

SEATTLE-MADE GOODS ARE ON THE MARKET

"Made in Seattle" day comes but once a year with most of the merchants of Seattle. And then, apparently, it is but a name. At least, the grocers of Seattle are not observing the spirit of the "Made in Seattle" propaganda as demonstrated by a Seattle man who has undertaken to patronize Seattle manufacturers as far as possible in his purchases. Recently this man wanted to purchase some graham crackers. He knew that the Superior graham cracker is manufactured in Seattle, but he had an abundance of the. He called for them in a grocery store. The grocer had them graham crackers manufactured by the cracker trust, and these he tried to sell to his customer. In all, the Seattle man visited nine stores and had the same experience nine times. Seattle crackers apparently have no show against trust goods.

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—Carl Meisel, widely known as a violin soloist and one of the original members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, died here, aged 80 years.

Leopold Vilsack.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 27.—Leopold Vilsack, millionaire banker and brewer, dropped dead of heart failure at his home yesterday.

MEN, POCKET THESE SAVINGS!

500 Fine Tailored Suits, Worth Regularly $25, $22.50, $20 and $18 on Sale Tomorrow at Only

$12.50

Here's an opportunity half a thousand Seattle men should and will avail themselves of, and quickly, too. It's an unusual price concession, but thoroughly in keeping with THE BON MARCHE'S aggressive way of doing things. Briefly, we find ourselves on the eve of stock-taking, with more men's suits than we wish to carry at this time of year; so to reduce the quantity we've combined in one lot half a thousand suits that sold earlier in the season for $25, $20 and $18, embracing the finest woolens woven by the mills of the old and new world; every suit is tailored by hand in the most faultless manner. The fabrics include plain and fancy worsteds, unfinished worsteds, soft and luxuriant vicunas and London's fad-of-the-moment chalk stripe worsted chevots, all made of pure Australian wool. We do not hesitate to pronounce this the finest collection of suits ever

Boys' Suits and Coats Half Price

Your free and unrestricted choice of any Boy's Suit or Overcoat in the store at $6.50 and over at half price during the period of inventory preparation. We are frank to say that at the prices mentioned the Boys' Clothing stock is top heavy. In selecting this season's stock we aimed too high, and missed. Now we must pay for our folly; so take any Boys' Suit or Overcoat we have, and at half price. New clean, reliably made clothing, fashioned from the finest foreign and domestic woolens, in black, blue, and all the nobbiest checks, stripes and mixtures; all sizes, all styles, all colors, for boys 9 to 16 years; all at exactly half our own regular retail prices—prices always the lowest in Seattle by 20 to 25 per cent. Parents should grasp this very unusual opportunity to clothe the boys at Half Price. The Bon Marche—Main Floor.

Radical Reductions Are Now in Effect on All Coats, Suits and Furs

STOCK-ARRANGING sales of Women's and Misses' Suits, Women's and Misses' Furs and House Garments are now in progress. The savings are so keen that widespread interest is assured. Frederick & Nelson's stock of Furs, Suits, Coats and House Garments are notable for their distinctiveness, quality and value. When reductions typical of this store are made, therefore, the opportunities for buying are extraordinarily good. In fact, so unsparing have we been in an effort to make the prices strongly in your favor that the reductions in many cases closely approach the sensational. Inroads have been made upon the stocks, and it would therefore be well for you to call as soon as possible, as by so doing you are assured of a wider range of choice.

NOTE—Owing to the lowness of the special prices and the crowded condition of the alteration room, it will be necessary to make an alteration charge of $2.00 for each Coat and Suit requiring alteration during the Stock-Arranging Sale.

Third Day of After-Holiday Sale China and Glassware

In the China and Glassware Section our customary After-Holiday Clearance Sale of odds and ends in broken lines is effective. The savings to be made are of much importance. A few general hints follow—
