

PRINCE OF WALES REVIEWS TROOPS

Most Magnificent Scene Ever
Witnessed in Canada—
25,000 Are in the Grand
Pageant.

(By United Press.)
QUEBEC, July 24.—The most magnificent scene ever witnessed in Canada was presented today on the Plains of Abraham, when the Prince of Wales reviewed 15,000 Canadian troops and 10,000 sailors in the grand military pageant.

Practically the entire population of Quebec was present, and in addition there were thousands of visitors and tourists from all parts of the world.

The scene was enlivened and made gay by the appearance of hundreds of persons attired in the historic dress of the time of the early days of Quebec.

There were countless frilled and ruffled dandies, with all the finery of the gayest court. There were swiftness for clad troopers of the early days, many cowled priests with heavy rosaries and sandals of feet, and all through the crowd were brightly painted Indians in brilliant blankets and resplendent with war bonnets. With the soldiery and the crowds and the merry-makers the picture was unparalleled.

When the prince emerged from his quarters at the Citadel this morning he found the streets practically deserted, nearly everyone having left the city early in the morning for the Plains.

Accompanied by Lord Roberts, Earl Grey, Vice President Fairbanks and many other notables, the royal party proceeded to the scene of the celebration, where they were greeted with prolonged cheers.

Unique Feature.
One of the unique features of the military pageant was the participation of representatives of all the different tribes of Canadian Indians. It was hard to realize that this little band of braves represented the remaining strength of the mighty horde which once held the balance of power on this same battlefield.

The Canadian soldiers were most popular of all those taking part in the parade, and were given a continual ovation.

After the review the prince dedicated the Quebec battlefield, and then returned to the Citadel to prepare for the grand official ball, which will be held tonight in the parliament house.

The American visitors are being royally entertained, and have been shown every courtesy, with the result that they have enjoyed every minute of the ter-centenary celebration.

CLOSE ON TRAIL OF SUSPECTS

(By United Press.)
MARYSVILLE, Cal., July 24.—Officers returning from a camp near here today announced that they had found new traces of both Peter Claudians and Felix Padeuvaris, who are wanted in San Francisco in connection with the Gallagher dynamite case. The detectives working on the case are convinced that both fugitives are still within five miles of this city and they are tracing half a dozen clues, in hope of apprehending them.

At the camp where the officers spent most of the night, they say they learned positively that Peter Claudians had been there recently and received assurance that Padeuvaris has joined him.

They say that the fugitives were informed of the state of affairs in San Francisco and of the confession of John Claudians by friends, who hurriedly sent word to the camp as soon as the information became public. According to the story at the camp, the men immediately struck out to join the Greeks in more secluded places in this and the Oreville regions. There are a number of these camps in which the Greeks spend the summer months.

DEMOCRATS ARE GATHERING IN CHICAGO

(By United Press.)
CHICAGO, July 24.—Chairman Thomas Taggart of the democratic national committee, who arrived here this morning, announced that the democratic headquarters would probably be located here.

Taggart said that he thought that the recent Standard Oil decision would not affect the campaign. He said: "The decision shows one thing plainly, the 'big stick' is a stuffed club. It may be pushed in the air above the head of a big offender, but the hand holding it will never allow it to fall."

Taggart is here to attend the meeting of the sub-committee of the national committee, which is to meet tomorrow to select a chairman for the national committee.

John H. Atwood, of Leavenworth, Kan., is said to be in the lead for this sub-committee, besides Taggart, are Hall, of Nebraska, Mack, of New York, Osborne, of Wyoming, Green, of Rhode Island, Ryan, of Wisconsin, Daniels, of North Carolina, Wade, of Iowa, Tomlinson, of Alabama, Cole, of California, and Brady, of Oklahoma.

Bryan Off for Chicago.

License Fight is Invoked.
The fight to obtain a referendum vote on the Luna Park saloon license has assumed all the usual proportions of a Myrtle Maze. The original petition, after being checked, was found to have 142 more than the required number of names. Subsequently the advocates of the license induced 152 of those who had signed the original petition to sign a counter petition withdrawing their names.

The interests behind the referendum petition are now visiting those who have withdrawn, asking that they sign a paper withdrawing from the withdrawal. As there were only 19 less than the required number of names, the withdrawal of the withdrawal has been filed, they hope to re-establish the validity of the original petition for an election.

Rathskeller Case is Badly Bungled.
Because Patrolman Hagan's evidence in the case against Henry Allen, a waiter at the Rathskeller, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, was uncorroborated, a police court jury yesterday afternoon found Allen not guilty.

Before the case was called Sergeant Wilkes, who with Hagan and two women say they secured liquor on Sunday at the cafe, went out to hunt up Hagan. Hagan entered just before the trial was called and gave his testimony, but Wilkes was still hunting him until too late to give his evidence.

ON THE FRONT.

BRYAN IN SEATTLE

WILL SPEAK AT THE PIONEER
PIANO HOUSE TOMORROW
AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

A striking example of the wonderful Edison Phonograph is found in the marvelous records which have just been made by William Jennings Bryan.

All told the Great Commoner has recorded ten of his most famous creations. The reproductions are admittedly the most perfect records ever made—embodying, as they do, all the warmth and every inflection and modulation of his marvelous voice.

It's another example of the unlimited possibilities of the Edison Phonograph. Today no home is really complete without a modern Talking Machine. Its entertaining features are virtually endless. Sections by the famous bands and orchestras—solos by Caruso, Scotti, Senabrich and other famous operatic stars—orations by famous speakers, monologues, duets, vanderbilt sketches, etc., etc.—are reproduced in your own home with absolute fidelity if you have an Edison or Victor Talking Machine. Why deny yourself the pleasure of this marvelous entertainer when $1 weekly (without interest) places you in your home right away.

We carry the largest assortment of both makes in the west. Our stock of records and machines is three times greater than any other concern on the coast.

For many reasons it's decidedly to your advantage to deal at headquarters. Moreover the D. S. Johnston Co. talking machine quarters are an innovation—consisting of individual private rooms, located on the second floor of our new building—affording every advantage of ample light, fresh air and comfort.

A special demonstration of the new Bryan records will be made all tomorrow and tomorrow evening. You're most cordially invited to come, even though you do not intend to buy. Bring your friends. D. S. Johnston Co., the Pioneer Piano House, Third and University, Johnston Co. Building.

THREE MORE FILE DIVORCE BILLS

Charging that his wife was an habitual drunkard for six years, Alfred Vandensandt filed a petition for a divorce from Kittle Vandensandt in the superior court today. They were married September 15, 1898, at Detroit, Mich.

The husband claims that he had a good job, bringing him $6 a day, but that he had to give it up as a result of his wife's dissipation. Other petitions for divorce were made by Hannah Hill against Otis Hill, charging desertion, and Mrs. E. D. Smith against E. G. Smith, on the same grounds.

Judge Gordon yesterday fined A. S. Brown, of 1109B Fifth av., $20 for breaking quarantine by removing his boy from his home when he was aware that the boy had diphtheria. Brown admitted taking the boy for a car ride, but said he did not realize any danger.
