CYNTHIA GREY'S ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Q.—I am a girl of 16 and engaged to be married when I am 18, providing we both love each other as much as we do now. I look old for my age and he wants me to get married now, but mamma won't give her consent until I am 18. Oh, Miss Grey, I do hate to lie about my age—wouldn't you? If he loved me, do you think he would ask me to do that? Remember, I love him. Shall we get married now or wait?
SWEET SIXTEEN.
A.—By all means, wait until you are of age, dear girl. You can't afford to begin the most important part of your life with a lie. Besides, do you feel sure you are prepared in every way to take the reins of matrimony into your hands? Girls of 16 seldom are. Suppose you impress this upon your friend, and tell him you are going to spend the next two years in preparation and ask him to do the same. They will be short, full years, I assure you.

Q.—Do you think it is right to make dates over the phone with strange men? I made one with a boy whom I do not know, but don't know whether to keep it or not, but will take your advice.
SIXTEEN.
A.—You are evidently not a reader of my columns, or you would have known what I would say. Certainly it is not right to make dates over the phone with strangers, and if you keep them, you do so at a great risk.

Q.—Do you believe in the tradition that if it rains on Easter Sunday it will rain for seven Sundays afterward?
Will you please tell me what day July 21, 1865, fell on, and also November 27, 1865?
HELENE.
A.—I have no faith in the above saying, because I have known a number of times when it failed. July 21, 1865, fell on Friday; November 27, 1865, fell on Tuesday.

Q.—We have been in this country seven years, all being born in British Columbia. My father has taken out his citizenship papers. Would it be lawful, when we become of age, to vote on his papers?
BOB.
A.—When a man takes out citizenship papers, it also naturalizes his wife and children. You may vote when you become of age.

Q.—Will you please give me some pretty girls' names commencing with the letter "B," and oblige?
M. S.
A.—Blondine, Bettina, Bernice, Belva, Bernicia, Barbara, Blanche.

Q.—Will you please inform me as to who was the author of "Paradise Lost" and did the same author write "Paradise Regained"? Also tell me who was the 8th president of the United States?
"BOSCOH."
A.—John Milton was the author of both "Paradise Lost" and "Paradise Regained."
The 18th president of the United States was Ulysses Simpson Grant.

Q.—Will you please tell me how to clean plaster of paris statues?
A FRIEND.
A.—Ordinary plaster of paris may be cleaned by washing in warm water and soap and drying with a soft cloth.

Q.—Will you kindly give me information as to the age a boy must be to join the army as a volunteer? We are three boys, 15, 16 and 17, and have been contemplating applying for permission to join.
E. F. and M.
A.—Boys under 18 years of age cannot join the army.

Q.—What does demitasse mean? Thanking you, AMY.
A.—Demitasse means half a portion; on a dinner menu, it means a small cup of coffee.

Q.—One of my friends sent me a beautiful fern for Easter, but being entirely inexperienced in caring for them, I am afraid it will die. Can you give me any pointers? I will be grateful for an answer.
DAPHNE.
A.—Ferns should be kept out of the sun and out of a draft. If the tips dry, the air in the room does not have enough moisture. Rust blotches indicate the presence of the little red spider. Wash the plant with weak carbolic soap suds. Fertilize ferns with bone meal.
It is almost impossible to revive a maidenhead fern outside of a green house. For a fern of the coarser variety, repotting may be necessary. Dust is detrimental to all house plants.

Q.—Is the Panama canal to be fortified? If so, can you tell me how much will be spent for this purpose? Thanking you kindly.
A STUDENT.
A.—Acts of congress provide over $5,000,000 to be expended for the fortifications, consisting of sea batteries, field fortifications and camps, submarine structures, armament, etc.

Q.—I come to you at last. I am a young man of 23, and for the last seven years have battled with my heart. When I was 16 I met a girl and fell in love with her, and she loved me. Her mother was opposed to our going together, and she sent me away. I never drank or smoked and was always a gentleman and worked hard. When the girl was of age, she married the man her mother wanted her to. I have never gone near her since, although she has been at times within two blocks of me and wanted me to come, but, Miss Grey, I was afraid I could not trust myself. I still love her, have gone to her for a time, and think lots of her, but I can't forget her; she is always on my mind. Will you kindly tell me what to do?
TROUBLED BOY.
A.—Don't try to forget the girl, but when thoughts of her come to you, let them be without sorrow or Reliable—Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

It is the quality of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound that makes it such a reliable medicine. For cough, cold, croup, whooping cough, bronchial and la grippe coughs, which "hang on" in the spring and weaken the system, it has no equal. It also gives prompt and definite results for hoarseness, tickling throat and stuffy, wheezy breathing. Mrs. Benj. W. Seavey, West Mills, Me., says: "Let me tell you how much I think of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a family cough syrup. It is particularly valuable, as a small quantity has the effect desired, and it contains no opiates. I consider it the best cough syrup we have ever used." And Thos. Vernon, Hancock, Mich., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar has always proven effective, quickly relieving tickling throat, and stopping the cough, with no bad after-effects." In 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottles. The genuine is in a yellow package. For sale by Bartell Drug Stores.

A New Grand Piano

Notes From an Article by the Editor of The Musical Courier Extra, a Journal Circulating Among Piano Manufacturers and Dealers, and Recognized by Them as Being Most Conservative and Reliable.

The above mentioned article is of great length, the editor having dealt with the instrument technically and from a scientific standpoint, but we herewith quote excerpts indicative of his conclusions:

The illustration herewith presents the case design and some of the structural details of a new piano, samples of which are now being offered to the Bush & Lane dealers.

This piano comprises much more than a new case design, and more, even, than a new scale. It represents the working out of a new idea for the attainment of an old ideal; an effort to produce the tone of a horizontal grand piano with an upright scale. And possessing a fairly extensive acquaintance with the efforts of other piano scale draftsmen in this direction, the writer begs to submit as his impression that Mr. Lane has made the farthest advancement yet recorded. This is saying much, but the assertion is not made hastily, nor without regard for the notable achievements of the past.

"It is not an upright of the 'boomling base' type. The scale is balanced, and the tone is remarkable for the so-called 'solidity' that marks the base of a skillfully designed and constructed horizontal grand.

"It is also a piano that will appeal only to persons who want something out of the ordinary and are willing to pay for it; hence, in building and finishing the instrument Mr. Lane gave his skill and originality free rein. The attention to detail was almost painful. One finds little surprises everywhere—from the top-lifters down to the pedals.

This is the carefully considered opinion of an unbiased piano expert.

The virtues of a Grand piano embodied in a case requiring little space in the home has long been the ambition of piano builders. This ambition has been realized by Mr. Walter Lane, president of the Bush & Lane Piano Co., and we cordially invite musicians and the general public to examine and hear this wonderful creation of the piano manufacturer's art—the first of which have just arrived and are now on exhibition at the Bush & Lane Seattle Factory Store.

M'INTYRE WORSE
Suffering a serious relapse, R. J. McIntyre, former deputy sheriff, who was beaten up several weeks ago by County Commissioner Lefe Hamilton, was removed to the Providence hospital Sunday in an unconscious condition. An operation on his head may be necessary. Suit had been started on McIntyre's behalf against Hamilton for $10,000 damages.

CIRCUS IN TOWN
The circus came to town today! Al G. Barnes' big wild animal show, with its three rings of sawdust and joy, its acrobats and clowns, its elephants and camels, and its well-trained bunch of wild animals.

They're at Second and Blanchard. The show is to be given three days under the auspices of the Shriners.

To Pinch Mashers
Chief Griffiths issued general orders today, instructing patrolmen to watch parks on their beats and place under arrest men who frequent such places to insult women.

ATTENTION, LADIES
We are the only factory in Seattle using the new vacuum system for renovating ladies' straw, Milan, hemp, Panama and push hats. We guarantee satisfaction.
