

It is not in human nature that a man who has owned an automobile for six months should be greatly mindful of the rights of pedestrians.

Col. Roosevelt said he was not going to a banquet because he was not hungry. That is one of the best reasons for going.

FUNNY SIGHT IN FOREIGN SITES

YOU RISK YOUR EARS IN AN EGYPTIAN BARBER SHOP—MANY ASK "BUCKSHEESH"

—TYPES IN UPPER EGYPT— Assuan, Egypt.

Dear Bill: The Egyptian barber is a wonder. We saw one yesterday, operating on a customer. They were both seated on the ground, and the only tools in evidence were a bucket of water and the razor. The barber never took his eyes off us, but kept shaving, regardless of the danger of lopping off an ear of his customer. Both barber and customer asked for "Bucksheesh."

Shopkeepers and vendors of all descriptions over here have a peculiar custom of asking about ten times the value of an article, and they always expect the customer to wrangle and bargain over the price. I was on a donkey one day, and an unusually persistent Arab followed me for a mile or two pleading with me to buy a plaster mummy for 10 shillings. In order to get rid of him, I offered 10 pieces (5 cents), and he took me up. Then, when I refused that proposition, he begged me to buy it for a half-plaster.

The Street Car Conductor BY BERTON BRALEY There's one public servant of whom I'm not jealous. The street car conductor's fellow I mean; Of grouchy examples some people will tell us, But never a word of their trials is seen, Of flustered old ladies, who ask every question That ever was down on the look-killer's list, Of kickers and grumblers with much indignation, And hobbled young ladies that he must assist.

He's badgered by cranks of all species and ages, He's asked to remember where every one stops; He works for long hours at ridiculous wages, What wonder sometimes that his courtesy drops? Yet, treated politely, he's pleasant and kindly, In spite of the worries he meets on the way, Though most people ask—and they ask for it blindly—A Lord Chesterfield for two dollars a day.

NEWS OF THE DAY CONDENSED FOR BUSY PEOPLE

A call has been issued by H. L. Sizer, president of the Federation of State Clubs, of Seattle, for a meeting at the new Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening.

B. V. Burns, 5317 Roxbury st., suffering from a fractured skull caused by being run down by an automobile, is showing improvement at the Minor hospital. He will recover.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—James G. Wagoner of Seattle, called as a witness before the grand jury here, starting for Indianapolis yesterday, slipped away to Santa Ana long enough to be married to Miss Elmo Meyer, also of Seattle. Wagoner had an electrical shop in Seattle at the time of the explosion in the Lyon building, and repaired one of McNamara's dynamiting devices while he was there.

Annie Shaw Faulkner of Chicago will be in Seattle Jan. 22 and 23 to deliver a series of "opera musicals" under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical club at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium.

A picked debating team of Broadway won a 2-1 decision over a pair of debaters from the Burton high school. The topic of the debate was: "Resolved, That the conservation of our natural resources should be a function of state rather than the federal government."

An institute of the King County Sunday School association will be held for the next three evenings, beginning tonight. G. T. Pratt and Miss Ida Irwin will conduct tonight's session with "Sunday School Management and Organization" as the topic.

Contracts have been signed with Oregon and Washington colleges for a series of debates on "The Recall of Judges." The women's team will debate here in March with the "U" of Oregon. March 12 two debates will be held here between the men's teams of the "U. of W." and Whitman and W. S. C. The "U" team visits Stanford March 30, and the Oregon team enters a debate with another local team here.

C. L. Clemens and J. E. Burson won a decision over M. J. Guinness and A. Q. Reideke, in a debate at the Snohomish Commercial club Friday.

A motorcycle patrolman has been detailed to keep a watch for a dog poisoner believed to be working in the neighborhood of 24th av., between Olive and Pine sts. Four dogs have been found dead in this district.

EMPORIA, Kas., Jan. 15.—In an editorial William Allen White declares "This country is going democratic unless our party changes leaders. It's Roosevelt or bust."

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Policemen at Maxwell st. station "chipped in" raised $50 and bought Morris Goldberg a horse so he could support his family after his horse died of exposure.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 15.—When his wife spoke to him for the first time in 25 years, asking him if he would have a cup of coffee, Louis Roser was so surprised he dropped dead of heart failure.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Harry Landeck, 22, has been held to the grand jury for stealing 15 cents from a telephone box. He admitted the theft, saying he was hungry and had no money.

HAMMOND, Ind., Jan. 15.—Mrs. Charles Hulot, 16, had her husband arrested for spanking her with a strap. She advised the court to give him 100 days in jail, and the court fixed that as the penalty.

EMPORIA, Kas., Jan. 15.—A new Premier automobile, driven by W. S. Spencer, and a big iron water fountain at the corner of Union st. and Humboldt way were the chief participants in an embrace early yesterday morning. When the two were pried apart the auto was found considerably damaged. A headlight was severely battered, a spring ruined and the radiator jammed six inches out of line. The fountain was torn off its foundations and the sidewalk was seriously dented.

SEVEN ARRESTED An embryo bookmaking establishment was raided in a room in the Arlington hotel Saturday evening, and seven men arrested. Early in the afternoon city detectives visited the place and arrested three of the men charged with running the place. The other four later phoned for results and were "invited up" by the sleuths, who also pinched H. W. Peter, an American bookkeeper, John Peterson, a Norwegian cook, J. R. Black, Canadian hotel man, Jack Lawson, American steamship man, John McGlott, Irish miner, Charlie Louie, Chinese restaurant man, and Thomas Ryan, Canadian horseman, were the men arrested.

Peter, Black, Louie and Ryan furnished bail. The other three could not.

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID George H. Brooks, a building contractor, drank carbolic acid at his home at 206 8th av. N. W. yesterday afternoon, and his dead body was discovered by his wife and children when they returned to their home shortly after the dinner hour. He was 46 years of age and in apparently good health. The wife can give no reason for her husband's rash act.

LONDON COMPANY IS REORGANIZED The reorganization of the Edwin London company has been announced, and John Pantou, formerly of Duluth, Minn., has joined the firm as vice president and general manager. Mr. London will act as president and Mr. Wolfe will be the advertising manager.

The new firm will be known as the Pantou & London company, with a capital stock of $125,000. The new company will take over the Edwin London company in February. The old company has been in existence 10 years, and started as a small men's furnishings store.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 15.—Federal Judge Pollock has sentenced S. A. Brainerd, a mail clerk, to the penitentiary, but sentence is not to be imposed until Brainerd earns enough money to care for his wife and family.
