

WOMAN WITHDRAWS FROM RACE FOR SEAT IN COUNCIL

The council is going to be permitted this afternoon to vote upon the election of a successor to the late Thomas A. Parish without the council chamber adorned with women.

The movement started Saturday to present the name of Mrs. E. P. Fick as a candidate for the vacancy, and to impress this candidacy upon the council by backing it up with a request of a large number of women, has been given up. Mrs. Fick doesn't want her name to go before the council.

"Not that I would decline a seat on the council," said Mrs. Fick this morning. "I would be perfectly willing to accept it and give all of the time necessary to the work connected therewith. But in my opinion there is absolutely no prospect whatever of the selection of a woman."

James M. Sparkman, who seemed for a time likely of election, is said now to be out of the running. It is predicted that his maximum strength will be but two votes. He is, however, still a candidate.

Prediction was made this morning that Harry Bruskevith, a well-known Rainier valley politician, would receive the largest number of votes, although perhaps not enough for selection today.

Five votes are required to elect. Goddard, Petree, Marble and Hecht probably will stand together. It is their votes that will likely go to Bruskevith.

GOV. LISTER VISITS EXPOSITION SITE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—With a message of enthusiasm and interest from the people of the great commonwealth of Washington to the directors of the Panama Pacific international exposition, and the people of California, Gov. Ernest Lister of Washington visited the exposition grounds during his two days' visit here to inspect the site dedicated to the Washington state pavilion.

The governor made a tremendous impression in San Francisco. At a banquet extended to him by the exposition directors, and the San Francisco Commercial Club, on Saturday, the governor spoke of the common interest and purpose of the states of the Pacific coast.

Saturday afternoon the governor came into conference with the members of the Washington exposition commission, who arrived from Seattle on Friday night, and he viewed with members of the committee grounds dedicated to the Washington state pavilion.

On Sunday the governor was a special guest of honor on a special bay trip, given under the auspices of the exposition and the state harbor commission.

He left at 4 p. m. Sunday to attend the conference of governors at Colorado Springs.

CITY NEWS

When J. H. Smith, proprietor of restaurant at 1003 First av., opened up his cafe for business Sunday morning, he found that a thief had broken into the place and rifled the cash register of $30.

Rev. F. J. Van Horn, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, delivered an interesting sermon entitled "Wrecks at Sea and Wrecks on Land," Sunday night.

It required 27 coaches to carry the excursionists to Moctipa Sunday. The excursion was the last one of the season to be given by the Railroad Men's excursion Co.

J. H. Hamlett, believed to be a machinist in the Puget Sound navy yard, is held by the police, pending investigation into the sale of a large quantity of brass to a junk store.

How "Squick" Kreeger Broke Father's Heart

TRINIDAD, Colo., Aug. 25.—Four years ago Louis Kreeger, marshal of Trinidad, found his own son, "Squick" Kreeger, with a band of outlaws which had plundered a small store near Trinidad.

Marshal Kreeger was a grizzled, fearless old officer, but it broke his heart when his son went wrong. He testified at "Squick's" trial and heard the boy sentenced to the penitentiary, and sternly gave orders that young Kreeger's name must never again be spoken in his home.

And then, when Marshal Kreeger lay dying, a few days ago, he himself broke the long silence and called for his boy.

"Squick's" mother appealed to Gov. Ammons and Warden Tom Tynan. They released "Squick" to go to his father's bedside, but it was too late. The young man arrived in Trinidad in time to weep over Marshal Kreeger's grave.

TEDDY BACK AND LOOKING GOOD

picture of health and more tanned than ever, Col. Roosevelt arrived here today from his Western trip. A traveling salesman was the first to recognize the former president.

"Hi, there, Teddy," he yelled. Col. Roosevelt waved his sombrero at the man and then bounded from the train into the arms of friends.

"Back to civilization at last," he said, "but this soft shirt may not look like it. I spent a most interesting vacation."

Col. Roosevelt begged interviewers to not ask him to discuss the Mexican situation or any other heavy questions. To change the subject, the colonel continued to talk of his vacation.

ENTRIES CLOSE FOR RELIABILITY TOUR

Local automobilists are manifesting a great deal of interest in the "P.L." reliability tour, to be run under the auspices of the Automobile club of Seattle, Aug. 29-31, Sept. 1-2. The entry list closes Wednesday.

Details for the run have been completed. In part, the itinerary includes the road to Tacoma, via Black Diamond and Sumner, passing the country club, thence to Chehalis and Central, on to Aberdeen, returning by way of Olympia and Sumner.

ORDERS ARRESTS

Judge Humphries this morning ordered Prosecuting Attorney Murphy to issue criminal complaints against Dr. Hermon F. Titus, Millard Price, Mrs. Kate Sadtler, and all others who participated in the trap setting of their nets full of Free Speech league meeting Sunday, "and held up the court to contempt and ridicule."

In addition to that, he appointed Attorney H. E. Foster, D. H. Halverstadt, and P. V. Davis, as special prosecutors to bring in such information to the court as to cause the arrest of the people named for contempt of court.

Declaring that socialism, communism and anarchy were synonymous, Judge Humphries this morning changed the injunction against the sale of socialist papers at Fourth and Pike to a prohibition of "anarchist papers." He severely scolded The Star's editorial Saturday, and read from encyclopedias to prove that he is descended from a distinguished family.

DIVERS TO WORK

An effort to recover more of the bodies lost in the wreck of the State of California at Gamber bay August 17 will be made by Submarine Divers Henry Finch, Henry Finch, Jr., and C. F. Stagger. They reached the scene of the disaster Sunday on the steamer City of Seattle.

Funeral services were held at the Bonney-Watson chapel here for Mrs. Nellie B. Ward and Miss Lillian Ward, wife and daughter of E. C. Ward, vice president of the Pacific Coast Steamship Co.

Bodies of all victims have now been identified.

WIRE BRIEFS

SAN FRANCISCO—Two aerial transformers of the Pacific Gas & Electric company, many of whose employees are on strike, were wrecked Sunday by dynamite.

SACRAMENTO—The thermometer registered 109 on Saturday afternoon and 106 on Sunday afternoon, the hottest weather in the history of government observation here.

PULLMAN—Two college students, charged with stealing "Romero," the crowd's smallest "fancy pony," from a circus here, were fined $10 each in police court. The pony was found in the stable of the Phi Upsilon frat house, at which the boys lived.

ST. LOUIS—Fifteen out of 16 women at the smallest swimming contest here yesterday, finished the full two miles of the course in good condition. Miss Bernice won the race. Six-year-old Josephine Hove, who was barred from the race because of her age, swam the course independently, and finished sixth.

SAN FRANCISCO—Gov. Ernest Lister yesterday inspected the site for the Washington building on the grounds of the Panama exposition.

TACOMA—Fire chiefs of the coast cities met in this city today in annual convention. Tomorrow they will be taken to Ashford, and then by stage to Reese's camp, dining at the Rainier National Park Inn.

HELENA, Mont.—The Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads have revoked all passes issued to Montana state officials and the deputies, about 600 in all.

MANILA—Because he was not officially informed of the appointment of his successor, Gov. Gen. W. Cameron Forbes, of the Philippines, today sent his resignation to Washington to become effective Sept. 1, on which date Gov. Forbes will leave for home. Francis Burton Harrison, of New York, will succeed Forbes.

KETCHIKAN, Alaska—L. C. Matthews has five pieces of buckshot in him. He was mistaken for a deer. His injuries are not serious.

STEWARTVILLE, Minn.—Miss Dorothy Vail, aged 10 years, swam out into Lake Florence, dived under and brought to the surface Ralph Towey, who was drowning. The girl then held on with one hand to the drowning boy while she brought him ashore.

FRESNO—Ray Arnold is recovering here from a sunstroke, sustained yesterday when the thermometer mounted to 108.

COMMEND STAR

Senator Miles Polinder and The Star were commended by the members of the Women's Commercial club in a resolution passed by that body in support of the campaign for the opening of Alaska.

The club also resolved to pledge its support to Senator Polinder in his efforts to put through Senate Bill No. 2714, intended to provide for the accomplishment of two great objects, transportation, and the immediate development of Alaska on a permanent basis. The bill provides laws to prevent a monopoly of Alaska's vast resources for private gain.

Hundreds of people were taken away at the dock yesterday, when the Press club excursion boat, Chippewa, sailed for the Anacortes canneries and salmon traps, at Village Point, leaving at 9 a. m. and reaching port on the return trip at 11 o'clock last night.

Over 1,200 people visited the traps, and their nets full of tumbling steel-bright salmon, and the canneries.

PRINCE OF WIED TO RULE ALBANIA

BUCHAREST, Aug. 25.—Announcement was made here today that the powers have agreed to make the prince of Wied, nephew of the queen of Roumania, the ruler of Albania.

The new ruler is 41 years old, a Protestant, and the husband of Princess Pauline of Wurtemberg.
