EAGLE WINS IN 11 INNINGS

Seattle Slab Artist and Black Cat Twirler Engage in Great Pitchers' Battle.

Two men were out in the ninth, with the score 2 to 1 for Seattle. Lejeune was at bat. He had three balls and two strikes. What would have been the last ball of the game went sailing over the right garden wall when Lejeune met it, and the big center fielder trotted around the bags. The game went 11 innings before Seattle finally captured it. Both Engle and Starkell were in great form.

NOW JOHN BERG IS ON ROLLER'S TRAIL

Now that Joe Carroll has quit the letter writing game to get ready for tomorrow night's bout between Warner and Roller, young Mr. John Berg has taken it up. The subject of his remarks are the same as Carroll's have been, to-wit: the doctor and Jack Curley. Berg's letter, written from Anacortes, follows: "An article in the Seattle Times Monday stated that I was to train Bert Warner for his coming match with Bert Warner. I wish to state that I am not training with Roller and never was asked to. The only reason for this 'trick' is that I have been after a match with Roller for some time myself and now Curley, who no doubt wrote the article, is in this way knocking me out of a chance to meet his man. "P. S.—I am still open for a match with Dr. Roller at any time or place."

CENTRAL PENNANT TO WHEELING CLUB

(By United Press.) SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 23.—Wheeling won the pennant of the Central league after a sensational fight with Zanesville, which lasted until two weeks before their close of the season. While the season was unprofitable, none of the teams doing better than breaking even, the fight for the flag was one of the best in the eight years' history of the league. The teams finished as follows: Wheeling, Zanesville, Port Wayne, Grand Rapids, South Bend, Terre Haute, Dayton and Evansville.

GAVE UP 'NAILS' TO PLAY BALL

HARRY OTIS. WEST NEW YORK, N. J., Sept. 23.—"Do I know Harry Otis? Well I do that, young fellow. I've known Harry since he was knee-high to a Hackensack skooter. I hear he's playing big league base ball now. I want to know."

Joshua Carew, oldest inhabitant of this thriving village, which is located just across the Hudson from 43d st., New York proper, was plainly willing to talk about West New York's only representative in the major leagues, the young south-paw Otis, who stood the White Sox on their heels the first time he was tried out by Jim McGuire.

"I remember when Harry quit school. Let's see, he must have been about 14 an' big for his age. I allow none of us thought much about the boy then. He just hung around the corner, drinking beer and smokin' them thin cigars until he began to cough like a lung'er. "That's that time a young fellow named Pastor, who was a ball player, come here and hired Harry to throw to him. Them boys got to be thicker'n thieves and pretty soon I noticed that Harry give up his old habits. He told me that Pastor said he'd make a great pitcher if he'd stop smokin' and drinkin'."

"Well, sir, that there boy used to practice every day and pretty soon his eye got healthy and he began to look like a man. I guess he did fair to middlin' down in Carolina, where he pitched for the Goldsboro nine. I heard as how he won 21 and lost nine games. What a ball! He beat the great Chicago team, too! Well, I swan, I knowed there was something in that boy all the time."

THE WORLD SERIES STARTS OCTOBER 8

(By United Press.) CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—The world's championship series game will begin Friday, October 8. If Pittsburg wins the pennant, as now seems a certainty, this date is contingent upon the moving up one day of the Pittsburg-Cincinnati game of October 7 to October 6, which is an open date. The American league is not affected, as its season closes in the west October 3 and in the east on the 4th.

Kid Cope of Chicago and Young Berry of Indianapolis boxed four rounds at the Lyric theatre last night, without a decision. Andy Martin of Kansas City put the shoulders of J. W. Butler of Montana to the mat in fast time in two falls. Jimmy Hanlon refereed both the bout and the mat work.

OUTLAWS BACK IN THE FOLD

CALIFORNIA LEAGUE COMING BACK AS CLASS B ORGANIZATION, THEY SAY.

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 23.—The baseball war which has been carried on in California between the Outlaw and organized forces, as represented by the California State league and the Pacific Coast league, is practically over. The big chiefs of both organizations got together Tuesday in Oakland and practically reached an agreement whereby the State league will come back into the fold and operate as a class B organization.

In the afternoon the State league managers held a meeting in this city, President Frank Herman and all the various league managers from Fresno, Sacramento and Stockton being present. In the meantime J. Cal Ewing, president of the Pacific Coast league, and Ed Walter, owner of the Oakland team of the Coast league, held a consultation. Later in the evening the opposing factions got together and practically reached an agreement which will bring the Outlaws back into the fold. The parties to the conference were very reticent when questioned regarding the outcome of the conference, but both sides admitted that the prospects were good for the whitewashing of the Outlaws. It is understood that the only question that now stands between the factions is the matter of black-listed players.

M'ALEER TO WASHINGTON

AFTER 7 YEARS OF DISAPPOINTMENT AT ST. LOUIS HE WILL LEAVE.

(By United Press.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—James McAleer, who has steered the St. Louis Browns for the past seven years, this afternoon accepted an offer to manage the Washington team next year. He succeeds Cantillon, who has managed the Nationals for years.

For 26 years McAleer has been in baseball and the wise ones expected him to quit after this season. Seven years he has tried to give St. Louis a pennant winner. Last year he came near it, but this season his team has been in the second division since the opening. He has been the subject of much criticism and fans believed he had reached the point that comes sooner or later to all veterans.

St. Louis does not expect him to do any more for Washington than he has with the Browns. McAleer has been a great manager in his day, but his day is over, the St. Louis scribes say.

WHAT WALLA WALLA WANTS IS YOU ALL

"What Walla Walla Wants Is You" is the motto of 2,000 people who are celebrating their day at the A.-Y.-P. exposition today. Decorated with little badges and ribbons bearing this inscription, the visitors formed a procession and marched through the buildings this afternoon, turning loose toy balloons carrying pennants with their motto, which rose to the rafters and hung in all the prominent buildings on the grounds.

At 11 o'clock this morning the statue of Marcus Whitman, "whose courage saved the Oregon country," was unveiled. S. B. L. Penrose, president of Whitman college, was the principal speaker.

For soft white hands and complexion, Leary's Liquid Compound, perfumed. All druggists.
