And now it is SHUSHANNA The New Klondyke of Alaska

History is repeating itself. First came the mighty gold rush to California in '49, then came Klondyke, then Nevada, and now it is Shushanna. In California, in Alaska and the Yukon, Tonopah, in Goldfield, millionaires were turned out by the dozen. Now it is Shushanna.

Millions in Mines

Fortunes that have been made in Stocks

Great fortunes have been made in the gold fields of the world, particularly in those of America, Alaska and Nevada, but the great proportion of fortunes have been gathered, not by the miners themselves, but by the men who held stocks in the gold mines. The discoverers have often sold their property for a song.

Shortly after location, the Mohawk claim at Goldfield was traded for a mule. These shares first sold at 10 cents and later at $250. The man who held the stock in the gold mine, the discoverer, has since sold his property for a song.

Le Roi went from 50 cents to $1.140 a share. Tonopah went from 60 cents to $22.50. Dos Estrellas went from 80 cents to $15.8 a share.

Crown Reserve placed at 45 cents advanced to $60.00. Nipissing went at $1.00 and sold later for $35. Kerr Lake went from $1 to $11; Hudson Bay from 25 cents to $160.

Some Values Today. Ten dollars invested in Swannsea in 1890 became worth $4,500 and has paid $100,000. The man who held the stock in the mine has since sold his property for a song.

Marshall Field paid $25 for his share of a mine that brought him $25,000 when it was sold. A quarter interest in the celebrated Comstock sold for $100,000. The man who held the stock in the mine has since sold his property for a song.

The Le Roi mine sold in 1890 for $1,250. Its market value today is $125,000. Nine years later it sold for $1,800,000. A three-quarter interest in the Independence mine produced $500,000. The man who held the stock in the mine has since sold his property for a song.

Marshall Field paid $25 for his share of a mine that brought him $25,000 when it was sold. A quarter interest in the celebrated Comstock sold for $100,000. The man who held the stock in the mine has since sold his property for a song.

Anacosta, that paid $25,000,000 in profit, sold in 1890 for $100,000. Idaho Gold Mining, that paid $15 times more than its entire capitalization, The Rand in South Africa, for ten years before the Boer war, produced more than $400,000,000. The man who held the stock in the mine has since sold his property for a song.

A well-known business man of St. Paul had a cheque written out for $1,000,000. He refused to cash it. The man who held the stock in the mine has since sold his property for a song.

Two men were offered shares in the Comstock & Independence mines. One bought $1,000 worth, but the other deposited his $1,000 in the bank at 4 per cent interest, which compounded for 30 years netted him $4,471. The other investment is today worth $470,000 and has in addition drawn $1,838,500 as dividends—a total of $1,838,500.

Professor Treadwell sold 100 shares of United Verde in 1890 for $100. He has since sold his property for a song.

Later, he offered her 100 more shares at $100 each. Mrs. F. H. Chase, of Bangor, Maine, at $100 a share.

When Clarke began buying up the stock in 1899 he offered Mrs. Chase $5 and later advanced it to $150, which she refused.

In 1900 Boston brokers offered her $25,000 for her investment of $100. But for her husband's advice she would have taken the additional shares offered her by Treadwell, and would today be worth $1,025,000.

A tidy profit on an investment of $300!

THE boom is on. The discovery of gold in Shushanna electrified the whole world.

It is repeating the history of the Klondyke and the Yukon. Thousands of old prospectors have joined the stampede to the new gold diggings. It is freely predicted that more men will stampede into Shushanna this coming spring than went into Dawson in '97. At that time over forty thousand men rushed into Dawson. Since then nearly two hundred million dollars in gold has been taken out.

Shushanna is the latest big gold discovery on the American continent. Single men have taken out $400 and $500 a day by hand. One property produced over $27,000 in gold in a few weeks. Men have found individual nuggets worth ten and twenty dollars apiece. Yet the possibilities of this wonderful gold discovery have been barely scratched. The discovery was made only a short time before winter set in. Operations had to stop. But thousands of men are preparing to rush into this new gold camp with the first dawn of spring.

The Shushanna Mining and Trading Co., Ltd., was the first big organization to get in on the ground floor of the new gold diggings. Already it has secured an interest in the very heart of the gold discovery. Plans are being made to send a large store of supplies into the new camp. Every dollar's worth can be sold at an immense profit as soon as it arrives.

The great fortunes from mines were made by the stockholders of the mines. In isolated cases the prospector made a fortune, but as a rule the really big money was made by the people who bought shares in mining companies when they were first organized. This is easily explained. The really valuable properties required considerable sums of money for their development and a systematic management to bring them to a paying basis. The prospector seldom has the means to develop the property he finds. He sells out to a company that can develop the property on a large scale.

The Shushanna Mining and Trading Co., Ltd., was organized for development of properties and doing a trading business in the new camp. It is not dealing in properties with a fictitious value. It will acquire or finance only those properties that will make money. But its biggest opportunity is in its trading operations. Men must eat and must be clothed. It costs money to bring supplies into Shushanna. Individual traders have made big money in the short time of the camp's existence. This company will take a big supply of stores into Shushanna in its own steamers (the first steamer is now being rushed to completion in Vancouver) and sell them at its own stores, which will be in charge of experienced men. This will make an immediate big profit for the shareholders. The shareholders will share in every dollar's worth of profit. There are no preferred shares. All stockholders share alike.

If you know of the huge profits made in the early days of the other big gold camps, you will grasp this wonderful opportunity now. A small allotment is now offered at the low price of 14c a share. It will not last long. The stock is fully paid and non-assessable. The company is incorporated under the strict corporation laws of British Columbia.

The Broad Policy

and the Men behind the Shushanna Mining & Trading Co., Ltd.

The Shushanna Mining & Trading Company, Ltd., was incorporated September 26th, 1913, under the Companies Act of British Columbia. The company's operations come under the strict corporation laws of British Columbia. The stock is fully paid and there is no personal liability. The stock is absolutely non-assessable and the company is capitalized with a capital stock of $200,000. This modest capitalization will appeal to the conservative investor.

Officers and Directors—Men of Established Reputation. All the officers of the company are men well and favorably known in Vancouver; more than that they understand the business and were quick to see the opportunity that Shushanna presented to a well organized company for sure big profits. The following are the officers and directors of the company: President, N. Winslow, capitalist; C. J. Stacey, director; J. W. Kager, field manager; H. C. Crumplin, secretary; barristers, Messrs. Burns, McNeill & Co., legal counsel; The Aetna Investment & Trust Company, Ltd., broker; Donald M. MacGregor, manager, Vancouver and Seattle Stock Exchanges.

The qualification of a Director is the holding of one share of the company, and their remuneration is to be determined in general meeting.

The Broad Policy—An Assurance of Legitimacy. The Shushanna Mining & Trading Company, Ltd., was organized to quickly take advantage of the many opportunities for profit in this latest and most startling gold camp—Shushanna. The company will also carry mining, trading, banking, transportation and any other legitimate means that will produce a profit. It is a live, energetic organization of capable business men.

Its first quick profits will come from its trading operations. The company is sending a large store of supplies into the new camp and every dollar's worth of these will be sold at a large profit. These supplies will be shipped on its own steamers (the first of these is now being rushed to completion in Vancouver) and the company will also carry passengers; another source of sure, large income. There is the already acquired mining property at Shushanna, right in the heart of the discovery. Development work will commence on this as soon as weather conditions permit.

The following contract has been entered into: Contract dated 8th October, 1913, between the Shushanna Mining & Trading Company, Ltd., and Messrs. L. McAllister, J. Dawson. The Company has transferred its properties at Shushanna to the Shushanna Mines No. 1 in consideration for $50,000 to be paid in stock of the latter Company.

Stock and Shareholders—A Small Allotment. There is a small block of the company's stock to be sold at fourteen cents a share. This is being rapidly taken up every day. Application will be made in due course to have these shares listed on the Vancouver and Seattle Stock Exchanges, thus offering a ready market to those who may wish to sell their holdings. The shares are distributed all over the country in small blocks, along co-operative lines. Every stockholder should take an active interest in the progress and welfare of the company. To facilitate this a monthly magazine is issued and the shareholders are kept in close touch with every operation of the company.

Quick action is necessary. The time to secure interest in this profit-making organization is now, when the price of its shares is low. The stock will be advanced as soon as the present block is subscribed for.

Profits and Dividends—A Permanent Assurance. The dividends of the company are not only from mining and trading operations, but also from all other legitimate operations of the company. The trading feature alone is bound to make big, quick profits as the demand for the stock is bound to take place in the spring will take thousands of men into the new camp. The company will supply. Naturally, they will be in a large profit. This feature should make the profits for the first six months big enough to pay a handsome dividend next spring, while its trading operations after that, as well as its properties, steamers, etc., assure a permanency in its dividends that will extend far into the future.

Company has power to pay a commission of 20 per cent for investment in selling or guaranteeing the sale of the Company's shares, but it is at present proposed to pay only 15 per cent.

The estimated preliminary expenses are $1,000.00. However, the actual expenses to date have been $348.00, thus saving the Company $652.00.

All the profits of the company are figured along conservative, legitimate lines. All shareholders share alike in the profits. There is no preferred stock. The company's broad policy, efficient management, the big demand for the stock and the fact that it is the first in the field, should convince the most skeptical of the shareholders of the country and her in a block of its shares at the present low price.

The minimum subscription upon which the Directors may proceed to allotment, shall be 5 shares, to be paid in full.

Failure to pay any installment when due will render previous installments liable to forfeiture, and allotment to cancellation.

All subscriptions for stock should be addressed to the Aetna Investment & Trust Company, Ltd., Winch Building, Vancouver, British Columbia, which is acting as registrar for the Shushanna Mining & Trading Company, Ltd. This was done to doubly safeguard the latter company's shareholders in the delivery and registry of its stock. All stock is registered in the purchaser's name and so guaranteed by the Aetna Investment & Trust Company, Ltd.
