

EIGHTEEN YEARS ON THE DIAMOND HE IS RELEASED FOR FIRST TIME

Charley Jones, a veteran outfielder, holds a record of having played baseball for 18 years before being unconditionally released. Jones recently drew his first release, Winnipeg, of the Northern league, turning him adrift. Previously, whenever he changed clubs, Jones was either sold or traded. He has saved up quite a pile during the time he has been playing ball and is not fretting over his discharge.

Frank Chance believes the best way to make a ball player behave is to take his money. Lew Ritchie once broke the rules and stole away in the night after he was supposed to be in bed. Chance found it out and the next day sent Ritchie on the mound. He lasted only two innings and Miner Brown had to work hard to save the game. Chance fined Ritchie $100 and gave Brown $50 of it for doing his work.

DUGLETS' PROSPECTS BRIGHTER; MAJOR CLUB MAY SEND KELLY BACK

The pitching problem, which has been giving Owner Dug and Manager Teagley many sleepless nights, may soon be solved. The management of the Boston Red Sox will decide the fate of Pitcher Ed Kelly of Seattle within the next few days. This is in accordance with an agreement between the two clubs.

If Boston decide they cannot dispense with Kelly's services, then Dug will get a very handsome check. On the other hand, if he is turned back, Seattle gets him again. Kelly was one of the pitching sensations of the Northwestern league last year, and a half a dozen major league clubs tried to buy him.

TOOTH TALKS By Ohio Dentists

Partial Plates Are a Detriment to the Mouth, Cause the Forming of Pus and Sore Gums, Etc. OHIO DENTISTS Explain Their Method.

Few people realize the damage that can be done in a very short time by a Partial Plate. In the first place, it is a constant irritation to the mouth, and a natural irritation of the gums, that soon become sore and inflamed; pus begins to form, and the partial plate is caused by the continual movement of the Partial Plate. It very naturally loosens the teeth to which it is attached.

THE OHIO METHOD does away entirely with the Partial Plate of any kind. If your teeth were decaying we would fill the cavity and install a permanent bridge. If teeth are missing we would replace them as firmly as any other tooth in your mouth, or as firm as the best tooth can be—without the use of plates—by using the OHIO METHOD, which is one and the same thing. No one would be able to tell the teeth were placed there from a critical examination of your mouth. THE OHIO METHOD is simply an appliance as human ingenuity can ever make dentistry. To do this as we do is to save those teeth which are always the object of the OHIO DENTISTS. Of course you might say, "You have pointed out the disadvantages of ordinary bridgework, but you say nothing about the disadvantages of your method." Our answer is, "There are no disadvantages." You will find this out if you or any of your acquaintances have been treated by the Ohio Dentists. So, from now on, if your dentist says that you must have plate work done, and you wish to avoid something that is quite unnecessary, you will come to him and adopt the OHIO METHOD, which is practiced by them and by them alone. At no other Dental office can you obtain this method of modern dentistry.

We are general practitioners in all branches of dentistry, and have a large number of testimonials from delighted patients tell the story of the pain-saving, sanitary method of using exclusive plates by the OHIO DENTISTS. Remember, too, that examination of your teeth is positively free. And, after learning the plain truth of what the condition of your mouth really is, it will rest entirely with you whether you have the work done or not.

All work is guaranteed. Don't hesitate to come to our offices and ask questions about the wonderful relief obtained from going away with the curse of the partial plate, replaced by the OHIO METHOD, which means a complete set of beautiful, snow-white teeth such as nature herself provided you with.

BOYS, BIRDS, DOGS AND GEES USED AS MASCOTS IN MAJORS

By Hugh Fullerton
The Chicago White Sox were winning, playing brilliantly, rushing the attacks, fighting every step, and already commencing to figure their world's series chances. Then, one afternoon, their bat boy, who has been with them for years, was found weeping disconsolately. Between sobs he told the players that his parents were moving to Michigan and that he would be with them no longer. His father had refused to permit him to remain in Chicago and as mascot.

And, the day after the boy left the team, started to lose. There is the quiet, smart little mascot is deep and abiding. During the early season slump Grandy's dog was in bad with the Naps. Their faith in his efficiency as a mascot was shaken.

Every club has its mascot. There is the quiet, smart little mascot is deep and abiding. During the early season slump Grandy's dog was in bad with the Naps. Their faith in his efficiency as a mascot was shaken.

One Had Live Seal
Bears, dogs, goats, cats, almost every animal has been used as a mascot. The Athletics once pring were offered an elephant painted white. San Francisco had a seal in a pond. Years ago Memphis had a goose, that used to stalk solemnly up to the plate to start a rally when released from the bench. But hunchbacks and small negroes are considered the luckiest.

SEATTLE SENDS STRONG TEAM TO AMATEUR MEET

Represented by the largest team of boxers and wrestlers ever entered in a similar tourney by the local club, the Seattle Athletic club is looked upon as a formidable contender for first honors in the Pacific Northwest Amateur boxing and wrestling championships, which begin at Vancouver tonight.

The preliminaries will be run off tonight, followed by the finals on Wednesday night. Eleven S. A. C. boxers and wrestlers left this city Monday night in charge of Boxing Instructor Pat Scott and Physical Director Frank Vance.

A large party of club members accompanied the team, among them being Charley Hill, Tom Conlon, Glenn Huff, Charley Beckington and others. This year's team has made the greatest success in the history of the club. Of 32 contests engaged in, the club has met defeat only four times.

Those who take part in the tourney are Earl Baird and Ralph Underwood, 115; Tommy Phelps, 108; Edward Pinkman, 125; Andy Duval, 135; Val Somare, 145; Bill Pierce, 175; and heavyweight, Runcher, 125 and 135; Claud Fortner, 145; Lloyd Wray, 158, and Bob Wiley, heavyweight, are the wrestlers.

WATSON IS FAVORITE
SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Both Red Watson and Gilbert Gallant were rapidly rounding into form today for their 20-round bout at Daly City next Friday evening. Watson probably will enter the ring a slight favorite, as he almost stowed Gallant away with a right swing to the jaw when they met here several weeks ago.

O'BRIEN HAS MANNY
NEW YORK, May 5.—Manny Moran has taken Young Jack O'Brien under his management. The first thing Danny did was to send Jack up to Stamford, Conn., to get into condition.

JOE JACKSON WILL BE PAID FOR HITS

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 5.—If Joe Jackson, the great outfielder of the local American League club, continues battling throughout the season as he has during the early games of the season, he will increase his salary by many hundreds of dollars.

Jack is working on a graduated salary. He is to be paid a stipulated sum per month and in addition to that gets a bonus if he bats more than 400, a little smaller bonus if he hits .375 or better, and a good increase if he finishes with a .350 stride.

LOCAL AMATEUR SETS A RECORD; NO RUNS, NO HITS
A Star league pitcher set a record Sunday that is bound to stand for many a day. He pitched a no-run, no-hit game, and fanned 18 batters.

The pitcher was Berry, who performed for the Dickie Mfg. Co. team in Section No. 1 against the Washington Park nine. The Dickies took the game 13 to 0.

AX FOR NETZEL
PORTLAND, May 5.—Manager Nick Williams of the Portland Northwestern league today unconditionally released outfielders Miles Netzel and Duke Whitt and infielder Babe Reams. Whitt comes from Visalia, Cal.; Reams was purchased from the Boise Tri-staters and Netzel signed last season, but has not shown any class this year.

CARPENTIER A HOLDOUT
Letters from Dan McKettrick, who is still in Paris, says that exportation demands by the French heavyweights has resulted in a hitch in the proposed Georges Carpentier-Gunboat Smith bout. Carpentier wants $20,000 for his hand, but the best promoter Dick Burge will promise is $15,000.

SPORT HIGH SPOTS

Johnny O'Leary is going to get a chance to retaliate for that beating he took from Eddie Moy the crack Easterner in San Francisco the other night. The Capital City Athletic club, of Sacramento, has negotiated with both Moy and O'Leary, regarding a 20-round scrap in that city this month. They have O'Leary's consent.

A bevy of boys from this corner of the sound are going to don the gloves at the Kaxier's smoker in Tacoma tonight. Heading the card is Frenchie Vaise, who is fast gaining Leach Cross distinction as a rank in and out. Frenchie is going to hook up with a young fellow named Paul Steele and unless he keeps awake he's going to find himself bumped by a girder. This Steele person is no slouch, and Frenchie can't stuff along if he hopes to cop the plum. If Vaise again a loser he will have just about reached the end of his rope as a fighter, because no promoter is anxious to bill a loser.

Tacoma fans are considerably enthused over the matching of Joe Bonds and Larry Madden for the semi-final at the same show. Madden is a Portland cop who is very handy with the gloves, and hits with the force of a wallop from a nightstick. Bonds will have his hands full without a doubt, and if he wins, the Tacoma writers will praise him to the skies. Anyhow, it ought to be a lively set-to, with something doing every minute.

In the first 16 games played by the Spokane Indians not a single pitcher was taken off the mound by Manager Lynch. This is considered a remarkable feature in the fact that the games were all played in the early spring when the pitchers were

BOUNCE FOR JONES?
SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Advices received here today from the East indicate that Ad Wolgast and his manager, Tom Jones, have had another disagreement. The trouble this time is said to be due to Jones' efforts to keep the former champion out of the ring until his injured hands mend.

FIX DATE OF BOUT
NEW YORK, May 5.—Unless something unforeseen occurs, Billy Murray, the California middleweight, and Al McCoy, who recently knocked out George Chip, will meet in this city Thursday night, May 21, over the ten-round route.

IT'S A BALLY SHAME
LONDON, May 5.—Joe Jeanette, the colored heavyweight, got a decision over Goy Hall, an Australian, in 20 rounds here last night. The crowd hooted the decision.

THE BOX (OFFICE) SCORE I met a baseball magnate and I asked about the game. "What was the score?" I asked him, and a thrill went through his frame. A smile of peace and happiness was in his eager eye. "Attendance, twenty thousand," was the magnate's glad reply.
