

ANGRY NEGRO RUNS AMUCK ABOARD TRAIN

Waiter in Diner Hits Patron in Eye, and Free-for-All Fight Ensues—Train Is Delayed a Half Hour.

W. H. Matthews, a negro dining car waiter on the Northern Pacific, became obstreperous and boisterous last night when a patron put up a kick about the condition of the olives he was served. Matthews became peevish when told that he had made a mistake, and while in this provoked state of mind he hit the passenger between the eyes.

The dining car conductor was called, and in an endeavor to stop the fracas, was damaged himself. A cook butted in and Matthews poked him on the jaw, knocking him onto the hot stove. Matthews then ran amuck and created a good sized panic.

By this time the train, which left Seattle at 7:10 last night, had reached Auburn, and one of the train men got off and began a search for the town marshal. Deputy Sheriffs Joe Hill and John Limer were found, and they placed the belligerent negro under arrest. The train was delayed half an hour.

PORTOLA PILES UP $10,000 DEFICIT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—The Portola festival shows a deficit of approximately $10,000 according to a statement made public by the committee today. This is the financial statement by the committee who handled the "greatest celebration ever given in San Francisco."

In its statement, the committee makes an appeal to the merchants of San Francisco to assist them in settling its accounts. The statement says in part:

"The deficit was caused by the unusual expense incident to the tremendous crowds attracted to this city during the Portola week. The bank clearings showed an increase of $10,000,000 over the same period of the year previous."

"Through popular demand the same committee has been asked to handle a similar affair next year, but the present deficit must be wiped out before further plans can be contemplated."

FIFTEEN CLING TO LAUNCH CAPSIZED IN EVERETT STORM

EVERETT, Nov. 19.—Chilled by clinging to the half-capsized launch Norene, which runs between Everett and Mukilteo, 15 or more of the little craft's passengers were yesterday afternoon brought to Everett or taken to Mukilteo, by the vessels that put out to the Norene's assistance as soon as her plight was learned. The Norene, while headed for a landing near Mukilteo, was caught in the trough of the sea and, beaten down by the fierce gale that was blowing, was thrown on her beam ends, hurling her passengers into the water.

All on board the Norene, with the exception of one four-year-old boy, were men, and the child owes his life to the steadfast courage of a gray-haired companion who never lost hold of him. Most of the passengers had time to put on life preservers and were able to scramble to the top of the boat as she lay over on her side. After all her passengers had been taken off, the Norene was towed ashore. She is a 60-foot boat with a 45-horse power engine.

FATHER'S PLEA GETS BOY ANOTHER CHANGE

The plea of a father for just one more chance for a wayward boy named Frank Ryerson from a sentence to the Chehalis state training school this morning in Judge Frater's juvenile court. Frank Ryerson and his brother Roy had been before the juvenile court many, many times in their short lives, and the patience of the court was just about exhausted, yet the earnest plea of the distracted father touched the heart of the judge and the lad was given his last chance to make good. The Ryersons live at 2300 Loren av.

"Your honor," the father said in a shaky voice, "I wish you would give me this boy again. He'll never be back in here if you do. He is not a bad boy. He just loves to play and romp and maybe he does get into mischief once in a while, but he is not vicious. Just give the boy one more chance, and I am sure you will never regret it."

"Very well," said the court slowly. "I'll sentence him to Chehalis and suspend sentence. But the next time I hear of any pranks on your part, young man," the judge said sternly to the youth, "you'll go over to Chehalis."

Gratefully, the father took his two boys by the hand and with a smile of satisfaction on his face walked quickly from the court room.

Newsies Will Have Swell Time at Their Dance Saturday Night at Leschi Park

If a newsboy stops in making change to mutter under his breath, "I wonder what would be de best rig for de dance?" or "I hope I gets my share of turkey and cranberry sass," do not call a policeman and have the question of his sanity looked into.

He is merely pondering over the good things in store for him when the Newsboys' Union holds its annual masquerade ball Saturday night and big turkey dinner on Thanksgiving.

Shorty Engler says that "the boys will date time from this dance, as it is going to lay over anything ever given before"—and they've had it of them since the union was organized in 1892.

There will be prizes galore, and the committee, consisting of George Harrison, Joe Buck, Shorty Engler, James Murray, Don Lyons, Lou Finnesey and Winfred Hayes, reports over $150 subscribed by business men toward these prizes. Some of them will cost $15 to $20.

All kinds of prizes will be given—for the handsomest lady; for the best costume and make-up; for the character best sustained; for the most comical make-up, and others. Kings and scrub ladies, hooligans and princesses, nuns and devils, will mingle in the mazes of the latest ragtime waltz, and newsboys of all ages, from the blindest toddlers to the old-timers who remember the days when Crabbe Burke and Diamond led "de gang," will appear in the best costumes their

A. FROGEN DID NOT STOP AT COLONIAL

The management of the Colonial hotel denies the report made by A. Frogen to the police that he had been robbed of $45 in the Colonial hotel. Frogen told Patrolman Dugett that the money was taken from his pocket while the landlady of the hotel looked on, she thinking that the men who took the money were his friends and had authority to take the money.

As a matter of fact the hotel register contains no such name as A. Frogen, and every person connected with the hotel denies that Frogen stopped there, and also that any one was robbed there. They cannot conceive how a sober man could figure out such a story as Frogen told the police.

SEEKS DIVORCE FROM HIS RUNAWAY WIFE

Suit for divorce was started this morning by W. R. Chatfield, credit man of Charles H. Lilly & Co., against his wife Grace Chatfield, who while on a visit to her old home in Bay City, Mich., eloped with an old sweetheart who was later arrested in Kansas City for passing worthless checks.

The complaint states that the couple were married in Detroit, Mich., on August 17, 1907, and that they came to Seattle in June, 1909. A few weeks after their arrival in Seattle the mother-in-law came to visit and when she was about to return the wife grew homesick to such an extent that it made her ill.

She went home with her mother and there met the sweetheart of her childhood days, one James P. Thomas.

One dark night they stole away. First to Chicago they went and then on through to Kansas City. And all along the route a string of worthless checks were left behind them. Thomas was finally captured in Kansas City and now languishes in jail. The woman was taken back to her home.

REMARKABLE RECORD

Flesh-Forming Food That Succeeds Nearly Every Time.

A man or woman might as well starve outright as to take food into the stomach and not have it assimilated, yet in Seattle, as well as in every other town and city, there are many people who are thin, pale and seem underfed, simply because the food they eat is not assimilated, and fails to make good blood and firm flesh.

Samose, the wonderful flesh-forming food, taken before or after meals mingles with the food, so that it is assimilated by the system and makes rich blood and pleasing plumpness. No one can use it for a week or ten days without a noticeable gain in weight.

Anyone who is thin, weak, scrawny and emaciated can put 50c on deposit with the Quaker Drug Co. and take home a box of Samose. If the treatment does not give a noticeable increase in good firm flesh and restore strength and health, they will return the money without any questions.
