Stop Stomach Worries Now

Class A Tablets So That You Can Digest Each Meal Quickly and at the Same Time Renew Your Digestive Strength.

Learn once again how to smile and laugh, and stop this grouchy moodiness. This condition arises from a faulty digestion and cannot be removed unless you use common sense and assist Nature a little.

"I Am a New Man Since Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Gave Me a New Stomach and Appetite."

If the stomach is overworked, its muscles become tired and gradually grow weaker and weaker, until they are unable to take care of the food properly. The glands fail to provide the juices necessary to digest the food. Gases form and cause all sorts of pain, misery and wretchedness, as well as extreme danger to the heart.

It is then that the stomach calls for help. Ordinary medicines are impossible. They not only fail to help the stomach but injure the entire system. Medical men have studied the stomach and have discovered that the digestive juices consist largely of pepsin and nitrogenous ferments. What, then, would be more natural than to supply these properties, artificially when the stomach is unable to produce them?

That is the object of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. These powerful little agents relieve the stomach of its burden, thereby giving it an opportunity to regain its normal strength. They tone up, strengthen and revitalize the secretory glands, mucous membranes, absorbing glands and muscular walls. They restore to the stomach its lost powers of digestion so that it can again do its work without assistance. They contain, in a concentrated form, every element necessary to digest all sorts of food, whether acid or alkaline.

If you experience an oppressive feeling just inside the lower end of your breast bone and extending upward towards your heart, do not hesitate an instant. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets from the nearest druggist at once and take one. In a few minutes the pain will leave you and you will feel better. Take a tablet after each meal for several days and your stomach will once more perform its duties. All druggists sell them at 50c a box.

GIRL REFUGEE FROM MEXICO BECOMES CAMERA PLAY STAR

By Gertrude M. Price
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 14.—
Ramona Langley is a refugee from Mexico!

She is living, temporarily, in a pretty apartment with her mother and sister at Hollywood, waiting for things to quiet down in her home country.

Miss Langley is not a native of Mexico. But the fact that her mother owns a 26,000-acre RANCH near Chihuahua makes her take a very kindly and a very NATURAL interest in calling the place across the borders home.

"We are up here," Miss Langley confided to me, "because we just can't live at home. That's all. 'Our ranch has been in the midst of several of the troubles down there. And before we left it was taken by the insurgents, and the buildings were used as a base of supplies. It was pretty scary, let me tell you, because we did not know what was coming next.'"

"And you are going to stay or shall you go back home?" I asked her. "Oh, it's my home. Of course, I shall go back when things quiet down," she answered. "And in the meantime, you know," she added, "I am having heaps of fun playing before the camera."

Some of her recent pictures are "His Wife's Burglar," "Love, Luck and a Paint Brush" and "Their Two Kids."

She belongs to the Nestor Comedy company.

Haldman von Fygelmessy, the Hungarian aviator employed by Pathe Freres and who met with a bad fall from a height of about 80 feet, is still confined to the hospital by his injuries. Von Fygelmessy took the part of a military aviator in a feature play "Katrina" and was supposed to be spying out the position of the hostile army when he met with his fall. The play was staged at Oakwood Heights, Staten Island.

There is a love story woven through the plot. There are two other plays at the Class A until Saturday night.

"The Two Ordeals," a Kathryn Williams feature, is the second of the Selig series, one of which is released every second week.

"Colonel Heeza a Lie in Africa," is the second of a series of animated cartoons. There is a scene of the California coast on the same reel. Two other subjects complete the program.

Clemmer All Week
"Count of Monte Cristo."

Class A Until Saturday Night
Eileen of Erin, two-part drama; "Helen's Stratagem," Majestic drama; "A Flirt's Mistake," Keystone comedy.

Colonial Until Saturday Night
"The Two Ordeals," Selig two-part drama; "The Inscription," Lubin drama; "The Real Miss Loveleigh," Essanay comedy.

Dream Until Saturday Night

MOTHER! NO USE TAKING CHANCES

IF CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, COSTIVE, GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

If your little one's tongue is coated, if it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

The Confessions of a Wife

Sweetheart the Romance; Wife the Habit of Life

CHAPTER LI.
I asked Eleanor Fairlow to go with me to the matinee this afternoon.

We went to see "The Witching Hour," and we both cried and had a beautiful time, although from what she said I knew we were miles apart in our points of view.

"Do you imagine," she said to me, "that a man can marry one woman, have sons and grandsons about his chair and to the end of his life hunger for the fire of love?"

"I don't know," I answered, "but I know this: Whatever a man asks of his wife—if she loves him—she gives."

"If his heart hungers for something he does not get from her it is because he has not asked for it."

"A clever woman wrote the other day: 'I sometimes think men do not really want women to love them; they want only a certain submission and the grace and comfort of a woman's presence in the background of their lives—the foreground being filled by more interesting matters, such as business, sport, ambition, etc. A great love embraces them.' I have thought much about that little paragraph and I am quite sure we might add to it that many men may all their lives be hugging to their hearts the hunger for that great love which they deceive themselves into thinking some other woman than their wives might give them, while all the while the wife has been learning thoroughly that passionate and poignant sweetness is apt to be very cloying if given as a regular diet."

Eleanor Fairlow looked at me curiously and then she said: "Perhaps you are right, Mrs. Waverly, but do you know I almost think I would rather be the romance than that every-day thing which becomes just a life habit."

I wonder why Dick did not stay in love with Eleanor Fairlow? I am just as certain as that I am his wife that he was in love with her once or at least thought he was and that SHE IS IN LOVE WITH HIM STILL.

I suppose I ought to be very jealous of her, BUT I LONG AGO LEARNED THAT I HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE YESTER-DAYS OF MY FRIENDS, AND I FEEL THE SAME ABOUT MY HUSBAND. It is enough for me that he chose me to be his wife—that I was the woman whom he wanted to be with all his days.

The tragedy that I saw in "The Witching Hour" was the solitude in which we all must live and die. We say "you are a part of me," but even while we say it we know it is not true. Husbands can live all their lives hugging to their "passionate and poignant sweetness" of the "touch of a vanished hand" and wives beside them smile and make believe that they do not miss anything from the "grand, sweet song" of an analytical mind. Why can't I accept without questioning? Sometimes I think.

The only difference in love in heaven and on earth below

CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN AT ONCE, HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

In One Minute Your Stuffy Nose and Head Clear, Sneezing and Nose Running Cease, Dull Headache Goes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heats the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lie awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed, nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous droppings into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.
