The Grand Old Appeal of Bunk

In a state where a reactionary candidate for governor, a believer in privilege, a foe of people's rule, is running on a ticket with certain progressive candidates for minor offices—the latter merely shells allotted to the liberal wing while the stand-patters keep the oyster—the political organs are tuning up in this wise: "The situation calls for harmony. The time has come for a rally in support of the party." Note it well—"in support of the PARTY"; not "for the welfare of the people." "For the party," men who believe in the I. & R., in equal suffrage, in curbing greed, in putting opportunity down from the level of a pet few to where it can be realized by the many, are asked to vote for a governor who is against all these things and who would use the power of office to block them.

"Shoot the Spy"

he took me aside and asked me as to my travels, what parts of the country I had seen. He asked me of the country around Insterberg, questioned me as to the country about Dusseldorf, and seemed pleased that I remembered well what I had seen. Then he asked me would I prefer that I should serve my time in the secret service rather than with the colors. I told him yes, because it was that which had been in my mind since a boy. So I was sent to Berlin to learn. It was thus that I became a spy. Of the 14 years I have served I say nothing save that after five year more or less important missions were entrusted to me. Of the war with the Russ we heard constantly until it seemed as far off as when I was a boy at Insterberg. Yet, Germany always was ready. Several times we have been near war, but it passed. Once, a year ago, we were very near. I was then in Belgrade and in Vienna. It was a plot of Servians against Austria.

CRITICISE GERMANS LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Post's Petrograd correspondent criticises German tactics in the fighting in East Prussia, declaring the Germans seem to follow the line of least resistance instead of following sound military principles. "Both the German defeats in Galicia and Western Russia exemplify the same defects in tactics," he says.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally. breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again. Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

What is a Child Worth in Dollars? KING COUNTY should be too big to quibble over pennies when the health, the morals, and even the lives of some of its unfortunate children who must have the protection of the juvenile detention home are at stake.

PORTUGAL ANXIOUS TO GRAB TERRITORY BERLIN, (via Sayville) Oct. 7.—Commenting on intimations that Portugal was likely to declare war against the Kaiser, the German press today surmised that the reason for such action might be found in a Portuguese ambition to secure a share of the fatherland's African possessions adjacent to Portugal's own territories in the dark continent.

GIRL TO BE EDITOR Miss Lena White, a senior in the journalism department of the university, was chosen yesterday to edit the Tye, the varsity annual. Herbert Finck was elected yell master and Anthony Savage vice president of the student body.

How About It, Marse Henry? WHAT'S this? Only 14 of Kentucky's 120 counties left "wet"? The land of mint juleps and corn sweetness; the very citadel of the distillery business in America? Surrounded and captured by the Anti-Saloon league? Sufferin' wildcats, what does it mean? It's surely about time for a few words from Col. Watterston.

BASE BALL DOPE! JUDGE CHADWICK goes even further than the "Stop-Look-Listen" league. Even the hyphenated league didn't claim there were actual forgeries on the "Seven Sisters." Their strongest contention was that some husbands signed their wives' names.

Help the Stomach Digest Your Food When the stomach fails to digest and distribute that which is eaten, the bowels become clogged with a mass of waste and refuse that ferments and generates poisons that are gradually forced into the blood, causing distress and often serious illness. Most people naturally object to the drastic cathartic and purgative agents that shock the system. A mild, gentle laxative, positive in its effect, and that will quickly relieve constipation, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, sold by druggists at 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. It does not grip or cramp, but acts easily and pleasantly, and is, therefore, the most satisfactory remedy for children, women and elderly persons. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

REPUBLICANS, DEMOCRATS, PROGRESSIVES alike, attended that big meeting in the Hippodrome to endorse the passage of the currency bill which puts a stop to artificial panics. But Congressman Humphrey of Seattle voted against that bill. Would you have voted against it also, Mayor Hi Gill? OF COURSE you are ashamed of Humphrey. There's plenty of reason.

Help the Stomach Digest Your Food (Continued) My own fears were lulled. One Belgian officer with whom I held conversation shrugged his shoulders when I broached the subject of the murder of the Austrian prince, and said the powers would find a way to avoid trouble; that they did not want it. At Antwerp I encountered a member of the Russian secret service, who recognized me. Seeing I was known, I quickly saluted him, and we spent the evening together, discussing the chances of war. He pretended he was merely loitering, after completing an errand in France, and I growled that I was always being dispatched on wild goose chases. Neither of us deceived the other.

Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

COUNTY CLERK SICKELS' salary list is bigger this year than last year, though there is no increase of business. He's letting the taxpayers pay for his own political machine. Here's the place to economize and not on the Juvenile Detention home, gentlemen of the Chamber of Commerce.

Help the Stomach Digest Your Food (Continued) The one thing of importance to report was that both British and French engineers had inspected the works within the fortnight. What this portended I left my chiefs to discover. Returning after 10 days at Namur I reached Cologne, and forwarded my report, waited and received a brief command to repeat the moves at Mons, Antwerp and Liege. I found little change or activity either at Mons or Antwerp. The people were not talking of war, and the officers of the Belgian army were not concerned, or did not seem to be. My own fears were lulled. One Belgian officer with whom I held conversation shrugged his shoulders when I broached the subject of the murder of the Austrian prince, and said the powers would find a way to avoid trouble; that they did not want it.
