

RAILWAY HEADS LEAVE SEATTLE

Heads of the various railroads running into Seattle have been here on the annual inspection this week. Most of them have gone back, satisfied with the condition of their property and the business here.

FATAL QUARREL

USHER and H. W. Brodie, officials of the Canadian Pacific, will leave tomorrow, after an inspection of the company's lines here.

BIG BUTTER MEN UNDER SUSPICION

After several days' work by Chief Inspector Rhinehart, of the weights and measures department, a complaint was yesterday sworn out against John H. Agen and H. M. Klook, two of the biggest butter men on the coast, charging them with short weight in their packages of butter.

REDHOT CONTESTS IN PROGRESSIVE PRIMARY

With four candidates for governor, four for congressman in this district, four, or perhaps five, for congressman-at-large, and with a woman's organization of progressive voters, the indications are that the progressive primaries on September 7 will bring out a record vote.

FREDERICK & NELSON

Charming Fall Models for Small Girls

INDIVIDUALITY of design is as carefully considered in assembling our displays of Infants' Wear as in choosing the styles for older folk—a fact seen in the very pretty and distinctive new Coats and Hats that have arrived to grace the little Miss of 2 years and upward.

The pretty little Coat pictured is made of fine broadcloth in copper-color, with small round collar and belt of dark-brown velvet. Moderately priced at $9.50.

The Hat to match, also shown in illustration, is of brown felt, trimmed with copper-color velvet ribbon and shaded green wings. Price $7.00.

A Corduroy Velvet Coat in box style has patent leather belt and fastens down side-front with large buttons; lined with fine sateen. Price $6.50. Tailored Hat to match, of brown corduroy, $1.75.

Children's Cloth Hats in plaid and check patterns, $1.75.

Children's Chinchilla Hats in gray and brown, $2.50. Children's Plush Hats, $2.50. Children's Satin Beaver Hats, $3.50 and $4.50.

Cotton Eiderdown Robings, 35c and 39c Yd

COTTON Robings in plain two-tone reversible effects, 27 inches wide, in gray and lavender, gray and blue, tan and brown, gray and cardinal, pink and white, light-blue and white; 35c yard.

Cotton Robings in reversible figured designs, principally on grounds of dark color, 27 inches wide, 35c yard.

Cotton Robings of same quality as above, in the 32-inch width, patterned in bordered effects, 39c yard.

Cotton Velour, 27 inches wide, for children's kimonos and bath robes, in dainty floral, dot and kindergarten designs, 15c yard.

Robert Harriett and Frank Westerman are named as defendants in a damage suit for $15,000 brought by Nicola Masciarelli, who says he was run down by an automobile owned by the defendants. The accident is alleged to have happened June 30, and the plaintiff, in his complaint, says the machine was going at the rate of 35 miles an hour.

Sweet Home, Or.—Keeping his bow not to enter the church, Henry Galbraith is tined from the street and heard his son, Rev. I. M. Galbraith preach on his return here after 25 years' absence.

Los Angeles.—During 1911 95,802,930 telephone calls were registered by the Sunset boards here. According to expert opinion, 50 per cent pertained to business, ten per cent were honeyed lovers' chats and the remainder miscellaneous.

North Yakima, Wash.—Indignant city officials want an ordinance compelling visiting circuses to buy pure city water. Investigation shows the circus last here endangered the health of the people by using ditch water for lemonade.

Prof. Herschel Parker of Columbia university, Belmont, Brown of Tacoma, and Miss Dora Keen, who spent many weeks on the slopes of Mount McKinley in an effort to reach the summit, will be the guests tomorrow night at a dinner given by the Mountaineers' club of Seattle. The dinner will be at the rooms of the Seattle Commercial club.

Rotary club, at its regular weekly luncheon at the Rathskeller yesterday, declared itself opposed to the discontinuance of night service on the Kirkland ferry or the increase of rates. They also went on record as favoring an extension of service to give all residents of the east side of Lake Washington equal service.

Lady Stirling Chapter, D. A. R., will hold the first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. H. L. Brede, 1804 15th av., next Tuesday.

E. P. Phillips, who says he fell through the roof of the tunnel of the O. & W. railroad, at Yesler way and Fifth av., last June, has brought suit for $1,925 against the company for injuries alleged to have been received.

Teachers of Seattle will be paid $52,782.22 at the meeting of the teachers' institute at Broadway high next Saturday.

San Francisco.—An affectionate grizzly bear, which broke from a cage on a ferry-boat here, tried to make friends with the passengers. There was a wild scream from the women, and brain soon had the deck to himself.

Henry Reinberger, 21, jumped from a Seattle-bound Milwaukee train near Auburn yesterday while the train was going about 45 miles an hour. He was taken with a violent fit of insanity. He was after-ward found near the place where he jumped, and taken to the city jail.
