

CONVENTION MADE HAZELTON A POINDEXTER ADVOCATE

Fighting South Bend Editor Disgusted at Overbearing Tactics of State Machine.

(By United Press.)
TACOMA, Aug. 5.—One of the most interesting features of the Tacoma convention to read Poindexter was the announcement that F. A. Hazelton, editor of the South Bend Journal, and president of the state, had been elected to the state press club. Hazelton is editor of the South Bend Journal, one of the strongest weekly newspapers in the state, and president of the State Press club. It was he who, two years ago, organized the weekly newspapers in support of S. G. Cosgrove for governor.

Hazelton came to the convention a delegate, undecided as to what action he would take on the senatorship. The insolently overbearing tactics of the standpatters in the convention drove him into the insurgent column.

"You may say for me that I am for Poindexter, and that I am going home and take off my coat for him," said he, before leaving Tacoma. "No packed convention can stifle my political conscience or deliver my vote."

THE SENATOR AND THE ELEVATOR MAN

SENATOR EUGENE HALE.

The senator from Maine is an aristocrat. If you don't believe it, ask the elevator man of the capitol at Washington. He knows Senator Hale is a patrician of patricians, who looks upon plebeians such as elevator men and other mere voters with scorn.

"Good morning, senator," said the new elevator man—once. "It's a fine day, sir."

"When I desire your advice on the weather I shall ask for it," was the reply of the senator from Maine, after he had looked the man over from head to foot.

Since then there has been no intercourse of any kind between the capitol elevator man and the senator from Maine.

The senator from Maine has been a senator from Maine for 29 years, and all that time he has been elected by the votes of mere voters, most of them much like the elevator man. He is noted for being almost as conservative as Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island, and for being quite the most dignified man in the senate. You'd hardly think, to look at him, that common people had put him in the senate to represent them.

Club Now Has 2,000.

The membership of the Commercial club has reached the 2,000 mark, having made a gain in the past year of 120 per cent. Thirty-two members were added in July and there are 49 applications pending.

Woman Play-Broker Here.

Miss Alice Kaiser, a play-broker from New York City, arrived in Seattle last night for the purpose of witnessing the first performance of "Shifting Sands," by Margaret Anglin, tonight.

Corwin Will Quit.

The steamer Corwin, which has been freighted in and out of Norton sound for years, is coming south to quit the run. The rapid increase of gasoline steamers has cut the business down to an unprofitable size.

DID NURSE TAKE MAN'S MONEY?

Charles Dahms became acquainted with Lena Jones, a colored nurse maid, in Woodland park, while the latter was attending a baby belonging to a Japanese family. When the nurse had given the baby an airing and trundled it home Dahms told the police the woman took along with her $200 of his money and a diamond ring worth $30. The nurse was arrested, and as she could not give bonds, is in jail pending trial.

West Seattle will hear Wagner's Second Regiment band tonight. An especially interesting program has been arranged.

Will Salvage Albion.

A salvage crew is at work raising the steamer Albion, sunk Tuesday night in collision with the Chippewa. The Albion's cargo was taken off yesterday.

TALKS ON TEETH

By THE REGAL DENTIST

Teeth Tell The Story

You know as well as we do that well-kept teeth are a sure sign of a well-kept body.

And a well-kept body goes far towards insuring a well-kept mind. Well groomed as so apt a description of a well-conditioned thoroughbred horse that mankind borrowed the phrase and today we see it used in speaking of men and lovely women, too.

Foreigners tell us we are in too big a hurry to perform the entire toilet in our bedrooms, and we finish up the rag ends on the street, some even attending to so important a function as the cleaning of the nails while hurrying for the car.

In a sense, we are a rushing crowd, but we do better than we used to do, and are paying more attention to the little niceties than ever before. But there are some who insist on presenting a mouth filled with teeth in various stages of decay, or worse yet, with one of those well-styled "false plates" tacked to them, that are not even a delusion or a snare, but rather a nuisance and an offense against good manners.

Yes, teeth do tell the story. What a relief it is to turn from the one picture to the mouth filled with beautiful, dazzling, natural looking teeth!

The teeth which this company supplies, through a marvelous invention known as Our Method (teeth without plates), are as beautiful in appearance as nature's teeth when they are at their best.

Many of our patrons state that they cannot be told from natural teeth, except by an expert dentist and only then after he has been afforded the opportunity of examining them.

These are the sort of artificial teeth that people who are particular will welcome.

The work of installing them is not a painful process, only takes a short time to complete, and once in place nothing can disturb them.

They are as firm and solid as a rock.

But all these points will be better told to you when you call.

We can't send the work to you, but if you will allow us to look at your mouth we will tell you at once what we can do and the cost. No charge or obligation for the service.

All work guaranteed. REGAL DENTAL OFFICES, 1405 3rd Av., N. W. Cor. Union.

HUSBAND PINCHED FOR HORSE STEALING, SO WIFE DRIVES THE STAGECOACH

(By United Press.)
HELENA, Mont., Aug. 5.—As a result of her husband being arrested on a charge of horse stealing, Mrs. Frank Leuahan is today driver of a mail and passenger stage which runs between Silver and Big Blackfoot, in the northern part of the county.

to permit him to remain with his position, because his departure meant a delay to the mails, but his request was refused. Thereupon his wife took his place on the stage line and announced her determination to conduct the business until he is released.

The route of the stage crosses the main stem of the Rocky mountains and is more than 60 miles long.

Selects a Representative.

J. D. Jones has been selected as a representative of the Commercial club to attend the meeting of the southwestern Washington Development association at Hoquiam. The convention opens today, and continues until Sunday night.

Appraise Phone Plants.

Mayor Gill yesterday signed the ordinance providing for an investigation of the two local phone companies for the benefit of the state railroad commission. Frank B. Hall of Wheeling, W. Va., and C. H. Judson of Seattle will do the work.
