$7.50 Trimmed Hats $3.95: $10.00 Trimmed Hats $5.95

Did you ever, in your school days, run down a hill so fast you couldn't stop till you had bumped into something? Our milliners have worked this autumn as never before—we couldn't get hats fast enough. But they grew more and more expert, and came to making more hats in a day. Now we wake up to find an overplus of a few hundred. Will you take them Saturday at all but half price?

At $3.95 You can choose from hundreds of styles. All the newest colorings and black are shown in models for Winter wear. Materials are felt, corded and Bengaline silk, Draped Velvet Toques, Draped Velvet Turbans and Fur Turbans. Trimmings are fancy feathers, ornaments, velvet, choux and other seasonable goods. Such a value was never before seen in Seattle. Actual $6.50 and $7.50 Hats—$3.95, Saturday.

At $5.95 There are not less than two hundred Hats to choose among—many are exact copies of $5.00 and $6.00 Paris Pattern Hats. Included are Velvet Turbans, Dress Hats, Street Hats, Hats for all occasions. Trimmings are beaver, velvet, silk, fancy feathers, ornaments, wings, quills and other fashionable materials. Black and most every wanted color are included. Every Hat an $8.50 and $10.00 value—$5.95, Saturday.

Children's $2 School Hats at 95c

This offering includes a large assortment of Children's Hats, made of fine fur felt, in Mexican crown, roll brim, and square crown, roll brim styles; trimmed with velvet ribbon and Otoman silk ribbon; in black, red, blue and brown. $15 For Men's $20 and $25 Suits Extra Pair Trousers Included

This Suit Sale, which we will continue Saturday, has created wonderful enthusiasm. We do not believe such great Suit values have ever been offered to the men of Seattle.

Every Suit, even without the extra Trousers, is worth $20.00 to $22.50; the extra Trousers are a gift outright, and an extra pair of Trousers will double the life of the Suit. No wonder we say, "You never saw the like before," and the chances are you never will again after this lot is sold. It's a maker's overproduction.

Materials are Fine English Worsteds and Hokannum Mills Worsteds in several shadings of brown, slate, stone and dark staple shades. Splendidly tailored Suits, in sizes 33 to 48 chest measurement. Regular $20.00, $22.50 and $25.00 values—every Suit. It's a rattling good bargain at $15.00.

$12.50 for Men's $15.00 to $20.00 Overcoats and Raincoats

We have taken all of our Men's Overcoats and Raincoats remaining, in prices from $15.00 to $20.00, and made one big lot, and put a price on them that will mean a big saving to you. In this assortment you will find several different styles, including the new military collar and the "Simple" convertible collar coat, made of fine rainproof cloth, in black unfinished worsteds, Scotch tweeds and fancy chevrons. If you are interested in a good Overcoat, don't fail to see these before purchasing, as they are an exceptionally big bargain at this price—$12.50.—Mezzanine Floor.

Boys' $7.50 All-Wool Suits $5

These Suits are splendid values at the price. Knickerbocker style, ages 6 to 17 years, of blue serge, Scotch tweeds, fancy chevrons and pure worsteds, in the fashionable gray, tan, stone, brown and blue shades. Every Suit bears the label of some great tailor; all $6.50 and $7.50 values at $5.00.—Mezzanine Floor.

Boys' $5.00 Raincoats $2.95

These Coats take the place of an overcoat or rubber coat, and are "the very thing the doctor ordered" for boys who have to be outdoors—newsboys, messenger boys, etc. Made of an extra good grade of Oxford gray cloth, with rubber filling and lining; ages 9 to 16 years. Warm, too. Saturday, choose at $2.95.

TWO FAMILIES ENDANGERED BY REGRADE WORK

Ground Is Slipping and Flat Dwellers Are Told to Get Out.

Two families are in imminent danger and other occupants of a row of flats on Seventh av. S. and Washington st. are in great fear of accident, as a result of the sluting operations being conducted on Seventh av. S. in a regrade plan being worked out there.

Up to yesterday the city inspectors had taken no action. In the afternoon an inspector was sent up, with the result that M. Morton and his family, living at 715 Seventh and Mrs. L. Butler, living at 713 Seventh, were ordered to vacate at once.

Received No Notice.
The two flats condemned are the lower part of a long row known as the Seventh Av. Flats, owned by the Seattle Rent & Collection Co. The people, although the flats have been dangerous for some time, have never received any notice from the city until yesterday, when Mrs. Morton, becoming alarmed by the settling of the building, telephoned to Supt. Grant.

Yesterday morning the sewer of the building was broken and the water coming from that began sluicing the entire side of the hill away.

A gang of workmen tried to brace up the lower end of the flat at 715, but owing to the fact that the land on which the braces are placed is settling, it does no good. According to the inspector, the building is due to go tomorrow. If it is deemed necessary, the entire block will be condemned.

Rent Is Paid.
For the past week the women living in the place have been pleading with the contractors against throwing the water directly in under the building. This morning one of the men told her that she had better move all her furniture to the rear of the building so as to take some of the weight off the front.

Yesterday, before the occupants fully realized their danger, a collector for the owner of the building called and collected the rent for the next month. When he was there he told the tenants that the building was perfectly safe and that it would be several months before they would have to move. The Mortons have been preparing to move for some time, but have not been able to find suitable quarters.

A SAINT IN PUBLIC; STOLE $643,000

CHAS. L. WARRINER.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 19.—In the person of Chas. L. Warriner, deposed treasurer of the Big Four, who stole $643,000 from the railroad, there is a wonderful study in psychology.

The man who worked at his thefts upwards of 20 years seems to have had, through all that time, a double mind.

There were few men like Charley Warriner in Cincinnati. Poes, if he had had any, would have hesitated to call him crooked.

His habits were as regular as a Methodist bishop's. Every day he lunched at the Grand hotel, opposite Cincinnati offices of the Big Four. His repast was modest, costing 40 or 50 cents. Others, with less than his $6,000 a year salary, paid much more.

After lunch there would be a game of billiards. Warriner was a good shot because he had a steady nerve, was cool and calculating, and never tried for a shot until he had figured it out.

Occasionally someone would suggest playing for 25 cents a corner. Up would go Warriner's right hand in deprecation.

"Now, gentlemen," he would protest, "you know a man in my position cannot do this. I have always made it a rule to avoid the appearance of evil. No, gentlemen, I must refuse."

In his modest suburban home in Wyoming Warriner was a model husband and father. He always cautioned his children about being dishonest in life.

"My only worry," he used to tell his church and Sunday school associates in the Presbyterian church, "is that my children will absorb the spirit of the times and do little things that may be off color. I want them educated to know what strict honesty means."

Just before the Spanking.
"Pop, does a chicken come from an egg?"
"Yes, my son."
"And does an egg come from a chicken?"
"Yes."
"Well, if a chicken comes from an egg, and an egg comes from a chicken, which—?"
"Now, see here, if you are going to prolong this line of thought you can go right to bed."
"But, pop."
"Well, what?"
"How does a chicken come from an egg?"
"Oh, any hen can sit on an egg and hatch it."
"Gee! I'm glad I ain't a hen. It must hurt to sit on a hatchet!" (Hasty exit.)
