

SUFFRAGETTES CHASE ASQUITH

BOMBARD ENGLISH PREMIER AND FORCE HIM TO HIKE FOR SHELTER.

(By United Press.)
LONDON, July 20.—Bombarded with literature dropped from a balloon, assailed by an attacking force of women with petitions, and armed with megaphones, the Premier was defeated by the suffragettes today.

The Premier was delivering an address at the unveiling of a statue of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, at the Thames embankment gardens, when the women started the battle. So successful were the suffragettes that Asquith became badly out of breath and was compelled to cut short his speech.

First Move Made.

The first move made by the women was to send "sharshooters" armed with megaphones, to the tops of buildings adjoining the garden. These women waited until the speaker reached a climax in his oration and then with one accord screamed through their paper-mache horns: "We want votes for women."

Up Goes the Balloon.

Simultaneously with the shouting of the megaphone squad, a force of "balloons" charged the crowd surrounding the speaker's stand in an attempt to force his way to Asquith's suffrage. The police checked the rush of the women, but only after strenuous efforts.

As a final volley, the suffragettes sent up a huge balloon which hovered over the head of the Premier while its occupants showered suffragette literature down upon his head.

This was the last straw and Asquith was compelled to withdraw from the stand.

In New York Buying Merchandise

P. MacPherson, of the firm of MacPherson-Gray company, is now a New York on an extended business trip. Mr. MacPherson is buying a choice supply of fall merchandise in New York and other Eastern manufacturing centers. Ladies ready-to-wear apparel, including suits, cloaks, etc., will be a large part of Mr. MacPherson's purchases. On his return he will stop over in Chicago, looking over the market for "snaps" interesting enough for Seattle people. In his absence, under the supervision of Mr. Gray, the MacPherson-Gray company department store is doing its usual thriving business.

MISS DORO TO SEE WHOLE SHOW HERE

JOHN CORT PLANS ENTERTAINMENT OF FROMMAN STARS IN SEATTLE.

Marie Doro, of "The Morals of Marcus" will see the A.-Y.-P. fair. Miss Doro is going to streak down the Pay Street like anybody else, eat luncheon at the Japanese Village, and perhaps nibble between luncheon on a Coney Island frankfurter.

Up in the mountains, communing with nature and a fishing pole, John Cort might be disposed to forget things theatrical, but Mr. Cort has seen the fair and the other beauties of Seattle, and the prospect of Miss Doro leaving town without taking them in arose up and caused him to wire John E. Cook, his resident manager of the Moore theatre, to prevent such a calamity.

"CHEROKEE BILL" IS A GROCERYMAN

INDIAN FIGHTER AND SCOUT DENIES THE STORY OF BROTHERS IN PRISON.

E. S. Kinkadee, a friend of President Roosevelt and a man who as "Cherokee Bill" became quite a famous scout, has settled in Seattle. He is now a Seattle groceryman.

"I came to Seattle the first of May just past. Shortly after my arrival it was published in a certain newspaper in Seattle that I had two brothers who belonged to the James gang and who are now serving life sentences in the penitentiary for murders committed—that this fact did not seem to worry me; in fact, I was rather proud of it," said Kinkadee today.

"I am making this statement to deny this printed assertion most emphatically. There are seven brothers of us, not one of whom has ever been convicted or even suspected of lawlessness of any nature. As I am frequently asked concerning my nickname, 'Cherokee Bill,' which many associate with Goldie, who was hung in Fort Smith, I will give you a brief account of how I came by the name and also a few facts about Goldie. He was a mixed breed—Creek and negro—no Cherokee at all. His mother was a Creek negro and his father was an army officer at Fort Gibson, Okla., then the old Indian territory.

Lost the Name of "Lige."

"My name in full is Elijah Smith Kinkadee, familiarly called 'Lige' when I was a boy, and a name I always thoroughly disliked, as my father owned a worthless negro by the same name. As I grew older, and enlisted with the Texas Rangers there came to be so many Bills some distinction was necessary, and as it was well known that I was Cherokee by birth I soon became known all through the Indian territory and Texas as Cherokee Bill.

ASSASSIN IS EXONERATED

ANOTHER ONE IS DEAD AND ANOTHER DYING—VERDICT IS NONCOMMITTAL.

(By United Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 20.—Although Albert Ryan, connected with the Western Federation of Miners, shot and killed Harry Snyder and wounded two other men, a coroner's jury refused to bring in a verdict against him late yesterday afternoon and today Ryan faces only a formal charge of murder brought by the state's officers.

The coroner's jury declared that Snyder came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by one Albert Ryan, but refused to pass upon the question of self-defense. Ryan was arraigned before Judge Fredrickson and his preliminary hearing set for July 24.

Otto Miller, one of Ryan's victims, who was the object of Ryan's attack and who received three bullets, is in a local hospital and has a slight chance for recovery. Miguel Lopez, the third human target for Ryan, was shot in the leg and is now out of danger.

JAPANESE BUILDING WILL BE DEDICATED

With the becoming dignity of an international event, the Japanese building on the A.-Y.-P. exposition grounds will be dedicated tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the dedication being followed by a reception, while 100 prominent guests will attend a banquet at the New York State building in the evening.

The speakers at the dedication will include Japanese Commissioner H. Ota, Consul T. Tanaka, Commissioner T. Takasawa, Judge Thomas Burke, President Chibberg, of the exposition, I. A. Nadeau, C. R. Collins, John W. Roberts, A. J. Biehn and C. R. Vandell.

At the banquet Joseph Collins will preside, while President Chibberg, Hajime Ota, Consul Tanaka, C. T. Takahashi, Mayor Miller, Gov. Hays, Col. H. E. Doach, Senator Ben M. Wilcox and J. D. Lowman will speak.

KISSER WILL GET HIS

VALLEJO, Cal., July 20.—Lieut. Frank Wayne (Boy) Osburn, party with the late Lieut. Commander Holden A. Evans to an alleged osculatory performance, enacted in the Evans home, Christmas morning, that set navy circles gossiping and figured in the divorce of Evans and his wife, is to be repudiated by his superior officers, according to advice of Secretary of the Navy Meyer, which reached here today.

As a result of Boy Osburn's alleged indiscretions, he was called to account before a naval court of inquiry. Secretary Meyer yesterday announced his findings upon the report of the court, and the young lieutenant will not be tried before a court-martial.

MYSTERIOUS ROBBERIES.

Federal's Insurance Entirely Adjusted

THE GREAT STOCK OF THE COMPANY ENTIRELY GONE OVER AND LOSS PAID.

About two weeks ago the Federal Paint & Wall Paper Co. at 1214 First av., were the victims of a bad fire, which the firemen succeeded in keeping entirely in the front part of the store. Here everything was badly damaged, the remainder of the stock being but little smoked up. The loss has been adjusted by the insurance companies, and as it is necessary to replace all shelving and cases, it has been decided by the company to dispose of all the stock as soon as possible. This great stock will be arranged and priced for quick selling, and announcement will come later in this paper. If it is possible to get through with this work the sale will open Saturday morning.

BUST OF JIM HILL COMING

The bust of James J. Hill, which is to be unveiled at the A.-Y.-P. exposition on Minnesota day, Aug. 3, has been shipped to Seattle from the bronze works at Williamsburg, Pa., where it was cast. Finn H. Frolich is the sculptor.

Gov. Johnson, of Minnesota, will speak at the unveiling. Governor Johnson, with his state and ladies, will leave St. Paul on July 25, via the Great Northern, and will reach Seattle on the morning of July 31, which is Swedish day at the A.-Y.-P. exposition. The governor will proceed at once to the fair grounds and speak in the Natural Amphitheatre during the Swedish day exercises.

To reach Seattle on time he has found it necessary to cancel his engagement to speak at the National Irrigation congress in Spokane. Reports from St. Paul state that Gov. Johnson's health is improved, although an operation will be necessary in the fall to prevent a recurrence of his intestinal trouble.

CONFESSED SLAYER IS MAN WANTED

SANTA ROSA, Cal., July 20.—That Scott Johnson, who surrendered two weeks ago, is guilty of killing a man named McAllister near Port Deposit, Md., is thought to have been established by a telegram from Sheriff Hager, of Harford county, Md., which arrived here late yesterday. The telegram read:

"Photograph received. Identified him as completely. Will leave for California this week."

Johnson gave himself up to Deputy Sheriff Ryan of Sonoma county, stating that the affair weighed so heavily on his mind that he was determined to tell the truth and take the consequences.

IRISH PEER MISSING.

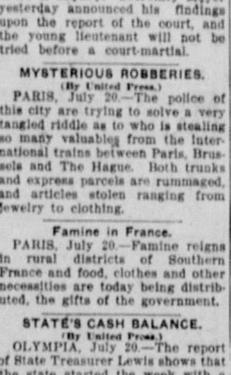

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 20.—Lord Basil Brooke-Baker, an Irish peer, 24 years of age and owner of 25,000 acres of Irish land, has disappeared, and his whereabouts is causing untold anxiety among his relatives. He was last seen at the St. Francis hotel in this city, where he registered May 13 under the name of Harold Morgan.

Bake Oven Makes Remarkable Cure In Chronic Case

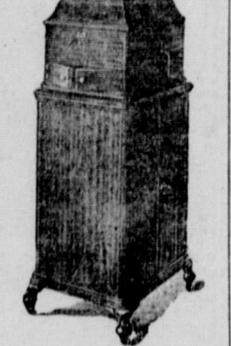

MRS. M. DERBY.
Ten years an intense sufferer from rheumatism, with the added tortures of stomach and bowel trouble, Mrs. M. Derby, 502 Third av. S., Seattle, is now enjoying real health for the first time in a decade. Loughney & Loughney's Bake Oven, 220-225 People's Savings Bank building, was the medium through which she is wonderfully recovered. Here is her signed story:

"No one who has not been a sufferer from rheumatism has the least idea what great pain and continual agony it brings, and added to that, a chronic bowel and stomach trouble, and you can realize what I have had to endure for the last ten years. I tried everything. I resorted to all kinds of experiments, but none gave me anything like permanent relief until I sought Loughney & Loughney's Bake Oven treatment. Nothing like it has ever been invented, and it shall be my purpose in the future to let everyone I can know what it has done for me. There is no reason why anyone suffering as I have suffered should go on when that great boon to humankind is so easily accessible.

BIG SEAL LANDED FOR THE EXHIBIT

CATCH A GOOD SPECIMEN IN PUGET SOUND AND TAKE IT TO FAIR.

After a month and a half of searching by government fishermen, a big 200-pound hair seal has been captured in Puget Sound and installed in a tank in the fisheries exhibit of the Government Building, but not without giving Capt. Harron, of the fisheries department, and four assistants a five-hour fight that they will long remember. The seal was first installed last Friday, but on Saturday morning his tank was found empty and Mr. Seal, fighting mad, was found at bay in a corner of the basement of the fisheries exhibit, where he had repaired by a series of jumps that must have required half the night. To remove that 200-pound animal, without hurting him or being hurt by him, and to lift him up a flight of stairs, was the job which
