Odds and Ends From Everywhere

TODAY IN HISTORY

September 9, 1833. King James IV, of Scotland, crossed the Tweed and got out upon the Cheviot. That was a very unenjoyable thing to do, for the Cheviot hills were supposed to be under the rule of Henry VIII, of England, who was Jim's wife's brother. However, Henry would not, any more than James, let a family tree stand in the way of a good fight, so he sent the Earl of Surrey out to meet the Scottish army and Surrey killed 10,000 Scots that day.

Nw York.—George Earle, former receiver for the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Co., in the second article, printed in the World today, asserts that Col. Roosevelt misrepresented facts when he declared that the decision in the Knight case prevented the successful prosecution of the sugar trust.

Records of 11 deaths were received at the city hall yesterday.

Limited Knowledge.
 "Do you believe that great wealth has a tendency to keep a man out of heaven?" queried the party who was addicted to the conundrum habit.
 "I am not prepared to express an opinion on that subject," answered the student of human nature, "but I know that great wealth has kept many a man out of the penitentiary."

Col. William F. Gody, better known as Buffalo Bill, was the guest of the Seattle Publicity Club at a luncheon at noon today at the Arctic Club, where he related some of the numerous anecdotes connected with his career which have made him famous.

Four little boys and six little girls were added to Seattle's population yesterday.

Matrimonial Trials.

The Lady.—You have been recommended to me as an experienced divorce lawyer.
The Attorney.—I am at your service, madam. What grounds have you for divorce?
The Lady.—Oh, I got a divorce six months ago. What I want is a lawyer who will get my alimony away from the lawyer who got my divorce.

Richard Archilles Ballinger, secretary of the interior, will leave in a few days for Washington, D. C., to attend the first cabinet meeting after vacation, called for September 26.

Rev. Herbert M. Gowen, of Trinity church, has returned from a three months' tour through Europe, and says that the world is full of Seattleites. Hardly any place of importance which he visited failed to bring him in touch with someone from Seattle, says the divine.

North Yakima.—Police today are searching for an unknown negro who last night stabbed William John, a Yakima Indian.

Seven divorcees-to-be (maybe) filed complaints at the court house yesterday.

Portland.—The O. R. & N. train, No. 8, east-bound, was wrecked near Wyeth, 52 miles east of Portland, and one man is reported killed.

New York.—Marion Stone, an actress, is in the hospital with concussion of the brain caused by a fall. The girl was wearing a hob-ble skirt and fell a full flight of stairs.

All They Could Afford.
 "Sir," said the indignant citizen, "I found a fish worm in my hydrant this morning."
 "I'm very sorry," replied the complaint clerk, "that we cannot afford to supply you with fish, but at the present low rate for water the best we can do is to furnish bait."

Sonoma, Cal.—The postoffice at this place has been robbed of $600 in cash. The robbers escaped.

The Dalles, Ore.—Convicts escaping from a state camp started forest fires to prevent the guards following them with dogs.

Blaine.—An unknown man attempted to break into a shop here last night and was wounded by the pistol fire of citizens. He escaped.

Had Some Knowledge of Them.
 "Do you know anything about the 'Lays of Ancient Rome'?" asked the intellectual boarder, as he looked up from the volume of Macaulay's poems which he had drawn from the Carnegie library.
 "I know a little," replied the boarder with the incorrectly adjusted four-in-hand green necktie. "Wasn't the eggs we had yesterday some of them lays?"

North Yakima.—About 2,000,000, 000 feet of timber on the Yakima Indian reservation will be sold at auction by the government this fall.
