but declined to explain how he escaped from that institution. Fowler makes some serious charges against the management of the asylum, and maintains that there is grafting being done in the manner of supplying food to the unfortunate there. He declares the meals furnished cost not over 12 cents each, while the state pays 54 cents per meal. Fowler was formerly a cook, and claims that he is in a position to know what each meal costs the management of the asylum.

Before a large number of Socialists, at the Labor Temple last night, A. E. Fowler, former secretary of the Japanese-Korean exclusion league, and who was sent to St. Louis on the charge of being mentally unbalanced, talked for half an hour of his experiences in the "crazy house," but declined to explain how he escaped from that institution. Fowler makes some serious charges against the management of the asylum, and maintains that there is grafting being done in the manner of supplying food to the unfortunate there. He declares the meals furnished cost not over 12 cents each, while the state pays 54 cents per meal. Fowler was formerly a cook, and claims that he is in a position to know what each meal costs the management of the asylum.

MARIPOSA IS IN PORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The steamer Mariposa crept into the bay late yesterday afternoon in tow of the tugs Dauntless and Relief. It had taken her 17 days to make the trip usually traversed in 11. Twice the boiler tubes blew out, leaving the vessel rolling helplessly and then when the passengers were packing in expectation of seeing the Heads loom up in only a few hours, the fuel gave out, and once more the Mariposa lay helplessly.

SINGER LEAVES HOME TO GO ON THE STAGE

That Herbert Williams, well known in local social and musical circles as the possessor of a tenor voice of rare quality, has left his wife and home to go on the stage, is the news, given to several friends who have interested themselves in the strange disappearance of the man. The story is that Williams confided to one of his intimate friends, previous to last Tuesday, the last date on which he was seen, that his intention was to go to New York and enter the theatrical field of light opera.

three days on business. He left the city without a word to his wife, who lives at 806 E. Olive st., or his mother, Mrs. Mary Williams, of Ravenna park, and they have not heard from him since. It is known that Williams wrote a letter to a friend in this city, mailed from Portland on last Saturday, but he gave no explanation of his absence from Seattle. "I haven't the slightest idea where my husband has gone," said Mrs. Williams today. "He has a splendid voice and may have decided to go on the stage, but I have received absolutely no word from him since last Tuesday. I am as much at sea to explain his absence, as anyone."

WOMAN IS SENTENCED

Mayo Miles was sentenced to serve from 1 to 20 years in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla by Judge Morris this morning. The woman, who is a negro, was found guilty several weeks ago of the crime of manslaughter in the killing of Della Davis, also colored, on July 2.

SIMPKINS SEEN IN SPOKANE

(By United Press.) SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 14.—Jack Simpkins, implicated by Orchard in the Steunenberg murder, who has been hunted all over the country yesterday by a man intimately acquainted with him. Simpkins has shaved off his mustache and has fled up until he would scarcely be known. He said that he had not been out of the country but that he spent most of his time between the coast, Spokane, in Coeur d'Alene and Denver. He declared that the Pinkertons were not anxious to capture him in spite of the reports. "The detective I have known of his whereabouts, but made no attempt to arrest him," he declared. He asserted that Orchard's confession is an absolute lie. Simpkins will leave here for the coast.

SOI CULLY, DIS IS DE LIMIT SURE!

(Star Special Service.) OLYMPIA, Oct. 14.—Washington's anti-trust law prohibiting the sale of cubana. Such was the decision of the attorney general unofficially. The opinion is based on policy, the attorney general being of the opinion that if the bars were let down to permit the sale of cubana it might afford a loop hole for violation of the act.

SMALL FORCED OUT OF OFFICE

President of Telegraphers Deposed by the Executive Committee—Call for Special Convention Issued to Investigate Charges—New Director of Strike.

WANDERERS BEATEN.

The Seattle soccer team yesterday won handsily from the Wanderers, the game at Woodland park resulting in a score of 6 to 0. An injury to Crosswait seemed to take the fire out of the Wanderers, and they could not stand the rushes of their opponents.

DID NOT GO NORTH

It is now practically certain that Charles Burlison and Frank Covington, alleged murderers of Mrs. Agnes Covington, did not go to Alaska on the steamship Santa Clara. The theory which the police believed most promising was exploded last night when the Santa Clara returned to port and an inquiry among the officers failed to establish that either of the two fugitives went north on the boat when she sailed for Catalina on September 19. There were no passengers booked under the names of Kirk, Moran or De Sello, the aliases under which the two suspects are charged with the murder of the Catalina Improvement company.

ARGUMENT ENDS IN STABBING

An argument which nearly had a fatal ending terminated Saturday night when Fred Meyers and H. Pflieke, two Germans, landed in jail. Pflieke with a steel wrench in the side, which Dr. Buckley does not regard as dangerous. The assailant is charged with assault with a deadly weapon and Pflieke is held as a witness.

FATALLY BURNED

COLEFAX, Wash., Oct. 14.—Walker E. Shore, foreman of the Spokane & Inland trolley construction crew, was fatally burned by an electric wire at Blackwell station at noon yesterday. Shore and his men were engaged in stringing a trolley for the Blackwell switch and the loose cable came in contact with the charged main line trolley and Shore, who was working on the trolley tower handling the cable, got the full force of the 6,600 volts which the trolley carried.

ARMY MAN SUICIDES

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 14.—Firing a bullet into his brain, Second Lieut. James N. Sutton, U. S. M. C., son of James N. Sutton, of Portland, Ore., ended his life here yesterday. The reason assigned for the deed was that he was dissatisfied with his position. With other officers Sutton was returning from a dance. Sutton pulled a gun and threatened to kill himself, but was quickly disarmed. Almost instantly he threw another revolver from his blouse and sent a bullet into his brain.

SUFFOCATED IN FIRE

GLOVESVILLE, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Six members of the family of Solomon Spence, a glove cutter, father and five daughters, were suffocated by smoke when their home was destroyed by fire. The father lost his life in endeavoring to save his children. The discovery of the flames by the mother, who with two smaller sons, made her escape.

OLD MAN FALLS INTO THE BAY

Ever Johnson, aged 73, fell into the bay from the Seattle boulevard near South Seattle this morning and would have drowned had he not been rescued by parties who heard the splash and hastened to the old man's assistance. He was taken to the police station by Patrolman Vliok.

RALPH COOK'S WIFE IS DEAD

Mrs. Helen Cook, aged 35, wife of Ralph Cook, ex-convict of the Seattle fire department, died yesterday at the family residence, 1609 Fourth av. No arrangements have been made for the funeral. Mrs. Cook was born in London, Eng., October 21, 1872. She came to Seattle in 1891, and is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Nead, of this city, a brother, Thomas Nead, a sister, Mrs. R. Hayes, two daughters, Mary and Allen, and her husband.

GIVES HIMSELF TO THE POLICE

Henry Hawkins, a young man 29 years of age, walked into the office of Sergeant of Detectives Tennant last night and announced that he was a fugitive from justice wanted in Rockford, Ill. The police, believing that the man was insane, put him under arrest. This morning a wire to Rockford brought the reply that the Rockford man would be sent for.

SMALL SUSPENDED FROM OFFICE

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America today in charge of the strike of the telegraphers in the United States. Closely following the order of President Small asking that all unions vote to end the strike on account of lack of funds, the executive committee immediately went in session and suspended the president from office. From all sections of the country are coming telegrams from unions voting unanimously to "stick." There are plenty of funds available to continue the strike.

ARGUMENT ENDS IN STABBING

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—The executive committee of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America is today in charge of the strike of the telegraphers in the United States. Closely following the order of President Small asking that all unions vote to end the strike on account of lack of funds, the executive committee immediately went in session and suspended the president from office. From all sections of the country are coming telegrams from unions voting unanimously to "stick." There are plenty of funds available to continue the strike.

STAY OUT FOREVER—SPOKANE

SPOKANE, Oct. 14.—Denouncing ex-President Small's action in suggesting the calling off of the telegraphers' strike in the bitterest terms, the Spokane striking operators met today and voted unanimously to stay out "forever," or until their demands were granted.

STAHLL GOES TO YANKEES

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Announcement is made today that Jake Stahl will be a member of the New York American league team next year as the result of a three-cornered trade. The old collegian, formerly manager of the Washington team, comes to New York from the Chicago Americans, and Frank Laporte goes to the Boston Americans, while the Chicago Americans get Fred Parent.

CATTLE FOR SEATTLE KILLED IN WRECK

PENDLETON, Ore., Oct. 14.—Failure on the part of the brakes to work at a critical moment in a heavy pull up a grade near Helix late yesterday afternoon resulted in a wreck on the Northern Pacific in which the engineer and fireman were injured and $5,000 worth of cattle injured and destroyed. Eighty head were killed and 100 are still roaming the country at large. The cattle were consigned to the Frye-Bruhn company of Seattle.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

Seattle Star Exclusive Service. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Chas. Henry Gilman, father of Mrs. W. E. Corey, before she married the name to town. His mission is to get an engagement (theatrical) for the other two daughters, Pearl and Eloise, who are now playing in Nashville on the Pacific slope. What makes it real pleasant for the Corey is the fact that there is no more or less reference to the advertising and press campaign of the sketch by the Gilman estate. They don't seem to appreciate the compliment, though. In fact from New York as W. E. Corey Gilman is persona non grata at the Corey mansion. He found that the English butler tried to freeze him and then hurried at him.