

FRISCO BRINGS OUT HOARDED GOLD

(By United Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—It was prophesied by a leading local banker last night that San Francisco will emerge from the present financial flurry with flying colors. The banker before New York agents said that normal business conditions are made probable by the fact that the gold which has been hoarded in the city is being taken out of the vaults and is being placed in the hands of investors who have been seeking investments that will give them interest on their gold. He said that the gold which has been hoarded in the city is being taken out of the vaults and is being placed in the hands of investors who have been seeking investments that will give them interest on their gold.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 13.—Despite the recent temporary suspension of the Merchants' National bank, the financial situation in Portland is very steady, and depositors have accepted the situation with a sanity and calmness that is greatly to their credit. Earlier in the week the city was nervous and uncertain, but the mutual desire of all depositors to protect each other stifled any attempt to run, and yesterday the deposits in many of the banks far exceeded the withdrawals. The resumption of wheat purchases by the Portland mills, and the resulting incoming flow of gold has also done much towards relieving anxiety of the people.

ROOSEVELT DEFENDS COIN ACTION

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—"In the United States coinage act of 1906, the president has written a long letter in which he explains his reasons for the coinage act. He says in part: 'My feeling in the matter is due to a very firm conviction that to put a metal in circulation does positive harm. It has the effect of an irrelevance which is dangerously close to a sacrifice. The sentence in question should be treated and uttered only with fine reverence implying certain exaltation of spirit. It looks well inscribed on the great national monuments, temples of justice and legislative halls and buildings. It is unwise to cheapen the motto by its use on our coins. I never heard anybody speak reverently of the motto on coins. Hundreds of times I have heard it used as an occasion of sneering ridicule. I will order it put on our new coins if congress so orders.'

THINKS SUPERINTENDENT SHOULD BE ARRESTED

(By Daily Star.)
Dear Sir—It seems to the writer that instead of arresting the motorman, Sackley, of the Queen Anne street car which killed Frank E. Bogota, a preceding Youngstown car on Saturday night, for alleged negligence, that it would be better to arrest the superintendent of the street railway system, who allows street cars to go out in a city like Seattle, with its many sharp corners, and with its rolling stock without being equipped with red oil lamps placed at the rear of all cars so that in the event of the trolley being off the power not available there will be some light showing the location of blind cars.

A trolley had slipped off one of the cars on its way down town at the corner just out of sight of the cars just behind it, and one of the new large open cars coming down the hill at a very rapid pace was just within an ace of crashing into the blind car ahead of it had it not been for the fact that the motorman succeeded in getting his trolley on and lighted up the car in time. Were it not for that an accident identical with this one would have occurred at that corner.

FATE OF MILLIONAIRE REVEALS BABE AS BENEFICIARY

(By United Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—No tragedy has so stirred the Gothals in months as the mysterious death of Walter Farnsworth Baker, the wealthy Bostonian, apparently from poison, at the home of his friends, Frank and Mrs. Hurd, at Bogota, N. J.

Baker the night of his death died at a chop house. At 11:30 Harry Lee called at the Nottingham hotel for Frank Hurd, his wife and Mrs. Geo. W. Young, Mrs. Hurd's sister, wife of the vice-president of the Windsor Trust Co. Lee told them Baker was ill. The party went to the chop house, where Baker is an automobile to Hurd's residence at Bogota, where the young man expired.

DEBATE ON LABOR UNION QUESTION

In a spirited debate on the labor union problem at the University of Washington last night, the Stevens Debating club won its argument with the Badger Debating club, and scored a victory for the union labor side of the debate. The question was: "Resolved, That the Labor Union Movement of the Last Twenty Years Has Been Beneficial to the Nation." The Stevens club trio argued on the affirmative.

The winning debaters were Latimer, Radis and Angevine. The Badger club was represented by Gillette, Allen and Johnston.

DIVORCE IS GRANTED.

A divorce in the case of Robert G. against Wino B. Hetherington, tried in Judge Morris' court about a month ago, was granted this morning. The complaint in the case stated that the husband was obliged to marry his wife as the result of a conspiracy, and that the couple had never lived together.

On account of strange facts alleged in the case, Judge Morris made a personal investigation before granting the decree.

DIES IN HIS ROOM.

C. Ross, aged 54, for two years an invalid, died in his room in the Sterling hotel this morning. Coroner Carroll will investigate the cause of the death, which is believed to be the result of the prolonged illness.

It is all very well for a street railway company to try to shift the responsibility and blame for their own gross carelessness onto their unfortunate employees. It seems to me that the above suggestion would do away with a great many accidents.

HOLZHEIMER GETS WRIT

Attorney W. A. Holzheimer this morning obtained a writ of mandamus in Judge Morris' court, directing Justice R. K. George to either issue a complaint against Police Captain Irving Ward and Detective Charles Tennant on charges of assault and battery, or to show cause in the superior court on November 15 why such a complaint should not be issued. The mandamus proceedings are the result of the refusal of Justices George and Carroll to issue warrants against the police officers upon requests made by Mr. Holzheimer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—No tragedy has so stirred the Gothals in months as the mysterious death of Walter Farnsworth Baker, the wealthy Bostonian, apparently from poison, at the home of his friends, Frank and Mrs. Hurd, at Bogota, N. J.

Baker the night of his death died at a chop house. At 11:30 Harry Lee called at the Nottingham hotel for Frank Hurd, his wife and Mrs. Geo. W. The party went to the chop house, where Baker is an automobile to Hurd's residence at Bogota, where the young man expired.

News of the death was kept quiet and within an hour the body was embalmed. It was buried after a physician had given the cause as the cause of death.

When Baker was poisoned, who Natalie Hurd, said to be the 4-year-old daughter of Frank and Mrs. Hurd, is what the police and Pinkertons are asking.

COAL MINERS CLAIM THEY ARE MISREPRESENTED

The articles that have been circulated in the press since the beginning of the strike in the mines of the Wilkeson Coal & Coke company are not only unjust to the miners themselves, but are also completely untrue," said John McLean, president of district No. 10, of the United Mine Workers of America, who is now in the city.

COAST LUMBERMEN'S COMPLAINT FILED

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—A conspiracy between the Hill and Harriman lines to shut out competition, boost rates for transportation of lumber from Oregon and other North Pacific coast states to the east, is charged in a complaint by practically all of the big lumber manufacturers of those states, which was filed today with the Interstate commerce commission. All the Hill and Harriman roads in Oregon are now putting into effect increased rates at from five to ten cents per hundred.

"This will greatly injure and to some extent destroy the lumber industry of Oregon, an industry yielding products worth $20,000,000 at the mills and which is paying the roads $12,000,000 in freight yearly," says the complaint.

JILTED WOMAN SUES FOR $20,000

A complaint was filed by Stella Duley in the superior court this morning against Edward P. Frederick, known as Edward Frederick, in which the plaintiff asks for damages of $20,000.

The complaint states that Frederick is manager at Seattle for Broderick & Hascom Rope company and that she has been engaged to marry him since 1901. She alleges that last July she was surprised to find that he had married Josephine Lusik in Chicago in November, 1906.

WILL CONTEST UP TO JURY

The Melody Choir will contest was given to the jury this morning, after a careful charge by Judge Albertson, in which he went fully into the testimonial rights of both sane and insane persons. On account of the large amount of documentary evidence in the case, which the jury will probably carefully examine, it will probably be late this evening before a verdict is brought in.

NO CASE AGAINST OSTEOPATH

Judge Morris in the superior court this afternoon dismissed the case against E. E. Pierce, the local osteopath, who was accused of issuing a certificate of death without proper authority. Judge Morris took the case out of the jury's hands, stating that no evidence had been introduced of a nature to justify further consideration of the case.

STOCK MARKET IN NEW YORK

(By United Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Excessive offerings at the opening caused a weak and lower range in prices, the losses averaging over a point from the previous close. Numerous orders from investment sources and profit taking for short accounts caused a quick upward rebound. This bidding continuing, the market regained all of the opening loss. After the midday hour the market became an extremely narrow affair, and prices drifted off fractionally and the close was inactive.
