

Member of United Press. Published Daily by The Star Publishing Co.

THE STAR EDITORIAL AND MAGAZINE PAGE

By Mail, out of city—1 year, $7; 6 months, $4.50; 3 months, 25c. Entered at Seattle, Wash., Postoffice, as second-class matter.

Page Will Be There

Carroll D. Page, United States senator from Vermont, is assured of another term by the recent election of a standpat legislature.

CARROLL D. PAGE

Page is president of the national bank back home. This is fortunate, for he can see that no currency bill is rigged up against the national banks who rent out money, by the merchants and mechanics who hire it.

Some Kinds of Rottenness

The men who work up the biggest indignation when some red-blooded human boldly criticises rotten courts, are the men who expect their special privileges to be protected by rotten courts.

Little Things

The barber, the hair cutter, the weed plow, the reaper, the street car conductor, are all after little things—a lot of which make big things.

OBSERVATIONS

- SEATTLE DOESN'T NEED white wash. It needs chloride of lime. THE VANDERBILT CUP RACE was the invention of the fool-killer.

In the Editor's Mail

Short letters from Star readers will be printed in this column when they are of sufficient general interest. You may write about anything or anybody so long as personal malice is not your motive.

Miss O'Meara Is a Teacher of Government, But She's Learning a Lot About Politics

BY MARION LOWE.

"How does it feel to be a real candidate? Do you feel any different?" I asked Miss Mary G. O'Meara, democratic nominee for county superintendent of schools.

MISS MARY G. O'MEARA.

"Did you have to trade your vote, and go into a deal and dicker with some man or delegation who wouldn't stand by you unless you stood by them?" "No, nothing of the kind," said Miss O'Meara, "one man came around and asked to see my ballot."

ment that took me into politics," says Miss O'Meara. "I believe that better government and public administration of affairs is to be brought about by education in citizenship, not by party revolutions."

Pawed-Over Flirts

BY REV. PERCIVAL H. BARKER

Pastor of First Congregational Church, Maywood, Chicago.

The mother who permits her 16-year-old daughter to sail about the city in an automobile until 2 o'clock in the morning, with a counterfeiter sport of weak jaw and weaker morals, opens the front door to grief and disgrace.

Why Not?

Convention says it's all right to wear clothes like this to be comfortable on the beach; convention says it's all right to wear clothes like this to be comfortable in the parlor.

Two-Minute Vaudeville

BY FRED SCHAEFFER.

Slap—So you've written a new play? I'm surprised. Thud—Yes, I've proud to say I have. But why are you surprised?

IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Every time a stoop-shouldered, spavined foreigner comes steering into this land of the free, with a title that may or may not wash and no more money than a man back from his vacation, there's just one thing he can do, and generally does—cop out.

Cradle's Empty—Whos to Blame?

"WOMAN" SAYS FATHER VAUGHAN. Women no longer want the trouble of rearing children. Children interfere too much with their pleasures, their figures.

"MAN" SAYS IDA HUSTED HARPER.

YOU CAN INTEREST HIM

Any Man Over Fifty.

You can interest any man over fifty years of age in anything that will make him feel better, because while he may not as yet have any positive organic disease he no longer feels the buoyancy and vigor of twenty-five nor the freedom from aches and pains he enjoyed in earlier years.

TODAY'S STYLES TODAY

Autumn Opening. You are cordially invited to attend our exclusive display of the latest edicts of fashion in Ladies' and Men's wearables. Tomorrow Evening, Oct. 4, 1910 From 8 to 10 P. M.

STROLLER'S COLUMN

The officers of the Capital Improvement club include at one meeting to be held: "Next regular meeting Tuesday evening, October 4th, at the Prospect St. Congregational church between 19th and 20th Sts."