NEWS OF THE DAY CONDENSED FOR BUSY PEOPLE

President J. G. Schurman of Cornell university spoke at a luncheon given in his honor today by the Commercial Club. He will be the guest of the Cornell alumni in town at a dinner this evening at the Washington hotel. Dr. Schurman arrived here yesterday with his son and two daughters, and will leave for Alaska Wednesday.

POTTSVILLE, Pa.—"Bald head," "blockhead" and "byocrite" were terms applied to Dr. J. C. Blidie by his wife which led to a divorce here today.

PITTSBURG, Pa.—Seeing himself in a mirror for the first time in his life, Jacob Steinman, an 80-year-old hermit of Reserve township, fainted first and then trimmed his three-foot beard.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y.—What is believed to be a canoe sunk in York lake more than 100 years ago by Tom Quick, the famous Indian slayer, has been discovered and raised. The white stones which legend says Quick used in sinking the canoe were still there.

NEWARK, O.—Twenty-five persons were injured when the base ball grand stand collapsed. Many women and children were among the victims.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Walter Pomeroy swam across the Golden Gate yesterday from Fort point to Lime point, a distance of one mile, in 24 minutes 36 4/5 seconds. Pomeroy's performance is the first in 20 years, Edward Cavill having swam between the same points in 1891 in 90 minutes.

The funeral of Clark Harris, a Civil War veteran, who died at his home, four miles from Issaquah, yesterday, will be held under the direction of the local G. A. R. post.

"Boys need more than three square meals a day; there must be confidence between parent and child," said Dr. Lilburn Merrill, who spoke on the "Mission of the Juvenile Court" at the Kinnear park community gathering yesterday. Rev. E. A. King of North Yakima spoke on the "Aim of Youth."

Dr. John B. Murphy of Chicago, president of the American Medical association, advocate of a national health journal for distribution to the general public, will deliver an address before the King County Medical association in the Sunday school room of the First Presbyterian church tonight.

FOXY DAD.—"What does your father do when you ask him questions?" asked one small boy. "He generally says, 'I'm busy now; don't bother me'" replied the other. "Then when I go out of the room he looks in the encyclopedia."

Mrs. A. Brown, resident of Seattle for 29 years, died yesterday at her home, 1806 Terry av. She is survived by three sons, Charles, Fred and Harry M. Brown, and a daughter, Mrs. John Quigley, of Seattle.

Ah Lee, Ah Wing and Ah Hong, Chinese, and M. Morikawa and K. Sumi, Japanese, were arrested in an early morning raid on an alleged gambling resort in the old restricted district. Detectives Bianchi and Majewski made the arrests.

C. V. Kalinowski, the man who had his skull fractured last Monday in a quarrel with L. M. Gladin, his West Seattle neighbor and who escaped from the city hospital last Friday, was rearrested this morning. He was taken to the hospital, where his wound was dressed.

J. Croston, councilman of Issaquah, and a resident there for 16 years, died after an illness of a year. The funeral will be in charge of the Knights of Pythias.

Struck by a Tacoma interurban car, Abraham Gosse, a real estate man from Vancouver, B. C., sustained a broken leg Saturday night.

Heart disease claimed John Ettinger, a dishwasher, yesterday. He was found dead in bed at 717 Spring st. His roommate saw him alive at noon.

The body of Mrs. Rachel Goldberg, who died at the age of 68 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. Weisfeld, 422 32nd av., yesterday afternoon, will be shipped to her home in San Francisco for burial.

A half million dollars worth of gold bullion came on the steamship City of Seattle, which arrived in port yesterday morning. The gold comes from the Treadwell mines. Part of it consigned to local banks, but most of it goes to San Francisco.

The incoming vessels report unusually warm weather in the north. At Sitka last Monday, the thermometer crept up to 89 degrees in the shade at three o'clock in the afternoon.

ELECTRIC AUTO STOLEN.—An electric auto, belonging to Mrs. D. L. Macadam, 1217 21st av. N., was stolen out of the yard at the J. E. Galbraith home, 1729 17th av. last night. Mrs. Macadam was making a call. She took the street car home.

SEATTLE'S VETS

comes from good fighting stock, being a direct descendant of Robert D'Oyley, a knight in the army of William of Normandy. He came to the United States from England in 1856, and when the Civil War broke out, five years later, he was among the first to volunteer in the army of his adopted country. He first joined company I, Second Connecticut Infantry, which was mustered after a few months, and he then enlisted as fifer, and later became bugler in company F, Seventh Connecticut volunteers. He was in engagements at Fort Pulaski, Secessionville, Pocotaligo, Olustee, Fort Wagner in South Carolina and Florida, and at Drury's bluff, Deep Bottom and other minor engagements in Virginia. He was honorably discharged at Petersburg, Va., September 12, 1864, having served three years and three months. After the war he returned to Connecticut, where he stayed a short time, and moved to Omaha, Neb. In July, 1874, he came to Olympia, Wash., and on July 9, 1875, moved to Seattle. He worked as a foundry carpenter and flash maker for the Moran Bros. and the Washington Iron Works company. He is now retired. D'Oyley became a member of Stevens post, of which he is now commander, in November, 1878. He celebrated his 70th birthday at his home, 510 Trenton st., on May 24 last.

Robbers' Good Rush. Sneak thieves entered the home of Mrs. Ralph Moore yesterday and took a miniature savings bank containing $50 to $60 with them. Police are now looking for the bank robbers.

Will Speak on Walt Whitman Dr. Nathaniel I. Rubinkam will give a lecture on Walt Whitman in the parlors of the Hotel Calhoun tonight, at 8:15 p. m. Dr. Rubinkam is an interesting speaker, and by reason of study and investigation, is full of the subjects upon which he talks, and none more so than this one of the truth regarding "The Good Gray Poet."

BREAKS HER LEG IN BED. ALLENTOWN, Pa., July 24.—Mrs. Mary Salinsky, 85 years old, met with a peculiar accident when on a visit to the home of a friend in the country. She tripped a leg in such a manner that she broke the upper bone of the leg clear in two.

Eggs Hatched in 12 Days

FISHKILL LANDING, N. Y., July 24.—Dr. Bontecou made a wager here two weeks ago that chickens could be hatched in 12 days, although the union schedule for a setting hen has been three weeks from time immemorial. The wager was piled, and on the 12th day, taking four bushings and professional men as judges to the nest where his hen was sitting on a dozen and a half of eggs, Dr. Bontecou drove the hen away, removed the eggs, and by one cracked them open gently, placed them in cotton and hurried them into a hot oven. In half an hour 16 of the little chickens were peeping, and all of them were alive and healthy.

DAILY BIRTHDAY PARTY

By way of a change and by reason of the fact that our heroine eschews all "parties" and attends club meetings only, today's happy affair will have to assume the alias of "birthday club." Mrs. Philip N. Moore, president of the federation of women's clubs America over, has just marked off the date of 11½ years in one year, which one it isn't given us to say. Mrs. Moore believes that a stronger federation of all the women united in local clubs will greatly and beneficially influence legislation concerning women and children.

"I WAS 'DE SECOND TIME." A passenger on a Chicago-Cleveland sleeper, on awakening in the morning, found under his berth one black shoe and one brown one. He called the porter and directed his attention to the error. The porter scratched his woolly head in utter bewilderment. "Well," said the exasperated passenger. "What's the matter?" "Now, if dat don't beat all!" exclaimed the porter. "Dat's de second time dis mawnin' dat mistake's happened."

Chief Bannick, in a message to the police department, thanks them for their excellent work in handling the crowds during Potlatch week.

INCORPORATED

PIANO BUYERS!

DOWN SENDS A PIANO HOME

MONTHLY PAYS FOR IT NO INTEREST

Join This Kohler & Chase Piano Club

We lay this proposition down: You may look the country over and you cannot find a more durable, dependable or trustworthy piano at less than three hundred and seventy-five dollars, than the one we are distributing through the big Kohler & Chase Piano Club.

And the club price is 277 dollars and 50 cents—and there are no extras of any kind or nature.

You pay 5 dollars to join the club. The 5 dollars is credited to the price of the piano, leaving 272 dollars and 50 cents to be paid.

The piano is immediately delivered to your home and the remainder can be paid in 218 weekly payments of 1 dollar and 25 cents each.

You get your money back if you but ask for it, if, after a month's trial, you are dissatisfied with the piano.

You get a year's privilege of exchanging it without a dollar's loss.

You get the strongest guarantee ever given on any piano. If you or any one can write a stronger one than ours, write it and we will sign it.

Your family gets all unpaid payments cancelled in event of your death during the life of the club.

You get the piano tuned two times—free.

You get a good stool—free.

You get a reduction of 15 cents a week in cash, in event you pay faster than at the rate of 1 dollar and 25 cents a week.

And remember, every promise we make here is put right down in your contract—it's a matter of black and white between you and Kohler & Chase.
